

The Avanti Water Bugs, comprised of Michelle Kelly, Sylvia Santarelli, Roberta Hosey and Bernice Hosey thrilled spectators at the Harveys Lake Firemen's Annual Fair last week when they performed feats in the water aboard their skis. Applause also greeted the Five Man Pyramid Act with Joe Volinsky, Bud Boris and Bill Dunn providing the support for Michelle Kelly and Bernice Hosey. Singular feats added to the entertainment.

Dallas girls win at 4-H roundup

Championship honors were captured by Jeanette and Kathleen Goeringer, RD 3, Wyoming, and Kathleen showed a 4-year-old Holstein. Jeanette also won the fitting division of the show with the best groomed and clipped animal and took reserve honors in the showmanship class.

Warren Sutton, RD 5, Shavertown, was best showman and took reserves honors in fitting.

Awards of cash, ribbons and trophies were presented by the Luzerne County Youth Development Fund under the sponsorship of the Luzerne County Agricultural Extension Service.

According to county agent E. V. Chadwick, 10 of the Back Mountain entries are eligible for the Northeastern District 4-H show to be held in conjunction with the Progress Field Days at Towanda Aug. 27.

Dingle on dean's list

Erik Dingle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dingle, Trucksville, has earned a place on the dean's list at Boston University. He will begin his sophomore year in September, majoring in business administration. He is also a member of the university's crew team.

The Trucksville team finished the Back Mt. Little League season as Major League champions after defeating Fernbrook 4-2. The champs sought revenge on the Fernbrook boys after losing their only game to them during the first half of the season.

Standing: Jim Duffy, assistant manager; Mark Engler, Kevin Rose, Tom Duffy, C. J. Seigel, Dave Fritzes, Harold Rose, manager.
