

LAKE-LEHMAN HIGH SCHOOL

by MILLIE WEISS

Car Wash a Success

The car wash held Saturday, Sept. 20, and sponsored by Lake-Lehman's Crusader's staff, was definitely a success. Many thanks are extended to everyone who helped make it that successful. Advisors were Carol Ann Oliver and Maureen Purcell.

Band in Bloomsburg

Lake-Lehman's prize winning band will represent Lake-Lehman at the Bloomsburg Fair Sept. 26. The band director is John Miliauskas.

Hockey

Lake-Lehman's girls' hockey team will play their first game Sept. 30 against Dallas. All thirty girls who tried out for this exciting sport made the team, although the line-up hasn't been determined. Managers are Linda Neizgoda, Cathy Edwards, Lisa Bennett and Rosemary Williams. The coach is Miss Morris. Good luck!

Magazine Campaign

Lake-Lehman's annual magazine campaign began Monday, Sept. 15, and the entire junior high was urged to sell as many subscriptions as possible. The amount they sell will determine whether or not they will go on field trips and whether paid films and assemblies will be sponsored.

Special prizes in the form of stuffed animals will be presented for good salesmanship. Anyone selling $10 worth of subscriptions will receive a Hobo Cat, while anyone selling $25 will have his choice of a cat, Road Runner or Snoopy. $50 worth of subscriptions will get a hound dog or terrier. A subscription of Sports Illustrated will give a chance to go to the Orange Bowl.

A pizza party will be awarded to the first homeroom with full participation. A large dog will be delivered to their room and their teacher will receive $25 worth of gasoline. Mrs. Worth is advisor.

It's a Boy

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Thresten proudly announce the birth of their son, born Sept. 15. Mr. Thresten teaches P.O.D. and World Cultures at Lake-Lehman.

Lake-Lehman

Monday, Sept. 22, the juniors hustled and bustled all day as they ordered their class rings, which will be delivered prior to Christmas. Class advisor is Mr. Wilczewski.

Lake-Lehman's football team traveled to Hanover Township Stadium last Friday to battle Hanover High. In a thrilling and well fought game the Knights emerged victorious as quarterback Jim McDermott threw two passes. Final score: Lake-Lehman 14, Hanover 6.

Sarley home from Vietnam

William C. Sarley is home again in the United States, flying in from Vietnam by the northern route and winging home from Seattle Sept. 9 after a year of duty overseas.

William C., son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Sarley, 45 Midland Drive, now has his honorable discharge from the Air Force after four years of service. Vietnam was his only tour of duty overseas. The first three years were spent at various posts in the United States, Lackland, Chanute, McGuire, Dover Delaware.

He is a 1964 graduate of Dallas High School. His wife is the former JoAnn Norrie of Trucksville. The couple expects to settle down in this area. For a time they will live in an apartment in Shavertown, eventually moving to Dallas.

Mr. Sarley received the Dallas Post while in Vietnam. It took a long time to get there, he reports, but it was always welcome.

Dallas students win art awards at fair

Five Dallas Senior High School students received art awards at the Dallas Area Fall Fair. Three were first prize winners.

Sue Ellen Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Roberts, 464 Main Road, Dallas, was awarded the grand prize, special award for her non-objective yarn painting. She received the special first prize blue ribbon plus a $25 government savings bond.

Jean Beagle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Beagle, RD 3, Dallas, took a second prize ribbon for her acrylic painting of "Flowers in a Vase."

Cindy Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. DeWitt Smith, Goodleigh Farm, Dallas, was awarded a second prize ribbon for her pen and ink rendition of an "Indian on a Horse."

Liz Eckman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Handford L. Eckman, Machell Avenue, Dallas, was awarded two prizes. A first prize for her figure study of a "Boy" in watercolor and third prize for her pink flowers rendered in tempera paint.

David Burkhardt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Burkhardt, Roushey Street, Fernbrook, last year a senior, now a student at Penn State Extension School, received a first prize ribbon for his illustrated lettering of a poem.

COLLEGE MISERICORDIA

Did you know that Bob Gower, the college Development Director, played varsity football at the University of Scranton when the school had some of its strong teams? He majored in accounting at the university and was associated with the Prudential Insurance Co. prior to taking up his duties at College Misericordia.

Gower is excited these days about the Theatre 3 program which will bring the famed Fred Waring Orchestra and Chorus to Irem Temple in Wilkes-Barre next month. Only members of Theatre 3 will be able to see this fine attraction. Edmund O'Neill, resident of Forty Fort, is the director of the evening and summer sessions of the college. He points out that registration for the evening and extension classes start Saturday and the evening session gets under way Monday and will be held four nights per week, Monday through Thursday.

Attending the recent "Presidents to Presidents" Conference in Washington, D.C. as representatives of Sister Miriam Teresa O'Donnell, RSM, and president of the college, were Sister Mary Joel, RSM, and Karyn Kruse of Kingston, president of the Student Government. They heard a number of prominent national figures as discussions were held relevant to the work of student government on the nation's campuses.

Alumnae Association of the College will conduct its 12th annual Homecoming from Oct. 3 through 5 at the college. Hilda Garey, executive alumnae secretary, and Mrs. William Diana, president of the association, report plans are progressing well and anticipate a large turnout of graduates for the fall reunion.

Formerly associated with the Wilkes-Barre office of the Bell Telephone Co, Eugene Lavery of Harrisburg addressed the Tri Sigma Club Monday night in Kennedy Lounge on campus. The utility official showed how telephone communications are advancing and demonstrated use of the electrocardiograph between two distant cities of the nation. Imelda Brislin, club moderator, welcomed the visitor to the college.

College Misericordia and King's College have a cooperative agreement by which students of either college are able to take courses at the co-operating college. Several College Misericordia students are taking advantage of the plan this year to study Data Processing in the electronic computing center at King's.

A Dallas resident, Robert W. Laux, is prominent in working for both College Misericordia and King's College. As president of the King's Century

L-L Band Sponsors plan busy season

Lake-Lehman band sponsors are anticipating a busy two months with a spaghetti supper and bake sale, a used paper drive, and a rummage sale on the agenda.

The spaghetti supper and bake sale is slated for Saturday, Oct. 4, immediately following the Lake-Lehman vs. Central Catholic football game on the home gridiron. The used paper drive gets underway Saturday, Nov. 1, and Sunday, Nov. 2. The rummage sale will be held at the Jackson Township Fire Hall, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 28 and 29.

The spaghetti supper will be held at the high school with Club, he is working on the drive for new members being held by the club. At the Dallas college, he is active in the drive of Theatre 3 for members and patrons.

Mrs. William Calkins and Mrs. Albert Ashton as cochairmen.

Menu will be spaghetti and meat balls, tossed salad, grated cheese, hard rolls, ice cream slices, tea, coffee and orange drink. Take-out orders will be sold to those bringing their own containers. Bake sale will be held outside the school immediately after the game.

The used paper drive is now in progress with collection to be made at the high school, Nov. 1 and 2, in a trailer placed there for that purpose. Those taking papers, etc. to the school are asked to tie them in bundles or place them in cardboard boxes. Those who cannot possibly take them may contact any member of the band sponsors for pick-up.

Richard Culver is chairman of the rummage sale. Everyone is asked to save his rummage and deliver it to the fire hall

Roberts family welcomes son

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Roberts, Bear Creek, have welcomed into their home a baby boy, Christopher.

Mrs. Roberts is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kasaba of Carverton. Mr. Roberts is a son of Florence Roberts, Davenport Street, Dallas.

Next meeting of the band sponsors will be held Tuesday, Oct. 21, at the high school at 7:30 p.m.

DALLAS SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

by KAREN DAVIS and DEBBIE KAPRAL

The upperclassmen would like to welcome the sophomore class and wish them luck in the coming year. We would also like to extend a welcome to the new members of the faculty, Verdun Thomas, Dorothy Peifer and John Turner.

An especially warm greeting goes out to our foreign exchange students from Japan and Sweden, Shinsuke Takahashi and Michael Antin.

At a class meeting held Sept. 11 the senior class elected officers. John Fleming was voted president; Judy Allen, vice president; Elaine Friedman, secretary; and Bob Griffiths, treasurer.

At the same meeting, Karen Kennedy, Debbie Hartman, Jack Fedock, and Frank Klug were chosen to represent Dallas High School at the Rotary Fall Fair. We are proud to say Jack Fedock and Debbie Hartman were chosen King and Queen of the fair.

The first school dance of the year was held Saturday, Sept. 13. Music was provided by the New Testament. The dance was sponsored by the senior class.

Dallas met West Side Tech at home in the first football game of the season Saturday, Sept. 13. Dallas triumphed with a 40-6 victory. The second game of the season was held Sept. 19 with G.A.R.
