To Parents Having Blue Cross And Blue Shield Coverage:

DID YOUR CHILD BECOME 19 YEARS OLD THIS YEAR?

If your child becomes 19 during 1969, he must apply for his own coverage to continue his Blue Cross and Blue Shield. Although covered by a parent's Blue Cross and Blue Shield membership now, if your child becomes 19 during 1969, he must apply now for his own membership, which would become effective January 1, 1970. In order to continue this protection for your child, contact your local Blue Cross office to make this important change NOW!

NOTE: Eligible dependent children are covered after age 19 while incapable of self-support because of a disabling sickness or injury that commenced prior to age 19. Such children must legally reside with and be financially supported by the subscriber. If you have such a child who is 19 years old this year or is over 19 years of age, contact your local Blue Cross Office.
