

DALLAS SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

by KAREN DAVIS

The Junior-Senior Play
The Junior-Senior play, "You Can't Take It With You," will be presented on the evenings of Nov. 20 and 21, at 8 p.m. Tickets will be available at the door. The play is under the direction of Mr. Hopkins. Students guests of the Boston Store

Two business practice classes were guests of the Boston Store in Wilkes-Barre. The students were given a tour of various business offices and refreshments were served.

The teachers accompanying the students were Miss Thomas and Mr. Hontz.

Meeting at Coughlin
Susan Owens, Sandy Gorden, Elaine Friedman and Kathy Brennen will represent Dallas High School at a meeting to be held Dec. 2 at Coughlin High School.

The purpose of the meeting will be to discuss plans for a dance for all junior and senior classes in the Wyoming Valley which will be held later in December.

Football
Dallas met Central Catholic at home Nov. 10. Despite the efforts of the Mountaineers, Central won with a 14-0 score.

The Mountaineers met with the Coughlin Crusaders Friday, Nov. 14, at Coughlin.

Choristers
The Dallas High School Choristers will provide music at an ecumenical service to be held at the Trucksville United Methodist Church Thanksgiving Eve, Nov. 26.

School Dances
A dance sponsored by the senior class was held Nov. 15 from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Music was provided by Joe Nardone and the Allstars.

The junior class will sponsor a dance to be held Nov. 26 from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m.

Future Teachers Club

Members of the Future Teachers Club participated in a student teaching program for National Education Week. Students took over elementary classes in the Dallas Borough School Nov. 13. Members of the club who took part were: Bonni Long, Lorene Daring, Scott Lefko, Debbie Anderson, Ruth Lewis, Barb Connolly, Susan Bucan and Joan Farley.

Chorus Concert

The Dallas Senior High School Chorus will present a concert for the general public Dec. 14 at 3 p.m.

Senior Class Hayride

A program for the student body will be given Dec. 19.

Dallas Brownies observe birthday

Brownie Troop 637, Dallas, observed its troop birthday Tuesday, Nov. 11, at the Dallas United Methodist Church.

Joan Bolinski furnished a birthday cake and the birthday song was sung by candlelight.

Cadette Scouts Karen Aicher, Janice and Dana Ziegler taught the Brownies new songs and games.

The regular meeting of the Daddow-Isaacs Post 672 American Legion Auxiliary will be held at the Dallas Legion home tonight, Nov. 20, at 7:30.

Members are asked to bring washcloths and scissors to make favors for prizes at the VA Hospital.

A report will be given by members of the auxiliary who participated in the Veterans Day parade Sunday, Nov. 9.

A scene in "Think Your Way to a Million" depicts college girls using all their feminine wiles to convince the college president's son that he's got to help steal a bathtub. Shown are Margaret Wojtowicz, Dwaine Edwards, Maureen Gildea, Joleen Shaw, Charles Haczewski and Barbara Derwin rehearsing for the Lake-Lehman School play.

L-L to present three-act comedy

The senior class of Lake-Lehman High School will present a zany three-act comedy, "Think Your Way to a Million," Friday, Nov. 21, in the high school auditorium. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

Written by Carol Lynn Pearson, the play sports a cast of 17 and features a collegiate atmosphere. Since the copyright date is 1968, it has only been presented in a few American high schools and colleges.

Lake Lions fete Little Leaguers

The Harveys Lake Lions Club gave a dinner recently for members of the Little League and their fathers.

Awards were presented to the boys by Lion president, Charles Saamer, and Little League manager, Al Wendel.

Fathers present were: Bill Purclee, Francis Fisher, Edward Ungvarsky, Ernest Daily, Lloyd Naugle, Duane Wickard, coach; James Bonham, Thomas Garrity, Fay Williams, Jacob Brin Jr., Floyd Taylor, Emmet Hoover and Al Wendel Jr.

Grand old Culver College, an outpost of individualism, is running out of funds and faces closing its doors. But a group of dorm students, led by Rona Vincent, a vivacious "doer" of a class president, tries to save the school by making one million dollars.

How these students raise this huge sum in six weeks is hilarious. A bath tub is the center of attraction for many slapstick antics.

Dwaine Edwards stars as the lead, Rona Vincent, while Maureen Gildea, Barbara Derwin, Joleen Shaw and Margaret Wojtowicz portray her four adventurous, fun-loving roommates.

The other members of the cast are: Linda Williams, dean of women; Merwin Updyke, college president; Charles Haczewski, college president's son and Rona's boyfriend; Rita Post, the president's secretary; Brad Kreller, a slick salesman; Robert Kocher, Culver's wealthiest alumnus; Jerry Miner, a TV personality; John Mihal, cameraman; Jody Stroud, William Pudim, and Joseph Nixon, fraternity boys; Thomas Twardowski, the TV voice.

Codirectors are Maureen Purcell and Carol Oliver. Various crews are working behind the scenes in preparation for the one-nighter. Tickets may be purchased from any members of the senior class or at the door.

Brian Beard sees Nov. 14 moonshot

Brian Beard, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beard, 117 Church St., Dallas, was selected to participate in the Apollo 12 Moonshot Nov. 14 at Cape Kennedy on the basis of his outstanding leadership record and interest in geological science.

Brian, a graduate of Dallas Senior High School, is a student at The Pennsylvania State University in geological science.

He has been a 4-H member for the past ten years and is a member of the Cloverleaf 4-H Club of Trucksville with Mr. ers. Brian has been an outstanding 4-H teen leader, winning a national 4-H awards scholarship in 1968. He served on the Governor's Committee for Children and Youth at the county, district and state levels.

The Apollo 12 program included, at the invitation of the director of NASA, an educational orientation session Nov. 13 with a tour of NASA facilities. It also included a VIP viewstand of the moonshot.

He was honored by the county 4-H council during his stay there.
