less explosives used in quarry

visors meeting Tuesday Nov. 11, residents Thomas Bunney and Andrew Stofko conceded that the recent blasting at the American Asphalt quarry was mild and did no damage to their homes. The men had complained bitterly about the blasting at the supervisors previous meeting.

Supervisors Harold Bertram and Elmer Laskowski reported that they had met with American Asphalt Co.'s vice president, Bernard Banks Jr., and that Mr. Banks had agreed to check out the possibilities of altering the shot procedures in

At Jackson Township Super- the interest of better community relations.

The supervisors noted that they had also met Oct. 20 with the zoning board and township solicitor Jonathan Valentine to learn what other action could be taken to prevent reported damage from blasting. Letters had been drafted by the secretary to the Bureau of Mines and Mineral's in Harrisburg requesting information about blasting restrictions.

In other business before the board, Mr. Bertram acknowledged that negotiations were underway to purchase salt for

Blue Cross to show film on drug abuse

A documentary color film trilogy on drug abuse, entitled "The Distant Drummer," will be presented as a public service by Blue Cross of Northeastern Pennsylvania and Pennsylvania Blue Shield in an hour-long television special Friday, Nov. 21, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. on WBRE-TV.

The film series, which is narrated by movie stars Robert Mitchum, Paul Newman, and Rod Steiger, is being distributed by Blue Cross and Blue Shield Plans across the country. The first film in the program, "A Movable Scene," is narrated by Robert Mitchum and explores the dangers of dope

"Flowers of Darkness," narrated by Paul Newman, tells the story of the "hard" drugsmorphine and heroin-from the sources of supply in Turkey to the drug jungles of major American cities.

Rod Steiger narrates the third film, "Bridge from No

NEWLY ESTABLISHED PRINTING PLANT HAS OPENINGS FOR -

Foreman-With Webb and sheet fed experience. Foreman-With color stripping and camera experience. Experienced Pressmen and Helpers— Single color Webb offset Experienced Pressmen and Helpers-Offset Color Cameramen

Offset Color Strippers and Plate Makers Bindery Operators and Trainees Switchboard Operator and Receptionist Bookkeepers

Applications Accepted
Monday through Friday, 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.

VALLEY PAPERBACK MFRS., INC.

MAIN ROAD, DALLAS, PENNA.

or Grandmother

husband and wife

Family Jewels

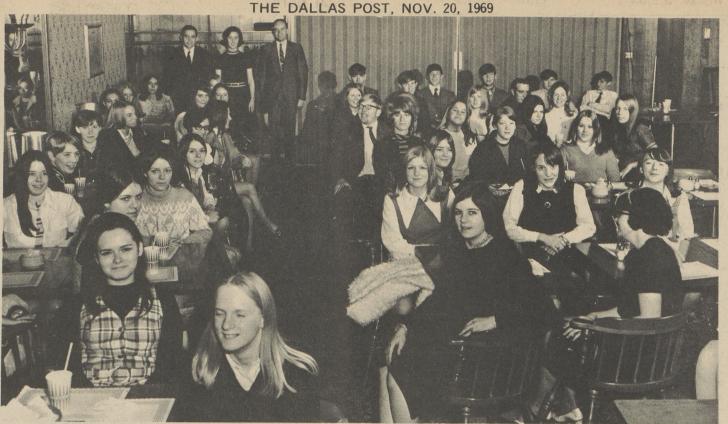

R. L. EYET

Jeweler

196 N. Memorial Hwy.

Shavertown

truly
a "birthstone

Students of the Dallas High School office practice classes attended a clinic at Fowler, Dick and Walker Nov. 11.

education dinner guests hear PSEA speakers

School District came at a din-High School. The dinner, given public school classroom. by the Dallas Education Associ-

Dr. Helen Wise, president of the PSEA, expressed her pleasure at the great interest in education shown in this area. She said 90,000 teachers comprising the PSEA were constantly on the move to improve educational standards and the he or she needed. faculties that had such an important job to do.

Ruth Ambrose, chairman and toastmaster of the affair, referred to Dr. Wise as a dynamic leader. She said "We will follow her anywhere."

Robert Phelps, executive secretary of the PSEA, in his prophet in any culture and our speech warned, "A tremendous teachers must be optimists. We

DRS. I. & P. BERGER

Optometrists

27 Machell Ave., Dallas

675-5067

Monday & Thursday Evenings For Appointment

ORDER YOUR FRESH

KILLED POULTRY

Memorial Highway, Dallas

Wednesday Morning

Culmination of Education challenge is to be met if we Week activities in the Dallas are to win the American dream and for the most part ner Thursday at Dallas Junior this will have to be done in the

"These are serious times and ation, was attended by over 500 despite fabulous advances in science and industry we still have the oldest school system in the world.

Mr. Phelps went on to say, "education has been mainly the advantage of the privileged few" and "the teacher was never given the affluence which "Automation can never take the place of the pupil teacher relationship and we are opposed to it in education. Schools can not be all things to all people but we must have the power to tell them what is to be taught

"The true optimist is the must look ahead to what the children need in the future. We have the best and the most promising generation and we, the job done for America.

teacher in all phases of life self reliance. We first work to gain their respect and then their love. We do love them, or we could not be in the teaching

Mrs. William Austin was cochairman of the dinner. The Rev. Francis Kane gave the in-Prater gave the benediction.

Representatives Frank O'Connell, Bernard O'Brien and Fred Shupnik were commended for their efforts in behalf of progress in education.

Guests included Robert Rowland, superintendent, Luzerne County Schools; Joseph Riegel Northeastern Representative; James Williams, president, Luzerne County Coordinating Legislative Committee; Wesley Davies, former superintendent of Luzerne County Schools; Dr. Robert Mellman, superintendent of Dallas School District, and Shinsuki Takahashi, exchange student from Japan.

thefts reported at Dallas school

There have been reports from students of several incidents of petty theft at the new Dallas Junior High School. Assistant principal of the school, Fred Case, said that "these incidents the teachers, are going to get have mainly concerned money taken from girl's pocketbooks." Mrs. Ambrose urged closer He said, "it is too bad that" cooperation between parent and they have to lose their money, and said, "the greatest task of be eliminated by the girls keepthe educator is to teach the child ing their bags with them and not leaving them behind in The thefts are begin investigated but, as Mr. Case pointed out, "no one can cover the entire building." An announcement has been made to students informing them of "the temptavocation and the Rev. John tion given by leaving their valuables unattended.

two day season

Pennsylvania's big game days in which they can harvest black bears this year.

The season for bruins opens one-half hour before sunrise sunset Saturday, Nov. 29.

Dallas classes attend clinic

Dallas Senior High School at- visor; Kay Williams, fashion tended a business grooming and coordinator; John Emmert, behavior clinic in the Pickering men's department; and Maria Room of Fowler, Dick and Walker, Tuesday Nov. 11. The efforts of David N. Schooley, executive vice president of Fowler, Dick and Walker.

The class was presented many informative topics, including grooming, applying for a job and good business behaviour, which were presented by the following personnel of the Boston Store: Harold Trethaway, vice president and personnel director; Curtis Montz, sales promotion director; Mary Ann Nickett, Pennalyn Beauty Salon representative; Janie Morgan, cosmetics department;

at U. of Arizona

Robert P. Rosenberg, a University of Arizona sophomore from Dallas, is active on the campus as vice president of hunters will have only two the Student Religion Council. Mr. Rosenberg, an agriculture major, is a member of Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity. He is the son of Mrs. S. A. Friday, Nov. 28, and closes at Dimond, 200 Machell Ave.,

The office practice classes of Martha Smith, training super-

Shown standing in the picture trip was arranged through the at the left are Mr. Schooley, Verdun Thomas and Arthur Hontz, office practice instruc-tors at Dallas Senior High > Office practice students who attended were Cathy Balavage, Judi Blase, Sally Cyphers, Bill Fredericks, John Gebhardt, Steve Klaboe, Marilyn Lauer, Mary Ann Malarkey, Bob Merithew, Dale Metzgar, Sharon Musto, Carol Neyhard, Jim Nothoff, Wendy Pattison, Anne Perkoski, Sue Roberts and Becky Rozelle.

Also Donna Sekera, Roxie Sekera, Duane Sprau, Maureen Wagner, Sue Wasserott, Rita Yarnal, Joy Yeust, Linda Barber, Debbie Berlew, Charlene Bird, Debbie Drake, Lana Eicke, Betty Emil, Ron Fetterman, Linda Gabel, Debbie Toyt, CaroleHozempa, KarenKitchen, Mary Ann Kush, Penny Metz, Susan Mieczkowski, Nancy Neikam, Susan Polachek, Debbie Pugh, Evelyn Scott, Debra Silvetti and Cathy Walters.

B-61

Brace

golde

Estate

rugs,

Popla

cloth

Open

refrig

Come see Rave's new 1969 Enchanted Christmas Forest Pre-Christmas Season Trees Sale TREES • LIGHTS Christmas Cards Limited Time Most complete Only! selection in the East!

See the latest in Christmas decorations for 1969over 30,000 Christmas items on display!

Open Everyday 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Harveys Lake Highway SHAVERTOWN, PA.

Rt. 6 & 11, Northern Blvd. CHINCHILLA, PA.

Opposite Midway Shopping Center WYOMING, PA.

YAMAHA

KUNKLE MOTORS

Just off Route 309 (at Kunkle) A few miles north of Dallas

Just set this Sony and awake to news.

Morning blues?

A radio that pours out full, rich AM from a cube sound-chamber cabinet. And anything a big clock radio can do, Sony's 6RC-23 can do toobut in less than 5"x5" of space. Front clock switch makes timesetting simple, and the large clock face is designed for easy-reading. Charming cube-shaped set comes in a walnut-looking finish that's very rich. But you don't have to be to buy it.

10 S. Main St., Wilkes-Barre 825-4767 Open Monday and Thursday Nights Til 9 P.M. Serving Northeastern Pennsylvania

On A Clear Channel

Now we aren't about to say that WNAK plays some of the nicest music around, but a lot of folks will say so!

730 ON YOUR DIAL

P.O. Box 859 Wilkes-Barre, Pa. 18701

Phones: (AC 717) 822-6108 735-0730 tains, childr condi

> tiques coke. Direct West to 9 p.

Two ol