GUERDON M. BABCOCK II

Guerdon Babcock is in Germany

"Old Shoe" remains at Lake-Lehman

For the third successive year, the "Old Shoe" remains at Lake-Lehman in honor of the defeat of the Mountaineers of Dallas High School. Of all the trophies in Lehman, this shoe is the one dearest to the hearts of the population of Lake-Lehman. The Knights wound up for this very important game held on a chilly Thanksgiving morning, shocked the over-confident Mountaineers by a score of 28-8.

In order to psyche up the Knights to victory, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jones donated a huge black and gold shoe, constructed by Selingo Signs. Everyone at Lake-Lehman extends a vote of thanks, Mr. and Mrs. Jones!

Frosh sponsor dance

The class of '73 sponsored their annual dance Friday, Dec. 5, to the tune of the Town Criers. There was a nice turnout and everyone enjoyed the music. John Andrusis is the class advisor.

Spec. 4 Guerdon M. Babcock II, 22, arrived at Pirmasens Army Depot, Pirmasens, Germany, Nov. 26. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guerdon M. Babcock, 30 River St., Tunkhannock. He is married to the former Janice Sickler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sickler, RD 1, Noxen, with whom she is now residing.

Spec. 4 Babcock, a graduate of Tunkhannock High School in 1965, entered the Army Sept. 9, 1965 and completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky. He was last assigned to Headquarters and Headquarters, Third Battalion, 51st Artillery, Highlands, N.J.

Kingston Township class holds its 30th reunion

The Kingston Township High School, Class of 1939, reunion was held Nov. 29 at the Irem Temple Country Club, Dallas.

A "Happy Hour" was held from six to seven after which the group assembled for a class photograph.

The class members and their guests had dinner in the Sun Room at tables decorated in a holiday motif with yellow candles and a centerpiece of yellow and bronze mums. Wallace Perrin gave the invocation.

Bob Anderson, chairman, gifts of appreciation.

Robert Fritzes, class president, offered remarks to the class. Class advisor, Sophie Morris, could not attend but a letter from her was read. Other notes and letters from classmates were read and a phone call was received from a classmate in Alabama, Dr. Lauris Graves.

Prizes were awarded by Ruth Gordon Farr and Lauren Dymond. Each member of the class received an engraved memento of the occasion.

A short business meeting was held to select the committee for the reunion to be held in five years.

Slides of the last reunion were shown and pictures brought by class members were distributed. An opaque projector was used to show old photographs of high school days, football teams, banquets, class plays, field days and other events.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Evans, Trucksville; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nafus, Chester, N.J.; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Snyder, Horseheads, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gavlick, Wyoming; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams, Devon, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Stella, New Britain, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs.

George Schmoll, Wilmington, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones, Oakridge, N.J.; Mr. and Mrs. Lauren Dymond, Shavertown; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Perrin, Abington; Ruth S. Berghandler and S. Butlich, Trenton, N.J.; Mr. and Mrs. William Parsons, Middlesex, N.J.; Mr. and Mrs. Lew Williams, Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fritzes, Catasaquia; Mr. and Mrs. George Warren, Clark, N.J.; Mr. and Mrs. Matt Evans, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson, Trucksville

Christmas meeting set by Book Club

"A Swiss Holiday" will be the theme of a slide presentation by Fred H. Super at the annual Christmas meeting of the Back Mountain Memorial Library Book Club Dec. 15 at 1:30 p.m. Mr. Super, a former science teacher at Coughlin High School, will show slides of Switzerland, Alsace, Germany and Italy and will offer comments on the eight-week trip to those countries which he and his wife enjoyed earlier this year. The meeting will be held in the Children's Annex.

A second highlight of the afternoon will be the singing of Christmas carols by club members. Mrs. J. Traver Nobel of Overbrook Road will accompany the carolers.

Program chairman for the festive afternoon is Mrs. A. Hutchison of Overbrook Avenue.

Mrs. Charles Frantz, Chase, will serve as hospitality hostess and will be assisted by Mrs. Fred Howell, Mrs. Dana Crump, Mrs. Donald Johnson and Mrs. George Gregson.

Women with pre-school aged children who would be interested in the babysitting service provided for club members and guests are urged to contact Mrs. John R. Murphy, Lehman Avenue.

Roundtable on sale

Dec. 9 marked the beginning of the 1970 yearbook campaign. The Class of '70 urges everyone to secure a copy of the "Roundtable" as the yearbook staff intends to make this year's issue the best. Cost of the yearbook is $3 is paid in full or $3.50 on the installment plan. Miss Wilk and Mr. Andrusis are yearbook advisors.

Football Mothers' banquet

Dec. 5 the Lake-Lehman football mothers held the annual banquet at the Jackson Fire Hall. All the football players and coaches were the honored guests. John Zaleskas served as toastmaster. Coach Curry made appropriate comments about the senior players and the mothers presented the seniors with jackets. Entertainment was provided by several players and the Dallas Chansonnaires. Coach Narke led the group singing. The evening was highly successful.

Hockey players win bet and game

It was a cold and windy day in October, and Jane Morris, the hockey coach was desperate. The varsity team had scored one goal against Coughlin, a tough team, and she was determined to add two more goals. She shouted to the team that if they scored those goals, she'd treat them to a dinner. Well, they really got psyched and they won the bet, shooting the ball into the goal area twice. Since Miss Morris is a woman of her word, she treated all the varsity members to a dinner at her home, giving the girls a choice of steak or pork chops. Mary Alice Lukasavage and Wilma Schierer, also faculty members of Lake-Lehman, were present. All the girls stated that it was a very nice gesture and they enjoyed the dinner immensely.
