Making Christmas a bit merrier for needy families in the area are these Dallas Junior High School cheerleaders. The girls collected canned goods from friends and packed food baskets for the families Friday afternoon.

DALLAS SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

by SUSAN DEXTER and SHERYL BEARD

Girls' Basketball
The girls' basketball team played their first game, a scrimmage, Tuesday, Dec. 23, in the Dallas Senior High School gym. The team, consisting of 22 girls, played the Montrose team in a tough basketball game. The official girls' basketball season opens in January. Coaches are Sally Faerber and Catherine Wega.
Christmas Dance
The annual Student Council Christmas Dance was held Friday, Dec. 19, in the school gym, which had been gaily decorated for the Yuletide occasion. The semi-formal affair, which proved to be a tremendous success, was held from 8-11 p.m. Music was provided by the Interfaith and an enjoyable time was had by all.
Yearbook
The 1970 yearbook is now on sale to all students. The price of the book is $6, which may be paid in three installments of $2 each. This year's yearbook, The Dallas, promises to be better than ever and it will be worthwhile to buy one early.

Choral Activities
The annual Christmas concert, which was to be held Sunday, Dec. 14 at 3 p.m., was postponed to one week later at the same time. The bank opened the program with several Yuletide tunes including "Christmas Suite," "Jingle Bell Rhapsody," and "Christmas In Other Lands." The chorus entertained with such numbers as "Joy To The World," "Go Tell It On The Mountain," "Christmas Day In The Morning," "Christmas Polka," "Hurry Home," and "Sleigh Ride." The Jesters, a group of six senior boys, sang "It's Beginning To Look A Lot Like Christmas."
A duet was presented by Lorene Daring and Ruth DeWitt entitled "The Ballad Of The Christmas Wind" The Chansonnaires, who are a group of nine couples, were featured in a number called "Let It Snow." Monday, Dec. 15, the Choristers were on tour. They gave programs at Public Square, the Wilkes-Barre Court House, Sutton Home, Valley Crest Hospital, and the Veteran Administration Hospital. Monday, Dec. 22, they will present a program for the West Side Technical School.

Thanks Deserved
This writer would like to thank the many art students at Dallas for the fine job they did on the windows of the high school, the back-drop for the Christmas concert, the blackboards of various homerooms, and the windows of the United Penn Bank and Commonwealth Building, both in Dallas. The Christmas scenes, which were so beautifully portrayed, should certainly help to spread the Christmas spirit among all residents of The Back Mountain!
driver injured in 2-car crash
Two cars collided on ice, with injury to one driver, on the sharp Upper Demunds Road curve near the Dallas Drive-In Friday morning, at 10:45.
According to Dallas Township police chief Frank Lange, the 1966 Ford coupe, driven by Mary Ann Sholtis, RD 1, Dallas, went out of control in a skid and struck the 1963 northbound Mercedes Benz driven by A.R. Roat, 286 N. Sprague Ave., Kingston. Roat said he would consult his doctor about a bruise on the head.
Left side of Roat's car was damaged, while there was damage to the front end of the Sholtis car. One passenger in the Sholtis car, two-year-old son Thomas, was not hurt.
Arthur Culver helped Chief Lange at the scene.

Wrestling
The wrestling squad was introduced in a pep rally last Wednesday in the school gym by Coach Bamrick. The starting team showed the assembly several exercises and moves utilized in wrestling. Wednesday, Dec. 17, they traveled to Tunkhannock to bout with the varsity team there. Saturday, Dec. 20, the Dallas grapplers met Wyalusing in the Wyalusing gym. All students are urged to attend the meets and help the cheerleaders cheer for Dallas.
Boys' Basketball
At an exciting game with St. Nicholas, Dallas was defeated by a score of 56-50 in the third game of the basketball season. Playing Central Catholic - December 16 Dallas was again beaten by a score of 79-70. The starting team usually consists of Chuck LaBerge, Dave Jones, Chip Hoeffcker, Scott
