

DALLAS SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

by SUSAN DEXTER AND SHERYL BEARD

Choral Activities

Tuesday, Jan. 13, and Thursday, Jan. 15, the chorus and band were presented with talks and film strips by Father Banick, former assistant pastor of the Gate of Heaven Church, Dallas. He presently resides in Dalton. Father Banick spoke on the mass of the Roman Catholic Church so that the chorus could more fully understand the meaning of such a service and convey this meaning to an audience in song. The Dallas chorus will be working on numbers related to peace on earth, freedom, and God. Last Thursday the choristers, a smaller choral group consisting of approximately 40 members, presented a program to the Dallas Rotary Club at the Irem Temple Country Club. Choral director is Mrs. Robert Sherwood.

Fashion and Design Class

The fashion and design class, instructed by Nancy Goeringer, recently took sixth place for their window exhibit at the Pennsylvania Farm Show held Jan. 11-16 in Harrisburg. The exhibit was entitled "Tunic Time is Anytime" and presented the versatility of the ever popular tunic. Congratulations girls!

Grapplers Grind Grenadiers

The Coughlin gymnasium, Saturday, Jan. 10, was the stage for the slaughter of the G.A.R. wrestling team by the Dallas grapplers. Aiding their team enormously were Bruce Goeringer and Gary Alters, who both fashioned first period pins. The final score of the meet was 32-11. Jan. 17, the wrestlers met Meyers at the Coughlin gymnasium and Jan. 24 they will wrestle Woodrow Wilson on the home mats. Serving as ushers for wrestling meets as well as basketball games are members of the Dallas Key Club, advised by William Baran.

Girls Basketball

The girls basketball team had a smashing victory over the Coughlin team Jan. 13 at home. The junior varsity score was 27-3 and the varsity score was 50-16. The high scorer on the junior varsity team was Barbara Long, who totaled nine points in the game. Jane Gilmartin was high scorer for the varsity team with a total of 12 points. Congratulations to the team and to coaches Sally Faerber and Catherine Wega.

N.M.S.Q.T.

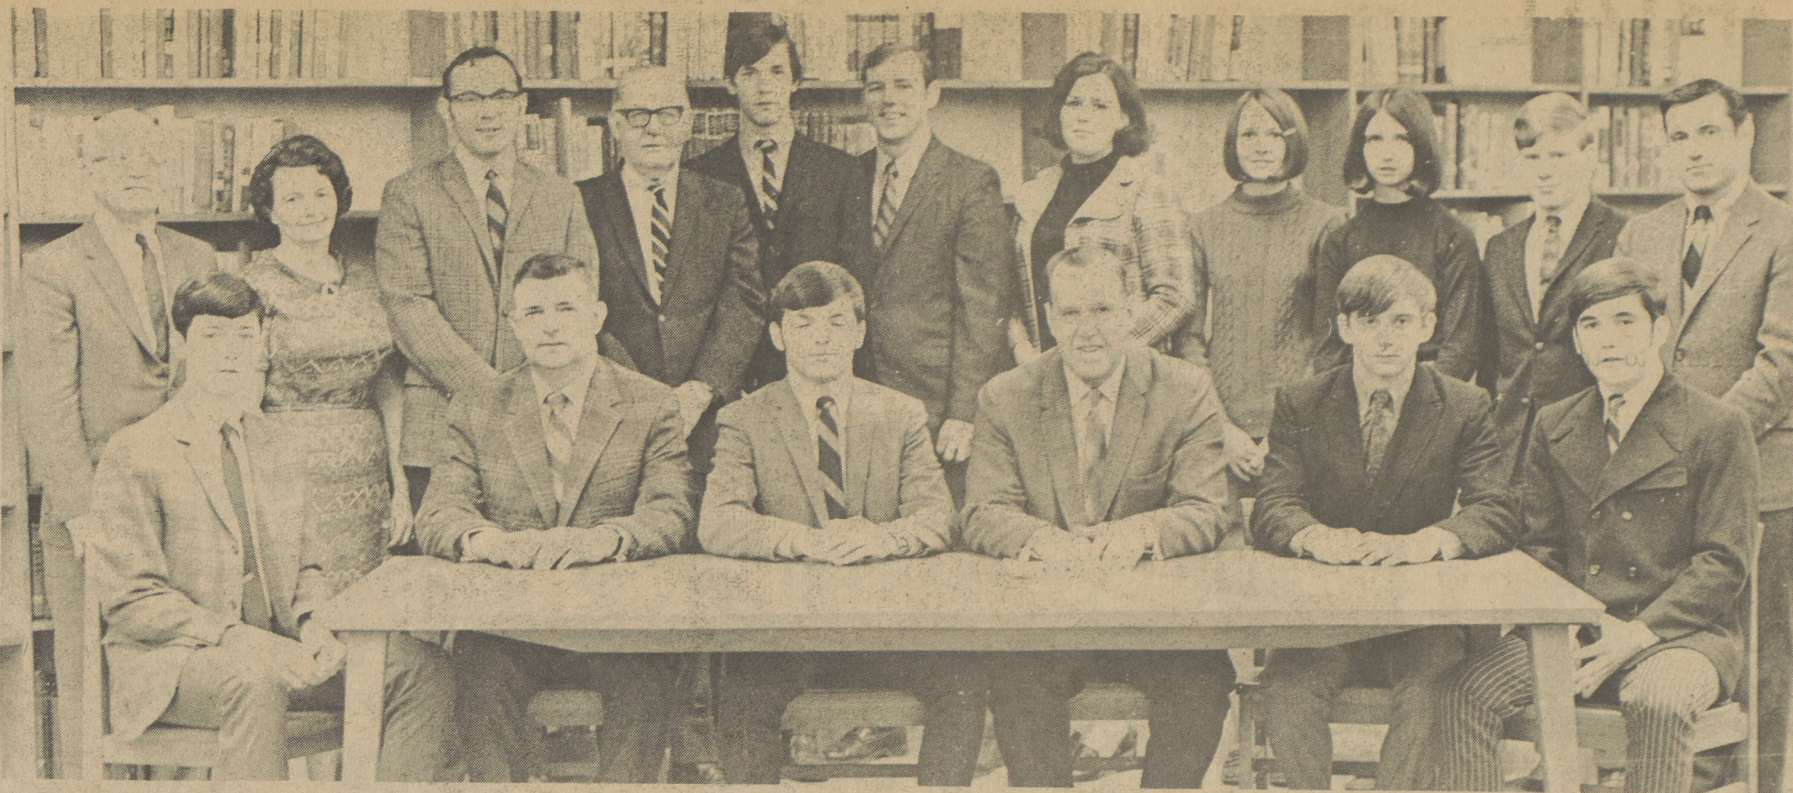

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test will be given to students at Dallas Feb. 14. The cost of the test is $1.50. It is advised that all juniors take the test.

Talent Show

The student council will sponsor its annual talent show Feb. 13. With many talented students enrolled in our school, the show promises to be a tremendous success. All students are urged to display their talents at this exciting affair.

Mid-Year Exams

At this time of year, most area students are frantically studying for their mid-year exams. Due to new school policy the students at Dallas are now spared of this ordeal. Hurray for a great idea!

new committee at Dallas High

A committee has been organized at Dallas Senior High School to act as a vital communicating force in the school. Administrators, faculty and students bring new ideas concerning school life, activities, discipline and dress to the School Betterment Committee for discussion and action.

Through the recommendations of the committee, several new ideas and changes have gone into effect this year. One of the major innovations has been the organization of the sophomore class. At present, committee members are working on a new design for the school ring. Members of the committee recently assembled for a picture which is shown below. Seated, left to right: Edward Rifenthal, sophomore class president; Edgar Hughes, assistant principal; Richard Sheldon, student council president; Robert Dolbear, principal; John Fleming, senior class president; George Messersmith, junior class president.

Navy Ens. Peter E. Blessing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Blessing, 8 Ellis Ave., Shavertown, was designated a Naval Flight Officer during ceremonies at Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi, Texas.

He received his wings about three months after arriving at the Naval Air Station for the advanced phase of his training. His wife, the former Marjorie J. Walp, 71 N. Lehigh St., Shavertown, pinned Ens. Blessing's wings on him during the ceremony.
