

DALLAS SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

by KAREN DAVIE and DEBBIE KAPRAL

Senior class news

The senior class has made arrangements for their class banquet to be held in the Hotel Sterling, Monday evening, May 25. The class outing is to be held Tuesday, May 26, at Mo-Nom-O-Nock Motor Inn and Lodge in the Poconos. Martz Trailways buses will transport the class to the outing.

New student

We at Dal-Hi would like to extend a hearty welcome to Brad Groden, a senior. Brad came to the Back Mountain from Reno, Nev., at the end of January. When asked to comment on our school, he replied, "It's a lot harder." We sincerely hope that Brad will enjoy the area and people as much as we do.

February Frolic

Thirteen senior girls, Pam Dymond, Sharon Musto, Linda Colovos, Cathy Beisel, Sally Cyphers, Cathy Walters, Marilyn Laur, Cathy Balavage, Wendy Pattison, Judy Blase, Carol Neyhard, Carole Hozempa and Charlene Bird, were the hostesses of a party given at the Irem Temple Country Club Feb. 20. Refreshments were provided and guests were entertained by the "Humane Society." The evening proved to be very enjoyable.

Cheerleaders enter final competition

The Dallas High School cheerleaders qualified for the final competition of the Luzerne County Community College cheerleading contest to be held Feb. 27 at the Catholic Youth Center in Wilkes-Barre. The schools chosen along with Dallas to compete in the finals were: St. Vincent's, St. John's, St. Mary's, Wyoming Area, and Lehman.

Members of the Dal-Hi cheering squad who will represent our school are: Judy Allen and Debbie Anderson, co-captains, Roberta Gilbert, Susan Owens, Nancy Thomas, Carol Shaskan, Mary Cully, Patty Koeb, Sandy Long and Cindy Smith.

The cheering squads were selected to compete in the cheering finals after they tried out in a qualifying competition earlier in the month.

Dallas matmen out to win the Longmore Trophy

The Dallas wrestling team under coach James Bamrick went out Saturday, Feb. 21, to bring home the Longmore Trophy. Dal-Hi met the Lake-Lehman wrestlers at Lehman in the final meet of the season. The winner was awarded the trophy to keep for the rest of this year.

The Longmore Trophy is presented in memory of Thomas Longmore, who was a teacher at Lake-Lehman High School.

Two students in state band

The District Band Concert was aired on radio station WYZZ Tuesday night, Feb. 18, at ten o'clock. Nine members of the Dallas High School band participated in District Band.

Two students from Dallas High School were chosen from the District Band to be in the State Band. They are Alan Zabolosky and Michael Moore.

They are: Mildred Hanson, Noxen, and Dale Rozelle, Dallas, business curriculum; David Burkhardt, Robert Miller, and Kenneth Schweiss, Dallas, drafting and design technology; Gene Pios, Hunlock Creek, electrical and electronics; Randy Calkins, Dallas, surveying technology.

Robert J. Kocker, a senior at Lake-Lehman High School, will join over 350 other high school seniors from across the country to participate in the fourth session of A Presidential Classroom for Young Americans.

Presidential Classroom, which held its first programs last year, is designed to give bright high school seniors the opportunity to see first-hand, the operation of their government. The program this year consists of five one-week sessions, the first of which began Feb. 14.

Arriving in Washington, participants begin at once preparing for the full week ahead. The Syllabus includes academic instruction in the three branches of the federal government, seminars and talks with congressmen, city officials, government departments heads, ambassadors and national news media representatives. An afternoon will be devoted to visiting such national landmarks as Mount Vernon, Arlington National Cemetery and other historic sites.

Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Derwood Koehler, RD 2, Dallas. The Harveys Kake American Legion Post 967, Harveys Lake Women's Club, and Harveys Lake Lions Club contributed financially to pay the tuition and travel expense involved.

Robert will leave for the nation's capital March 7 and stay at the Washington Hilton Hotel which will serve as headquarters for Presidential Classroom. The week's study will conclude Friday with a review and examination of the work covered during the session and a graduation banquet, complete with yearbook and diploma, will be held that evening.
