DALLAS SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Future Nurses Association hosts guest speaker

Lois Knab, director of nursing at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, was the guest speaker at the March 4 meeting of the Future Nurses Club. Miss Knab explained the opportunities and duties of today's nurses. Mrs. Johnson is the club's advisor, and Sally Cyphers is the president of the club.

Senior class news

At a senior class meeting March 4, plans for senior class activities were discussed. Senior class advisor, Donald Evans, announced that the senior class banquet will be held May 25 at the Hotel Sterling, and the senior class trip to the Poconos will take place in the auditorium of the new junior high school. Commencement will take place, as always, at the Irem Temple Country Club. Plans for Class Day are now being discussed by the class officers.

Also discussed at the meeting was the possibility of the Junior-Senior Prom being held some place other than the school gymnasium.

Carolyn Stout was chosen by student election to represent Dallas High School in the Miss UNICO contest sponsored by the UNICO Club of Greater Wilkes-Barre. The contest will take place at the Boston Store July 23 at 7 p.m.

Chorus plans trip to New York

The senior class members of the chorus are planning a trip to New York City. One of the places the chorus members will visit will be Lincoln Center. They will also take in a Broadway play. The students are planning the trip for April 18. Chaperones will be Mrs. Sherwood and Mr. Lewis.

Mock basketball game played by cheerleaders

At a pep rally March 3 the Dal-Hi cheerleaders performed a mock basketball game for the student body. The "game" resulted in hilarity. The Dallas "Mountaineer" portrayed by Terry Hartman also put in an appearance at the pep rally. The pep rally was held prior to the Dallas-Valley West game. The Spartans came out on top in that game held March 3 at King's College gym. The final score, despite the fantastic attempt made by the Mounts, was 91-52. The high scorer for Dallas was senior, Scott Lefko. Even though Dallas was defeated, the spirit shown by our loyal fans could not be surpassed. Keep up the good work Dallas fans!!!

Final senior dance held

The final senior class dance was held Saturday night at the high school. There was a great turn-out due partially to the great music provided by the "Gibraltar."

Dal-Hi cheerleaders win

The Dallas cheerleaders took away the trophy for being the best cheering squad in the area for the second year in a row. The Luzerne County Community College was the sponsor for the competition. It is no wonder that Dallas has such great spirit with the following girls to lead them: Debbie Anderson, Judy Allen, Nancy Thomas, Sue Owens, Carol Shaskan, Roberta Gilbert, Mary Cully, Sandy Long, Patty Koebe, Cindy Smith, and Kathy Dorosky. The cheerleading coach is Verdun Thomas.

Girls' basketball

LL's fantastic female cagers wound up a great season with a 7-1 record, having bowed only to Nanticoke. At the conclusion of the second half, the Lady Knights were tied for first place with Nanticoke and met them for a third time at Coughlin's gymnasium. Although LLHS put up a challenging fight, Nanticoke managed to squeeze through with a 33-26 victory which put LLHS in second place.

This was the final game for seniors Darlene Snell and Sharon Leinthall, the captains of the team. Since most of the girls will return for the 1970-71 season, the future looks very bright. Wilma Schierer is the coach.

Junior play

"The Defiance of David Charles" was presented to a packed auditorium March 6. This annual production, sponsored by the junior class, was an overwhelming success and immediately captured the attention of the spectators. It involved a 17-year-old boy, troubled because he felt he could not live up to his father's distinguished reputation. Naturally, he and his father came to an understanding at the play's conclusion. Francis Wilczewski, junior class advisor, served as the director, with Joanita Swartz chosen as student director.

College boards

All interested academic junior and senior students took college boards March 7 at Dallas High School for all Wyoming Valley students. The test was centered around English and math portion of the curriculum.

Cheerleaders

LL's peppy cheerleaders, coached by Wilma Schierer, received honorable mention and a trophy in the Luzerne County Community College Cheerleading Contest. Lake-Lehman competed against 20 other schools and we are very happy to report that LLHS ranked in the top six. Although they didn't rank number one, LL feels that they did an excellent job during the sports season and deserve the warmest congratulations. Debbie Rinken and Colene Wandel are the co-captains of the squad.

Easter candy sales

The junior class officially completed the sale of Easter candy March 3. The class of

'71 has broken all previous records, having sold over $10,000 worth of Christmas and Easter candy. This will enable them to pay for the Junior Senior Prom in April, go to New York City in May and provide for the projects as seniors. Frances Wilczewski is the advisor of the class, while Rick Wagner is the president.

Musical

"Where is the Mayor!" a frolicking comedy, will be presented to the public April 3 and 4. This production will be sponsored by LL's chorus and is being directed by Jane Morris and Maureen Purcell. The cast consists of the mayor, portrayed by Charlie Musroski, while John Myers, Ken Austin, Barbara Derwin, Judy Lee, Betsy Turner, and Helen Williams fill the remaining roles.

District 2 wrestling

LLHS's wrestling team ranked fourth in District 2 competition, having had three matmen in the finals. LL's representatives were Jack Davis, Bill Spencer, and Rick Wagner. Bill will represent Lake-Lehman in the regionals at Muhlenberg College in Allentown March 7. Congratulations!

Hallmark Art Contest

John Mihal took first place in the Hallmark Art Contest, where Diane Ashton took second, Linda Williams, third, and Judy Carter, fourth. Lake-Lehman extends the warmest congratulations to these future artists.

Gym show

LLHS's annual gym show will be held March 20. Students from grades 7-12 will participate on such equipment as the ropes, mats, rings, mini tramp, and horse. A number of clowns will be on hand to provide a few laughs. Wilma Schierer and Kenneth Maciak are the physical education teachers at Lake-Lehman.

Fashion show

Each of 39 very nervous seamstresses waited her turn to model her own unique creation at the Lake Elementary Building March 5. The girls were judged by the Harveys Lake Women's Club on the sewing of the garment and the poise with which they presented it. Joan Evans, Beth Gordon, Sharon Leinthall and Lisa Bennett took the honors in this contest. Congratulations girls!
