

My Typewriter Talks

by THE REV. CHARLES H. GILBERT

by The Rev. Charles H. Gilbert

The beginning of April called for more meetings to attend than I am in the habit of attending since I retired.

Friday night at First Presbyterian in Wilkes-Barre was the final organ recital of a series, most of which Catherine and I did attend.

One number of his program that I liked especially was St. Francis Preaching to the Birds. The way it began I thought it should have been titled The Birds singing for St. Francis!

Then Monday morning the regular monthly meeting of the Wilkes-Barre District Methodist ministers was convened at Wyoming Seminary.

The theme which was pertinent to the ministers was having to do with explaining why churches had to have apportionments, benevolences and so on.

But it was nice to meet and mingle with all these "boys" who are doing the work!

The new spiritual leader is Rabbi Arnold M. Shevlin. The guest rabbi was delayed in his arrival by air travel troubles.

Harveys Lake

Rod and Gun Club The regular monthly meeting of the Harveys Lake Rod & Gun Club was held at the clubhouse recently with 90 members present.

Four prospective members names were presented: Leo Milbrodt, John E. Masloski, Robert K. Mathers and William Sims.

Ed Manhart, waterways patrolman, noted that the Fish Commission has been having problems with their stocking program because of the snow this year.

The annual fish pole event was held with winners as follows: Allen Wents, John P. Haver and John Corbett.

Following the meeting a movie, "Newfoundland Trophy Trip," was shown and refreshments were served.

Ron is six

Ronald Lee Swire, son of Mrs. Claude Neifert and the late Jack Swire, Harveys Lake, celebrated his sixth birthday March 20, with a party at his home.

Guests were, Mrs. Palmatier, kindergarten teacher at Lake Elementary School; Mari Borton, Sharon Spencer, Jean Zaleskas, Cynthia Rood, Charles Austin, Tracy Sloum, Mark Evans, Mark Dropko and Bobby Garinger.

A second party was given which was attended by members of the family including Mr. and Mrs. Robert Traver, grandparents; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Sorchik, aunt and uncle; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sloum and family, aunt and uncle, and his mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Neifert.

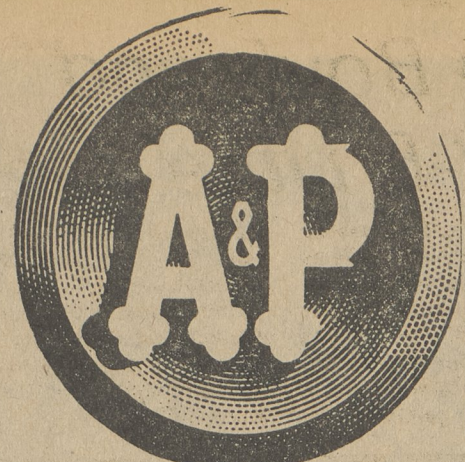

St. Andrews observes Easter

Easter will be observed by the congregation of St. Andrew's Eastern Orthodox Church of Dallas, according to the Julian calendar, April 26.

The Rev. Father Elias Krenitsky, pastor, has scheduled the following services: Holy Thursday at 6 p.m., the Passion of Our Lord and the reading of the 12 Gospels; Good Friday, 3 p.m., the burial service with vespers; Holy Saturday, midnight services begin at 11:30 p.m. with Resurrection Matins followed by Divine Liturgy and ending with the blessing of the paschal food baskets.

For those desiring to receive holy communion during the Divine Liturgy, confessions will be heard before 11:30 p.m.

The summer schedule begins May 3. Divine Liturgy will be celebrated at 9 a.m. each Sunday until Oct. 18.
