National Honor Society Inducts New Members

The National Honor Society recently announced its new members. To attain membership a student must have an average of at least 90 percent and must have a certain amount of service points: 10 for juniors and 18 for seniors. Finally, a teachers' committee judges the students on their character, scholarship, leadership and service. The induction ceremony was held April 23 in the school auditorium. Following the ceremony a tea was held for the parents. Those inducted were: Seniors—Robert Griffith, Paulette Stasko, Grant Davis, Roberta Gilbert, Jane Gilmartin, John Fleming, David Jones, Sally Wiggins, Clifton Dungey, James Miller, Susan Bucan, Barbara Connelly, Lorene Daring, Ruth DeWitt, Ernest Gelb and Doris Sims; juniors—

Center on a tour and then to the Museum of Natural History. They spent the afternoon at the St. James Theatre where they saw the play, "Hello, Dolly," starring Ethel Merman. From five o'clock until eight, the seniors had free time to get dinner and to see what they wanted. The bus returned to the school at 11:30. Chaperones were Florence Sherwood and Jean Wilson.

Concert
The Dallas Senior High School will present its annual spring concert this evening, April 30, and tomorrow evening, May 1. The presentation is entitled "An Anthology of Music" and will be directed by Florence Sherwood. Music from the eras of Bach to Bacharach will be presented. The second half of the program will be presented by the Choristers, a select group from the entire chorus.

Tickets may be purchased at the door or from a chorus member for 50 cents. Orders for records of the concert will be taken at the concert also.

Class Day
The seniors have recently been kept busy planning for Class Day to be held May 22, and the senior class banquet to be held May 25. These activities are being directed by the senior class officers: president—John Fleming; vice president—Judy Allen; treasurer—Bob Griffith; secretary—Elaine Friedman. The following committees have been formed for the 1970 Class Day:

On April 23, a dance was sponsored by the junior class in the high school gym. Music was provided by the "Buoy's." The dance was a success and everyone seemed to have fun and especially enjoyed the song, "Timothy."

Earth Day
On April 22, Earth Day was observed across the nation. It evolved around the pollution of our planet. The students of Dallas really took their share in participating. Some of the students participated by walking to school instead of taking buses. A small group of them left Trucksville at six o'clock and traveled up Pioneer Avenue, joined by many students along the way. On the home stretch they were joined by a group of walkers from Fernbrook, making a total of more than 200 students. A few bicycles were seen parked in the parking lot, and even a palomino could be seen sharing the deserted parking area with a few cars.

During the day a teach-in was held in the auditorium. A program had been established and was presented by a committee of students interested in the topic. Each period a different group of pupils heard the lecture and saw slides on the pollution of water, air, land and people. The entire occasion was considered a success as many students began to realize the problems of pollution.
