

judges named for spring art show

Area artists who have entered paintings in the Wyoming National Bank's fifth annual Spring Art Show May 2-May 15 will have their work judged by three outstanding artists from the Bethlehem-Reading area. The Wyoming National has selected Charles Elliott Jr., Karol Roberts and Carol Pritchett to make up the jury for the show to be held in the bank lobby, 26 W. Market St., Wilkes-Barre. The names of award winners will be announced May 3 with the popular vote award being made at the close of the show.

Mr. Elliott, director of the Reading Public Museum and Art Gallery since 1967, has a fine educational background and a wealth of experience and travel in the art field. He received his B.A. degree from Allegheny College where he majored in Studio Arts and Sociology; he was a watercolor student of Margaret Kerfoot,

pale pink dragon will return to Dallas

A "Pale Pink Dragon" cavorted about the stage in Walsh Auditorium at College Misericordia last weekend to the delight of more than 2000 youngsters. The lovable dragon will return along with Hannibal, the furry white cat with a pink leash, which really stole the show.

Repeat performances will be held at 7 p.m. Friday, and at 2 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.
