daffodils bloom at Penn State

The tens of thousands of daffodils and jonquils on the Lehman campus of The Pennsylvania State University are in bloom. George W. Bierly, director of the Wilkes-Barre Campus in Lehman, has extended an invitation to area residents to visit the campus this week to witness the annual spectacle which has transformed the grounds into an area of natural beauty.

The public is welcome to spend as much time as they want to enjoy the flowers. The campus is located on 48 acres of the country estate of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Conyngham II at Hayfield House.

SHAVERTOWN

By Mrs. Joseph Allen
 675-5065

St. Therese's Church, Shavertown, wishes to announce that St. Pius X Seminary which offers a Seminary Program for college area students interested in the Diocesan Priesthood is now accepting applications for any qualified student who will begin college next year. A final Vocation Day will be held Saturday, May 16. There will be a program prepared to inform college students or high school seniors or juniors who have an interest in study for the priesthood. The program will begin at 10 a.m. at the Dalton Seminary and will include a variety of informative programs, including participation in the liturgy, tours, conferences, scripture service, recreation and lunch and dinner. The program should terminate at 7 p.m. Reservations, to insure preparations for meals, can be made by calling the parish rectory.

This is the last chance you have to order hoagies from the Junior M.Y.F. of the Shavertown United Methodist Church. Hoagies will be made at the church May 9. Orders may be given to any member of the M.Y.F.

The regular monthly meeting of the Shavertown Volunteer Fire Company will be held Tuesday, May 12 at 8 p.m. Plans will be discussed for the annual Shavertown Firemen's Bazaar to be held in July.

The first game for the Shavertown Little League Majors will be held Saturday, May 16. Opening day ceremonies will be held at that time.

Opening day for the Shavertown Little League Minors will be Saturday, May 23. Door Bell Night for Shavertown will be May 18.

Registration blanks have been sent out for any children who might be interested in attending Vacation Church School, at the Shavertown United Methodist Church. This year the Vacation Church School will be held from June 15 to June 19. Anyone who has not received a registration blank, and wishes his child to participate in the program, please call Mrs. Jack Rogers at the church.

magistrates rotate in District 3-8

The specially presiding magistrate for District 3-8, Dallas, from May 1 to May 15, will be District Magistrate Bernard J. Wycik.

The magistrate normally presides in District 1-8, Plymouth, but for this period of time, will be sitting in magistrate's court in the Dallas Borough Building, 25 Main St., Dallas.

During the latter part of April, District Magistrate Stephen Stephanides, District 1-7, Swoyerville, presided in Dallas. This procedure of rotating district magistrates will continue until the governor makes a magisterial appointment to replace the late District Magistrate Harold R. Major.

Dallas Legion auxiliary holds poster contest

American Legion Auxiliary Unit 672 of Dallas has invited students in fifth through 12th grades at Dallas to participate in a "Poppy Poster Contest." The unit hopes to stimulate an increased feeling of patriotism as Memorial Day draws near.

Winning posters in each class will be sent to the Auxiliary's State Convention at Harrisburg to compete on a state-wide basis with winners of other units.

State winners will go on to the National Convention. Members of the Dallas Auxiliary Unit feel there is a possibility that a Dallas student will win national recognition.

Mrs. Fred Templin, poppy chairman of Unit 672, has announced that the local poster contest will end May 15 and winners will be selected the following week by a panel of judges.
