Dallas women prepare fudge for auction sale

The auction is only one week away—the barn is full, the books are priced, the flowers are being transplanted and the candy makers are looking for a good fudge recipe. Every year the popular candy booth is supplied with fudge by volunteers and members of the Dallas Junior Woman's Club.

The club chairman of the booth this year, Mrs. Dwight Nunemacher, 127 N. Main St., Shavertown, and co-chairman, Mrs. Peter Duda, 41 Davenport St., Dallas, have given The Post two tried-and-true fudge recipes.

Members of the Dallas Junior Woman's Club will weigh and package the homemade candy at the booth for all those with a sweet tooth. The candy will be supplied by loyal volunteers and club members, they will make most of the fudge from these two recipes. They turn out good fudge—last year, patrons at the candy booth purchased an unbelievable amount—250 pounds!

Easy No-Fail Fudge
4½ c. sugar (equal to 2½ lbs.)

1 can cream (evaporated)
3 pkgs semi-sweet chocolate bits
3 oz. semi-sweet Bakers chocolate
½ lb. butter
½ lbs. Walnuts
2 tsp. vanilla
8 oz. jar marshmallow whip

Stir sugar, butter and cream in pan over medium heat until mixture boils. Boil additional five minutes and remove from heat. Add all chocolate, stirring until melted. Add other ingredients, stir well. Pour mixture into wax paper lined pans and refrigerate for eight hours. This makes five pounds of fudge.

Peanut Butter Swirl Fudge

2 c. sugar
½ 7 oz. jar marshmallow cream
1 c. peanut butter (either crunchy or smooth)
½ c. semi-sweet chocolate bits
2/3 c. milk
1 tsp. vanilla

Combine sugar and milk, bring to a boil and cook at a boil until soft ball stage (234 degrees

Worthy Matron honored at party

Mrs. Stephen L. DeBarry, Worthy Matron of Dallas Chapter 396, Order of Eastern Star, was entertained at a "going-away" party at the Eastern Star Hall, Foster Street, Dallas, by her officers, substitutes and choir members. Mrs. DeBarry is attending Grand Chapter sessions of the Grand Chapter of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia this week.

Theme for the party was "Taking a Trip" with a large globe in the center of the table and a vase of the Matron's flowers, red roses. Pictures of far-away places were on the wall.

The Worthy Matron received "Tips for a Tourist" and a lovely tote bag. Margaret Johnson, associate matron and chairman, served refreshments to Jean Holcomb, Anna Shaver, Thelma Lamoreaux, Bertha King, Lois Owens, Mildred Garinger, Helen Traver, Irene Cook, Elsie Jolley, Eva Allen, Eva Ray, Elma Price, Irene Transue, Laura Dymond, Gertrude Davies, Elizabeth Davies, Elizabeth Loyaou, Betty Meeker, Annjane Cochran, Dorothy Dodson, Lana Birnstock, Pearl Gosart, the guest of honor and hostess.

Dallas Boy Scouts collect newspapers

A newspaper drive, sponsored by Boy Scout Troop 281, Dallas, is underway.

Each scout is contacting 10 people for newspapers. The boys will bring in their collections for shipment to a firm in Scranton, Aug. 1. Any resident who is not contacted can help by bundling, tying, and delivering papers to the Dallas United Methodist Church, Church Street, Dallas, Aug. 1 only. No late deliveries can be accepted.

Donna Smith on dean's list

Donna C. Smith, West Dallas, has been named to the dean's list at The Pennsylvania State University for the spring term with a 3.91 out of a possible 4. She is a social welfare major and was recently initiated into Alpha Kappa Delta, sociological honor society. She is presently working on her practicum at the Luzerne County Juvenile Center.

Purely Personal

Mr. and Mrs. John Leyden, Phoenix, Md., former residents of Machell Avenue, Dallas, have rented a home at Harveys Lake and are enjoying seeing their many friends in this area. Their five children, Ann Marie, John J., Edward, Stephen, and Kathy are also enjoying their vacation at the lake.

Rita Piiger, busy secretary of District Magistrates Court 3-8, Dallas, is a patient in Wilkes-Barre General Hospital.

A delightful surprise birthday party was held June 19 for Gloria Brennan, 191 Main St., Dallas. Her husband, Joseph, invited over 30 guests. All were area people, some of whom had been classmates of Mrs. Brennan, the former Gloria Davis, Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Burke, Machell Avenue, Dallas, have returned home from a vacation at Ocean City, N.J. They and their four children, Kathy, Julie, Elizabeth, and Donald Jr., enjoyed the ocean.

Dr. and Mrs. Donald Tappa and son, Eric, Shrine View, Dallas, who have been visiting the Colgan family of Charlotte, N.C., and the Farrell family of Brockville, Md., have returned home. On their return trip they stopped at several beach resorts along the Carolina shore.

Lake Silkworth

By Mrs. John E. Wildoner

Help! all you residents of Lake Silkworth and vicinity! I just received a letter informing me that the stuff I submit to the Dallas Post each week has been incorporated into a column entitled, "Jottings." It hints, further, that I may be surprised and just a little(?) pleased. The fact of the matter is, I feel like a firefly who has just passed through an electric fan—I'm delighted! But—I've been asked to continue sending in the Lake Silkworth "news." Since I am a very shy, bashful, wall-flower-type individual (ahem) who doesn't get around much anymore, the Lake Silkworth "news" I submit will probably be very brief. Is there anyone in this neck of the woods more qualified than I who would like to give it a try? The pay ain't much but there are other rewards just as, 'n' maybe even more, gratifyin'. If no one pipes up and I continue, as promised, to try to give you something readable, won't you all help and give me something writable? Well, here's something. Lake Silkworth's Boy Scouts hiked off in an easterly direction Friday afternoon for a weekend camp-out. Leaving Route 29 just south of the Lake, led by the audacious Paul young, it was unclear whether the boy's proposed route of travel and destination were supposed to be classified information; but to the old-timers, born and bred in these hyar hills—well. After two nights of camp life, bathed by cold creek water, beautiful moonlight and rolling fog, the rugged outdoorsmen returned Sunday noon, sniffing and sneezing, but richer in a few more memories. At least one pair of grandparent's ruffled feathers were smoothed a bit when they learned that a pair of Pappies, Jerry Cooper and Jim Bockus, along with scoutmaster Dave Wildoner and Mr. Young, "suffered it out" with the boys.

Roscoe Lamoreaux is making improvements to the already distinctively beautiful yard in front of the handsome home he and his wife Sophie occupy. There are many old one-room school houses converted to homes, but few of them were of the multi-room size or architectural design of the present Roscoe Lamoreaux home.

Den Mom, Sue Hillman's pack of Cub Scouts have a patriotic project going. They're writing paragraphs on "What I Think of America" which is a pretty good subject to be thinking about with Independence Day nearing.

Helen Rood is one of the ladies preparing and serving the food for the brunches the children, attending summer school at Lehman Elementary, partake of.

Mike Jones feted at farewell party

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jones, Memorial Highway, Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart, Shrine Acres, Dallas, entertained recently at Ruckno's Grove in honor of the Jones' son "Mike," who will leave soon for Vietnam.

Mike is married to the former Joanne Ruckno, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ruckno Sr., Shrine Acres, Dallas.

Joanne and Mike have motored to California from where he will leave. They are visiting with Lt. (j.g.) and Mrs. Paul Siegel. Mrs. Siegel is the former Mary Ruckno.

The Siegels are the proud parents of a son, Christopher Paul, born May 8.

Mrs. George Ruckno Jr., the former Penny Farrar, will fly to California July 11, and accompany Mrs. Jones on her drive back to Pennsylvania.

Dallas-Franklin reunion, July 11

Members of the Dallas-Franklin High School class of 1955 are making final arrangements for the 15th class reunion which will be held at the Castle Inn, Memorial Highway, Dallas, July 11, at 6 p.m.

Committee is still trying to find David Goddard, Joan Hilbert Greco, Barbara May Egliski, Lillian Owens Werts and Joe Hardick. Anyone having information on the whereabouts of any of the above should contact Tom Schmide, 149 S. Lehigh St., Trucksville.

LEGEND OF THE RUBY - BIRTHSTONE FOR JULY
The Ruby is "The Sun's Own Gem" and ranked among the world's most precious. Treasured by the royalty of many nations since the dawn of history, it is the king of colored stones. As a birthstone, the Ruby symbolizes freedom, charity, divine power.

There's Old Magic in a Birthstone Gift
for all civilizations have been filled with awe at their mysteries. The astrologers of Ancient Egypt held that each day of the month had its own sacred stone. Moses ordered the breastplate of the High Priest to be inlaid with twelve stones - one for each of the tribes of Israel. To capture their imagination, wish them Happy Birthday with rubies.
