social security benefits total $5 million monthly

Social security benefits paid to residents of Luzerne County totaled $5,221,000 a month as 1969 ended, Emerson M. Perrine, social security district manager, reported recently.

A benefit increase, signed into law by President Nixon Dec. 30, 1969, has since raised the monthly rate of payment by 15 percent for 60,000 social security beneficiaries in Luzerne County, Perrine noted.

Perrine pointed out that although the majority of social security beneficiaries are older people, about one out of every four is under age 60.

In the State of Pennsylvania, 306,000 people under age 60 are collecting social security payments each month. The 157,000 who are under 18 are receiving payments because of a working father or mother has died or is getting social security disability or retirement benefits.

Information on social security is available free of charge at the Wilkes-Barre office located at 19 N. Main St.
