

nationwide postal 'clean-up week'

Postmaster Edward Buckley has announced "CLEAN-UP WEEK" for the Dallas Post Office Aug. 16 to 22 as part of a nation-wide postal activity announced in Washington by Postmaster General Winton M. Blount.

The Postmaster General announced the program "to establish post offices as a symbol of good housekeeping and as a credit to every community in the nation."

Locally, Postmaster Buckley said "CLEAN-UP WEEK" will focus on such matters as interior cleaning and painting, clean up files and the like.

"Our Post Office is one of the busiest and most visible activities in Dallas and whatever we can do to improve it is of special value to our community."

The Postmaster pointed out that, in addition to improved appearance for postal facilities, the national "CLEAN-UP WEEK" is designed to provide practical values, removal of safety and health hazards designed to reduce accident and illness, and repairs wherever feasible.

Mr. Buckley noted that more than 40,000 post offices, stations and branches over the nation are joining in the "CLEAN-UP WEEK" proclaimed by the Postmaster General. This included the Post Office Department Headquarters in Washington, as well as the 15 regional offices across the country.

The Postmaster General said that while the most intensive effort will occur during the designated week, he expects post offices to maintain improvement programs as a permanent activity "that will give a new look to the postal service for customers and employees alike."

hang shelves off frame

You can utilize upper space in a garage with exposed rafters by nailing hanging shelves from the rafters.

Frame with 1x6-inch boards or wider and inset shelves the same width on 1x1-inch shelf supports.

High shelves are useful for seldom needed items, or those that should be kept from easy reach of children.

Short ends of fir or western pine are inexpensive and easy to work with.

Two decades ago, an average house cost around $13,500. In 1969, the house cost $26,000—but it had more living area, more bathrooms, more amenities, including appliances.

nursery school opens Sept. 15

A new non-denominational nursery school will open Sept. 15 at the Trinity United Presbyterian Church, Church St., Dallas, it was announced recently by Mrs. Joseph A. Conaway, a member of the school's steering committee. Enrollment is open to pre-school youngsters who celebrated their third birthday on or before Feb. 1, 1970.

Classes will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 12 p.m. four days a week, and while the school does not provide transportation to and from the church, Mrs. Conaway notes that parents may wish to work out car pool arrangements among themselves.

The school will be staffed by Mrs. Thomas J. Stets, an experienced nursery school teacher who has taught most recently at the Temple B'nai B'rith Nursery School, Kingston. Mrs. Stets suggests that the school's program will strive to develop each child's interests through individual instruction and will also emphasize group interaction.

Trinity Presbyterian's attractive lawns and extensive macadam surfaces will be used for out-of-doors play activities, where facilities will include swing sets, sliding boards, and tricycles. Refreshments will be served each day.

Tuition at the school is $30 per month, and arrangements for payment of the tuition on an installment basis may be made.

Persons who would like to enroll their children in the class or who would like more information about the school may call 675-3131 between 10 a.m. and 12 noon.
