THE DALLAS POST, SEPT. 24, 1970

Pictured above is the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Troup, Shrineview, Dallas, which was built around 1930 by Pethick. The architect was Donald F. Innes. Points of interest here are the beautiful terraced grounds and the stone work shown in the picture which forms steps and a porch. The home also includes a sunken living room, many antiques and oriental rugs.

Antiquing with Joel Sater

District Women's Clubs will meet at Mt. Airy

The 46th annual meeting of introduced and reports given by Ershun, director of Consultathe Northeast District of the presidents from Carbon, Brad-Pennsylvania Federation of ford, Columbia, Lehigh, Sus-Women's Clubs will be held at quehanna, Wyoming, Lacka-Mt. Airy Lodge in the Pocono wanna, Luzerne, Wayne, Pike, Mountains Sept. 28 with the Monroe and Northampton dier, executive director of the Northampton County Federa- Counties.

tion of Women's Clubs serving Luncheon is at 12 noon when as hostess club. those attending will hear Mrs. Registrations will be at 8:45 John E. Yahraes Sr., president a.m. in the Empress Room with of PFWC; Mrs. H. Frederick a coffee hour at that time. Mrs. Neilson Jr., junior director T. Stuart Williams, president of PFWC; and guest speakers, Dr. the Northeast District PFWC. Katherine R. Sturgis, president will call the meeting to order at of the Delaware Valley Citizens' 9:45 a.m. State officers will be Council for Clean Air; Joseph

Mrs. H. Lancio honored at party

Mrs. Howard Lancio, Over- husband gave her a bouquet of brook Avenue, Shavertown, was red roses. honored at her home Aug. 24 by Attending the party

tion and Education in the Drug Addiction Program at Eaglesville Hospital and Rehabilitation Center, and Harry H. Ver-Pennsylvania Federation of Safety Councils. Reservations may be made with Marion Slocum, Mt. Bethel, 18343. Mrs. Paul Cooper, Box 223, Bangor, is serving as credentials chairman.

Mrs. Williams, the presiding COUPle have officer of the District meeting resides in Luzerne, a past president of the Luzerne County Federation of Womens Clubs. She is currently serving as program chairman. At the state level she has served as vice president of

The Autumn House Tour and Mrs. Oliver Troup Jr., Trucksville; Mr. and Mrs. A. DeWittt Smith of Goodleigh Farms; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Morton Blum, Kingston.

Autumn House Tour

The day's program will include a luncheon, bake sale and fashion show at the Irem Temple Country Club. Reservations for the luncheon must be made in advance with Mrs. Williams B. Evans. During the day punch will be sered at the Pool House of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Durkin, Shrineview, Dallas.

Tickets may be purchased A meeting was held recently from any Junior League at the home of Mrs. Peter Wilmember or by calling Mrs. liams, 150 E. Franklin St., James J. Durkin or Mrs. Shavertown, to formulate plans Richard Maslow, or at the for the Dallas Junior Woman's homes the day of the tour.

The theme of the informal majorettes dance is "Harvest Holiday" and will be held Oct. 17 at Brother's feted at party

Four Restaurant, Main Street,

After the Dallas-G.A.R. foot-

Joseph Turpak, Orchard View

Dallas. A buffet will be served and music for dancing will be ball game Saturday, which provided by Panky Stolarick's Dallas won 28-0, a cookout was Bell Hops. Reservations can be held for the Dallas majorettes made by calling Kathy Oravitz at the home of Mr. and Mrs. at 675-5628.

sponsored by the Junior League of Wilkes-Barre will be held

Sept. 29 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Proceeds from the tour will be placed in the League's Com-

Included in the tour are the homes of Mr. and Mrs. John

Troup, Shrineview, Dallas; Mr.

by Woman's Club

Harvest Dinner

munity Trust Fund.

Club fall dance.

Mrs. Peter Williams is chairman of the dance and Mrs. daughter, Patti. The occasion Robert Yarachus is co-chair- marked the birthdays of two man with the following committee chairmen: decorations, Patti Parrish. Three cakes were Nancy Miers; reservations, decorated in blue and white, Mrs. John Oravitz, and public-Dallas School colors. ity, Mrs. Ronald Boudreaux.

Those attending were honored guests, Ann and Patti; Karen Gillis, Jane Dominick, Valerie Edwards, Nancy Young, Kathy Stella, Nan Peiffer, Michelle Swingle and hostess, Patti Turpak.

Kiwanis women to meet Sept. 26

The Dallas Women of Kiwanis will hold their regular monthly meeting Sept. 26 at 6 p.m. at the Irem Temple Country Club. Final plans will be discussed for the card party to be held Oct. 14 at 8 p.m. in the Eastern Star Building, Dallas.

Mrs. John Blase will preside.

third son

dus Sr., RD 3, Dallas, announce ick, Sept. 11, at the Nesbitt Hospital. The couple have two other parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford the Northeastern District; state

Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Richert Terrace, Dallas, by their Ruth V. Higgins Wed

majorettes, Ann Parsons and to California resident

The marriage of Ruth Higgins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel V. Higgins, East Dallas, and Norman J. Richert, son of Dr. and Mrs. Paul H. Richert, Morgan Hills, Calif., was solemnized in the Shavertown United Methodist Church, Aug. 29. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Andrew Derrick.

The bride and groom created their own ceremony including the writing of their vows which were based on I Corinthians 13. A candle ceremony symbolizing the scripture "they two shall become one" was performed. Each holding a lighted candle, the bride and groom lit a third candle and extinguished their own. Following this there was a celebration of communion among the members of the wedding party. Usher Ray Collings sang "The Greatest of These is Love." The processional "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," incid-Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Straz- ental music, and recessional "Trumpet Voluntary." were the birth of a son, Paul Freder- played by Janet Balshaw on the harpischord loaned by her

Dallas, was soloist. At the be-by her parents, wore an A-line gown of organza with scattered appliques of re-embroidered Alencon lace beaded with pearls. The bodice and sleeves were lace. The A-line skirt featured a detachable aislewidth train. Her tiered tulle veil was shoulder length. Her cascade bouquet included white roses, carnations and stepheanotis, ivy and colored pom-poms matching the bridesmaids' color scheme.

The bride, given in marriage

Janine Dierolf of East Dallas was maid of honor; Janice Higgins, Philadelphia, cousin of the bride and Susan DeWolfe of Texas, were bridesmaids. The bridesmaids and maid of honor wore peasant blouses in apricot, turquoise and yellow with long floral print skirts, combining these colors. They carried semicolonial bouquets of carnations, pom-poms baby breath and sweet heart roses, carrying out the color scheme, each one predominant with her blouse color Edward Richert, Illinois, brother of the groom, was best Balshaw Elaine Guilford East man Duane Stevens, Illinois, and Ray Collings, Indiana, were ginning of the recessional, two ushers. The men of the wedding party wore business suits with turtlenecks in white, turquoise, green and gold, in keeping with the color scheme. The mother of the bride chose a green doe-skin stain princess style dress with lace yoke and sleeves, and wore a corsage of bronze colored carnations. The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of green floral print and wore a corsage of yellow roses.

PAGE NINE

Over 1000 Early American Silversmiths-

100 American Silver Manufacturers

it's classic, definitive work. 1890. Today's collectors of silver owe much thanks to Col. Robert own American silver from the Alan Green for his magnificent 18th century," says Judith reprint of Ernest Currier's Amdur, Silver collector and MARKS OF EARLY AMER-ICAN SILVERSMITHS. Currier, himself a world famous worker in silver and gold who little of it around to be bought. Bobby Jones Golf Trophy, spent churches or wealthy private years researching the lives and collectors. But there's plenty of markings of American silversmiths. At his death his wife arranged in 1938 to have his notes organized and published in book form. It was a handsome today the price runs into the three figures," says the Colonel. Col. Green has reproduced this original volume with loving $27.50, published by The Trail, Harrison, N.Y. 10528. The marks of over 1000 American Silversmiths are shown, most of them concentrating on smiths of the 17th, 18th, and early 19th centuries, though some silver-

Susan Besteder Mercy student

Susan Besteder, Center Moreland, was among the new students welcomed at the Mercedian School of Practical Nursing at Mercy Heights Hospital recently. Sr. Mary Robert, R.S.M., R.N., M.S.N.E., Director of Nursing, announced that the class was the first in the school's history in which male students have enrolled.

In 12 western states, private and when owners are operating 2,547 certified tree farms by latest count. These contain 16,285,448 acres—an area that tops West Virginia

Every field of collecting has smiths listed died as recently as

"Though we all would love to dealer who was displaying at the National Antiques Show at Madison Garden, "there's very designed and executed the Most is owned by museums, fine silver American, European and English from the 19th century within reach of most pocketbooks.

Early American Silver can volume limited to only 750 only be exactly dated by re-copies. When one turns up searching the dates of the maker and analyzing the technique of design. Though most American silverworkers are known, a few markings still and meticulous care. His editon remain unidentified. English too is limited to 1000 copies, silver has always been carefully marked and dated. "French Colonel's Hobby, 8 Shawnee and German silver is usually well marked but the date must be determined by certain tricks of the maker lke turning his hallmark in a certain way for a particular year," Judith states. mark in a certain way for a particular year," Judith states.

I get inquiries about the markings on silver pieces owned by my readers. Most frequently they are post 1850. A very fine reference for this later silver is AMERICAN SILVER MANUFACTURERS by Dorothy Rainwater, Everybody's Press, Hanover, Pa. $10.00 It traces the histories of over 100 American silver manufacturers.

I think anyone interested in silver should own a copy of both books mentioned in today's column. Between them you'll find the answers to most of your questions about who made it

(Send large self addressed envelope with 12 cent stamp for free list of hundreds of good books on antiques. Write Joel Sater this newspaper.)

former fellow cafeteria workers Mary Kamor, Nora Knecht, at the old Dallas Junior High School building.

The former manager of the cafeteria, she has retired due to Moore. Mr. and Mrs. Lancio have repoor health.

Her friends presented her cently returned from two weeks Her only daughter lives in with a floral bouquet and her visiting their son, Bob.

treasurer; chairman of fi-Naomi Prynn, Helen Veitch, nance; second vice president at Mini Morgan, Florence Wilson, large, and chairman of the In-Marjorie Moss Reese, and Irene ternational Clubs Department. She is a member of the West Side Evening Women's Club.

Austrialia.

late Anna Strazdus.

children, Raymond Robert Jr and Gregory Michael.

Mrs. Strazdus is the daughter roses were taken from the of Mrs. Walter Hennebaul and bride's bouquet, one of which the late Walter Hannebaul Sr. the bridegroom gave to the Mr. Strazdus is a son of August bride's mother and one of which Strazdus, RD 3, Dallas, and the the bride gave to the bride-

> A buffet dinner followed the ceremony in the Lehman Fire Hall.

The wedding took place on the 30th wedding anniversary of the groom's parents.

The bridal couple now reside in Wheaton, Ill. They are returning to Wheaton College for their senior year.

Mercy Auxiliary plans card party

Plans are underway for the annual desert card party of the Back Mountain Branch of the Mercy Hospital Auxiliary which wiol be held Oct. 21 at 1 p.m. at the Castle Inn, Harveys Lake High way, Dallas.

Mrs. Ted Popielarz, president, has appointed Mrs. John Konsavage as chairman of the project. Mrs. Konsavage will have Mrs. John Thompson as her cochairman and they will be assisted by the following committee members:

Mrs. Thomas Brislin, table prizes; Mrs. William Gallagher, door prizes; Mary Weir, tickets, and Mrs. Paul Menapace, publicity.

Tickets may be purchased from any member of the auxiliary or at the door.

Officers of the auxiliary are chairman, Mrs. Ted Popielarz; vice chairman, Mrs. Thomas Brislin; secretary, Mrs. Philip Ansilio Jr.; treasurer, Mary Weir, and asst. treasurer, Mrs Michael Clark.

Players are requested to bring their own cards.

The Autumn House Tour committee members are shown above. Seated, left to right, are: Mrs. Thomas Mack Jr., Mrs. S. A. Lumia, Geraldine Ruddy, Mrs. Edward Nork, Mrs. Thomas Heffernan. Standing: Mrs. Richard Maslow, co-chairman; Mrs. Benjamin Jones III, Mrs. James J. Durkin Jr., chairman and Mrs. F. Jorge Abrantes.

