

Misericordia alumnae plan Homecoming week

One of the events which the College Misericordia Alumnae are looking forward to attending on October 3 of Homecoming weekend is the cocktail and social hour at 5:45 p.m. in the Kennedy Lounge of Merrick Hall. Hostesses for this event will be the past Presidents of the Alumnae Association.

Other activities slated for the weekend will be a campus tour, the annual meeting, a luncheon, a panel discussion, a folk Mass, the annual dinner. The dinner toastmaster will be Miss Susan Fort, '68. The guest speaker for the dinner will be the Rev. Robert Paul Mohan, S.S., Ph.D., of the Catholic University in Wash., D.C. Dinner will be followed by the individual class reunions.

The busy weekend will continue on Sunday with Mass followed by a brunch at which time Genevieve Munley Collins, '38, will address the group. Relatives, friends, and classmates of Mrs. Collins are cordially invited to attend this brunch. Make your reservation immediately.

The 1970-71 medical seminars mark the 10th year the series is being held under the sponsorships of the General Hospital, The Jefferson Medical College and The Pennsylvania State University. The seminars will continue through April of next year.

Host physicians for the Oct. 15 session will be Dr. Marvin Blum and Dr. Julian S. Long.

Each seminar will be acceptable for three hours of Category I credit.

Kiwanis Women plan joint meeting

The Dallas Women of Kiwanis met recently at Irem Temple Country Club. Plans were announced for a joint meeting to be held with the men of Kiwanis at the Castle Inn, Memorial Highway, Dallas.

Virginia Rubino, Virginia Roan and Mabel Harter won birthday gifts.

Clara Troxell gave highlights of the history of the auxiliary of the Women of Kiwanis. She plans to present the complete program in the near future. It will be a complete auxiliary report with the purpose to help the men's club with their service projects and to help the women continue their own.

Members are asked to contact Virginia Nicol if they have card tables and chairs which can be used for the card party Oct. 14 at the Eastern Star Building, Dallas.

Tickets can be obtained from any member or at the door. Refreshments will be served and door prizes awarded.

Nancy Rodda

W. Seminary girl merit semifinalist

Nancy Rodda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rodda, 316 Pioneer Ave., Dallas, has been named a semifinalist in the 1970-71 National Merit Scholarship Program, according to an announcement made by Wallace F. Settler, president of Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, where Miss Rodda is senior.

Nancy, a senior at Seminary, is the co-editor of the "Opinator" news board. The "Opinator" is the weekly student publication. She is a past president of the German Club at Seminary, and has served on the layout board of the "Wyoming," the school yearbook.

Miss Rodda has captured scholastic honors in science and mathematics. She was among high honor students last year in the Luzerne County mathematics contest, and was the recipient of the Rensselaer math and science award presented by Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute of Troy,

New York. She has also been awarded the Franklin and Marshall College Alumni Book prize. Miss Rodda currently is working as a research assistant at Wilkes College in the biology department. She is a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Wilkes-Barre.

Miss Rodda and another Seminary student, Amy Loveland of Kingston, are among 14,750 national semifinalists in the National Merit Scholarship program who will compete for some 3,000 Merit Scholarships to be awarded early in 1971. Semifinalists must advance to finalist standing to be considered for the Merit Scholarships to be awarded next spring.

The Lehman Taxpayers Association will meet Friday night at 8 at the Lehman Center Hose House. A program on drugs by the Pennsylvania State Police will be presented. All interested persons are invited to attend.

Penn State plans cultural program

John Murphy, dean of student affairs at the Wilkes-Barre Campus of The Pennsylvania State University, has announced the dates for six one-hour programs in the "Cultural Program Series" for the 1970-71 Fall Term to be held on the campus in Lehman.

The "Cultural Program Series" is planned to supplement the formal academic program for the total educational development of the Wilkes-Barre Campus students.

The programs, however, which are held in the lecture room of the Classroom Building are open, free of charge, to the public.

This year's series opens Oct. 6 at 11 a.m. when Gordon Lange, syndicated columnist, lecturer, businessman, and environmental consultant discusses the current concern over man's abuse of the environment.

John Kolisch, one of the nation's top authorities in the field of hypnotism and a leading figure in a national organization concerned with research in this field, is returning by popular demand to discuss the history and development of his field, Oct. 13 at 11 a.m.

The Penn State Players will make their first appearance at the Wilkes-Barre Campus, Oct. 19 at 2 p.m. The Players, a society for students who are fifth term and above and who have participated in five or more University theatre productions, plan to offer selections of scenes from various plays.

David Hoy, ESP authority and "predictor of the future," will lecture on the history of extra-sensory perception and its theories and practices, Nov. 3 at 11 a.m.

Robert Manry, heroic captain of the 13½ foot sloop "Tinkerbelle" who sailed alone across the Atlantic Ocean, will give a first-hand account of his adventure, Nov. 17 at 11 a.m.

Brian O'Leary, ex-astronaut, will speak Dec. 3 at 11 a.m. on the life of a scientist-astronaut. His recently published book, "The Scientist-Astronaut" has raised some controversy regarding the role of the astronaut in this country's space program.

Additional informational concerning the cultural program series may be obtained by contacting the Wilkes-Barre Campus Dean of Student Affairs Office.

Altar & Rosary plan breakfast

The Altar and Rosary Society will hold its annual Mother-Daughter Communion Breakfast Oct. 4 after the 8:45 a.m. Mass. The men of the Holy Name Society will prepare and serve the breakfast.
