Mountains win Old Shoe

by Jon Jay LaBerge

The Dallas Mountaineers closed out the football season with a victory over the Black Knights of Lake-Lehman, 24-14, in an exciting contest at the winners' stadium Thanksgiving Day. As a result of the victory, the Mountaineers regained possession of the "Old Shoe" trophy which is awarded to the winner of the annual Back Mountain contest.

The Knights scored first, following the opening kickoff, by marching 60 yards on running plays by Bob Engle and Tony Stevens. Engle took the ball around the left end for the final 10 yards and the score. The attempt for the extra two points failed when a pass from Stevens fell incomplete.

Dallas came right back on the next series and went 71 yards in six plays including a 38 yard pass from Bruce Goeringer to tight end Ray Goeringer. Charlie Griffen tied the game at 6-6 on a touchdown run from the four.

Lehman was forced to punt following the Mountaineer kickoff and with a 15 yard return by Rob Goeringer, Dallas had the ball on the Knights' 47. Following a 32 yard run by Goeringer, the Mountaineers were deep in Lehman territory at the four plays later, Goeringer put Dallas in the lead to stay on a dive from the three. The conversion was missed again. Both teams were forced to punt and midway through the second period, Dallas had the ball on their own 48. A nine yard run by Ken Engler set up the final score of the half which came on a 43 yard pass from Bruce Goeringer to Mac Fry. A pass for the conversion was incomplete—half-time score 18-6.

Dallas controlled the ball through the third quarter by running 20 plays to Lehman's seven. With only seconds remaining in the period, quarterback Bruce Goeringer fought his way over the center from the two for Dallas' final score of the contest.

Lehman marched 69 yards in 13 plays for the game's final touchdown which came on a six-yard pass from Stevens to Rich Newhart. Another pass from Stevens to Newhart added the two point conversion to make the final score of the game 24-14.

Mark Steele, with nine tackles, Ray Kuderka, and Ken Engler with seven each, anchored the Dallas defense while Don Brobst, Bob Engle and Bill Lozo led the Knight defenders. Rob Goeringer led the winner in total offense with 96 yards on 14 carries and 28 yards on punt and kickoff returns, while his brother Bruce passed for 93 yards and ran for 15.

Tony Stevens for Lehman had 42 yards on 11 carries and passed for an additional 99 yards. Bob Engle had 61 yards on 15 carries and had one reception for 10 yards.
