Senior party

All members of the senior class have been invited to attend a Valentine's Day party Feb. 13. The party will take place from 8-11 p.m. with music provided by the Leer Brothers. Eleven senior girls are sponsoring the gala affair: Linda Dexter, Cathy Wilson, Linda Doughton, Gwen Arnaud, Pamela Rood, Kathy Smith, Mary Cully, Bernadine Sherman, Nancy Roberts, Becky Walk, and Michele Masoner. Seniors don't forget singles, as well as couples, are invited!

Talent show

Students of Dallas High School have been afforded an opportunity to display their talents at the annual Student Council Talent Show coming up soon. Everyone—seniors, juniors, and sophomores (sorry, teachers—maybe you can arrange your own show!) can participate in the show presented at the school, provided they first pass approval in auditions. We're positive that Dallas has ample number of able and well-equipped students but are you willing?

Welcome Tamar

We're happy to announce that Dallas High School is the proud recipient of a new student, Tamar Solnik. Miss Solnik is presently residing with the Stiles of Grandview Avenue, New Goss Manor, Dallas. Tamar is a native of New Zealand, and is a participant in the Wilkes-Barre Rotary program. She is 16 years old and will enroll as a senior at Dallas. Welcome, Tamar. We hope you'll enjoy your stay at the home of the Mountaineers!

Miss Reiss has cozy kindergarten classroom

Like all of the rooms in the Dallas Kindergarten Building, Kathleen Reiss' classroom is carpeted with a sturdy wall to wall carpet that absorbs the merry sounds of children's play and provides a cozy home-away-from-home for her five year old kindergarteners.

Colorful nosegays of spring flowers cut from cardboard add further cheer to the spacious room, and Mrs. Reiss finds that the children themselves bloom beneath her loving care.

A graduate of College Misericordia, Kathleen Reiss is a second year teacher in the Dallas School District.

Sesame Street is a fun part of the day for her large morning class, with snack time coinciding neatly with Big Bird's zany antics. Both morning and afternoon classes have learned to print their names and are busy each day printing letters of the alphabet.
