The East Dallas men were unable to break the ice for any high scores.

Young P. Honoic was high man in the Industrial League Thursday night as he came up with 543 to give McCreary Tire 4 points over Daring Market. The merchants' B. Banks was high with 505. Boston's Texaco lost 3 1/2 to first place Hurst Supply but managed to stay in second, 1 point behind the leaders. Hanson's took 3 from seventh place Hoppy's Cafe but couldn't get out of the cellar. Kunkle Motors moved to fourth as they took Larksville "66" for 3. The fellows had trouble spilling the pins and hope for better this week.

In the Back Mountain Neighborhood League, C. Molley smashed out a middle game of 233 (581) for Fino's but the men lost 3 to Konefal's paced by H. Bennett's 206 (576). J. Kriel's 221 and F. Krouse's 201 aided by E. Mickey's 212 gave Payne Printery a clean sweep over Brothers 4. J. Zier knocked down the pins for 248 (579) and S. Bonomo for 562 to help Disque's grab 3 from Roth Novelty. C. Nafus' 553 was high for the novelty men. Dallas Finance men couldn't come up with a 500 as they split 2-2 with Henry's Jewelry. The Jewelers' E. Lamoreux scored 225 and J. Swingle battered the pins for 202 (561). K. Miller came up with 201 in his last game.

Tom Reese Lehigh Valley Coal girls' team in the Bowlerette League cut Trucks-ville Pharmacy's lead to 1/2 game when they took all 4 points from the league leaders. Toots Langdon totaled 458 for the coal team and Fran Dierolf shot a high middle game of 171. E. Saraka hit 164 for the pharmacy. Monk Plumbing & Heating slipped to third place by losing their entire series to Duke Isaacs' girls. A. Corbett found the range on 167, 190, 173 (530) to spark the car dealer's team helped by E. Gregory's 171. The losers tried hard with Sally Roberts' 163 but to no avail. The race is still close with only 4 1/2 points separating first and last place.

C. Williams shot top score in the Crown Major League on games of 206, 200, 204 (610) to lead West Side Novelty to a clean sweep over Wesley's Gulf Service. He had help from J. Lerch with 212 (577). Wesley's had B. Roberts as top man with 204. Automatic won 4 points from Dallas Shopping Center with E. Havrilla's 208 (564) leading his team mates to victory with assistance from T. Hazinski's 560.

Leadoff man Joe Kubek connected with 203 (561) for Gebhardt's to take 3 points from the Dallas Post. He had H. Rost's 210 and G. Cephalonis' 201 for insurance. John K.'s 201 was high for the Post. Monk Plumbing & Heating won 3 points from Shavertown Lumber Co. Monk's had anchorman H. Bennett with 201 (574), D. Gorey with 213 and G. Monk's 202. High scorer for the lumbermen was D. Zimmerman's 210.

The race for the lead in the Imperial League grows hotter as one game separates each of the first four teams. O'Malia Laundry dropped 3 points to Dallas Dairy but continues in top position by one game over E. M. Shepherd. B. Bonning's 171-175 (488) paced the laundry team and G. Davies' 162 plus M. Shepherd's 183 turned the tide for the dairy girls.

Paced by J. Bolinski's 180 (491), Shepherds' captured 4 points from Apex Used Auto Parts. E. Frew came up with 162 in her last game. J. Agnew's 173 and 169 by R. Radzinski were not enough to earn any points for Apex. Garry Real Estate is in fourth place, just one game behind Dallas Dairy. N. Perry's 163-180 (510) helped by G. Wagner's 193 (464) and E. Shaffer's 167 took 3 points from Cigo.

High scores were lacking on the Cigo team with M. Morris' 162 high. Goodman stands in fifth place with an even 10-10 earned by a 3 point victory over Ralph Fitch & Sons. J. Frantz rolled 160-164 (468) for Goodman and L. Roan knocked down the pins for 189. J. Bicking topped Fitch bowlers with 184-161 (472).

Clean sweep was the theme for the night as Shavertown A took all from East Dallas leaving them in the cellar. For Shavertown, Hopkins scattered enough pins for 237-569 and Davis came through with 211.

High scores were lacking in the match between Automatic and Besecker's in the Community Service League. The realtors dropped 4 points. Roberts Gulf Service took 3 from Boyd White but Gulf's Nicholson was the only man on the two lanes to come up with 500 tumbling the pins for 543. Stanton TV shut out Roth's Novelty but like their brother teams, there were few high scores.

In the Ladies' Country League, A. Matte rolled 189, 180, 187 for a high 556 to lead Nelsons Mfg. to a 3 point win over Joe's Pizza led by H. Bonomo's 224 (553). Brothers 4 continued their hold on first place as they shut out Daring's Market. Brothers' L. Cyphers scored 502 against the market's J. Agnew's 501. Kay Kalafski hit 503 as Fashion Vending split even with Pargas.

Hitting the 180's for the night were L. Cypher, J. Zimmerman, E. Shaffer, J. Agnew, and P. Poynton. Games in the 170's rolled by L. Cyphers, A. Corbett, K. Kalafski, R. Coury, H. Bonomo, and J. Zimmerman. K. Sharpe, D. Brace B. Pape, V. Harris, and M. Eisenhower had games in the 160's. Scoring high 400 series were J. Zimmerman 496, M. Conside 468, E. Shaffer 464, R. Coury 463, and A. Corbett 461.

Trucksville A swept all 4 from the Church League's second place Lutherans to push them to third while they held on to first position. D. Eddy smashed out 207 for Trucksville and R. Stair came up with 213 (550) for the Lutherans. S. Fielding's 204 (550) and L. Newhart's 205 led Shavertown B to a 2 1/2 point win over Dallas B. C. Glasser's 203, 204 (569) and R. T. Moore's 208 were only enough to take 1 1/2 and put Dallas in fourth.
