With a basket by Tony Fannick and only five seconds remaining, Dallas narrowly edged out Plains last Tuesday by a score of 77-76 to move them into sole possession of first place of the Wyoming Valley League B Division. The win was the fifth of the second half for the Mountaineers against no losses.

The game, which was played before a capacity crowd at the Plains gym, was close all the way with neither team gaining more than a 6 point advantage.

Plains led 23-20 at the end of the first quarter and retained a 3 point lead at half 41-38. Dallas rallied in the third quarter and managed to build a 5 point lead by midway through the period. They held a 2 point lead going into the final period, 62-60.

Plains rallied and gained the advantage by 3 in the closing period and, with four Dallas players on the bench with five personal fouls, it looked as if Plains would upset the Mountaineers for the second time this year.

With less than 15 seconds left on the clock and Dallas trailing by 1, Tony Fannick grabbed a rebound, raced the length of the floor and threw in a 20 foot shot to give Dallas the final lead, 77-76. A shot by Gene Fische with only one second on the clock narrowly missed.

Tony Fannick ended up with 29 on 14 field goals and one foul shot, and was followed by Chip Hoffecker with 18, and Brad Hochhalter with 12.

Gene Fische collected 35 to lead all scorers. Librik, Walkowiak, and Woronowicz collected 13, 11 and 10 respectively.

In the JV game the Mountaineers, paced by Gary Arcuri with 27, overcame an 8 point first half to remain undefeated in league action by defeating Plains 79-70. Three other players broke double figures in the JV's 16th victory of the year.

Plains and Wyoming Seminary regained a chance at the Wyoming League B Division title last Friday as Seminary defeated Dallas by 1 point and threw the division into a three-way tie, with all three teams holding a 5 to 1 record.

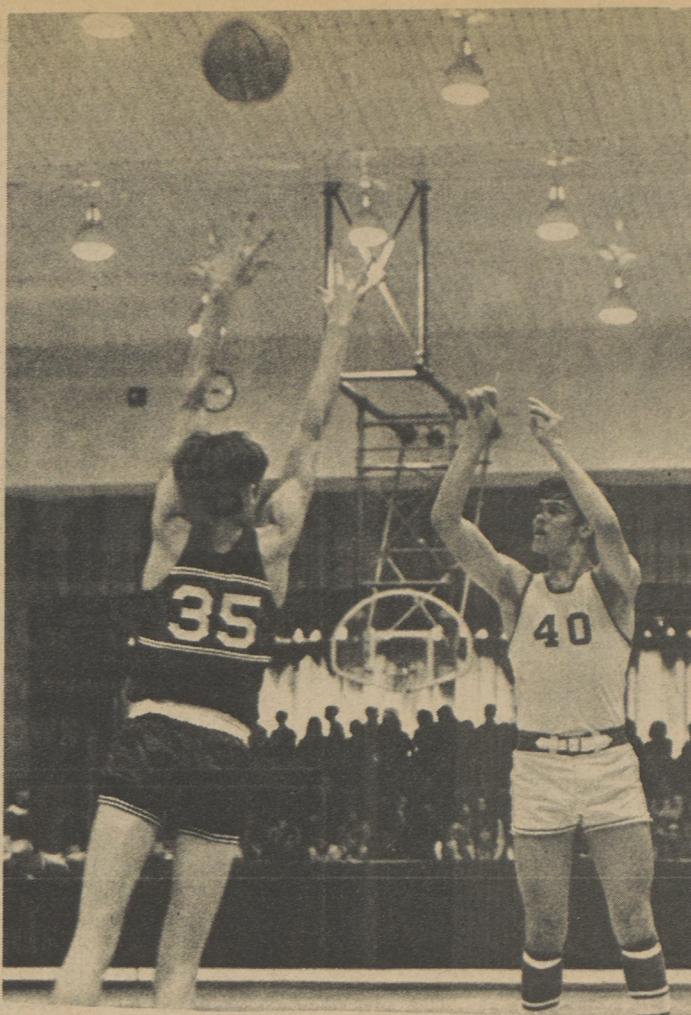

Dallas appeared to be in control as they led 13-6 at the end of the first quarter but Sem rallied with an explosive 21 point second quarter performance to bring them within 3 of the first half champs, 30-27.

Ed Labatch hit some long shots through the first half to lead the Mountaineers into the locker room with 10.

Seminary maintained the momentum which they had gained in the first half and outscored the Mountaineers 14-10 in the third quarter and took the lead for the first time of the evening, 41-40.

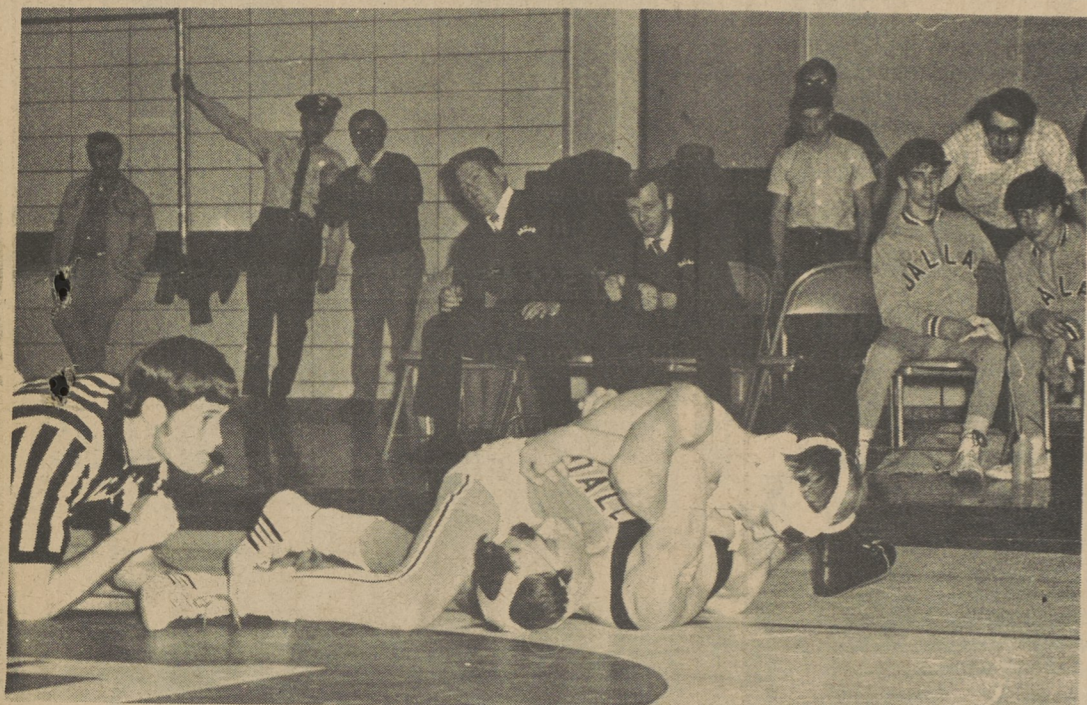

Loftus came alive in the closing seconds as he threw in two key baskets, including the final score which put the Knights ahead for good. Dallas had several attempts at the basket in the closing seconds but couldn't seem to find the range and the game ended, 54-53.

Five of the six Dallas players managed to score and four of them hit double figures. Chip Hoffecker and Tony Fannick led Dallas with 14 apiece, followed by Labatch with 12; Novroski with 11 and Hochhalter with 2.

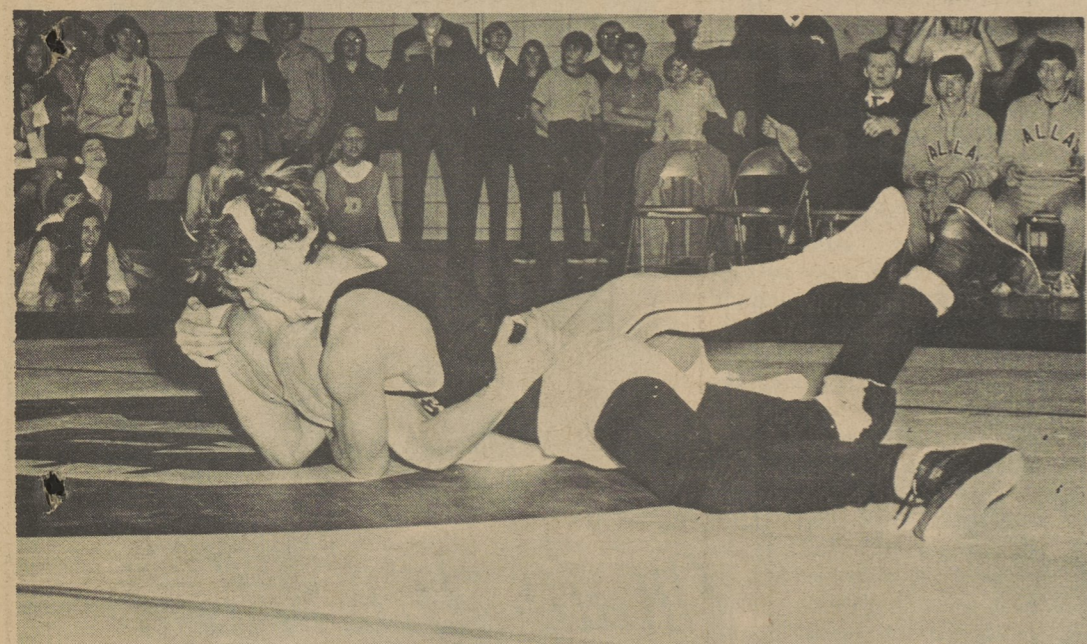

Ed Labatch (40) Dallas, shoots over the head of his Seminary opponent in last week's game which ended as a heartbreaker for the Mounts when they lost by 1 point.
