

McFaddens co-chair communion breakfast

Tom McFadden, 58 Highland Ave., Dallas, has been named co-chairman of the annual College Misericordia Parents' Association Communion Breakfast, according to the Association's college coordinator, Robert J. Gower. The communion breakfast for College Misericordia students and their parents will be held at the college Sunday morning, April 25. Dr. Rudolf J. Schleich, academic dean of King's College, will be the guest speaker.

The communion breakfast is one of a series of events planned for this weekend, officially known as Parents' Spring Weekend at College Misericordia. A dinner-dance is planned for Saturday evening to be held in the Hotel Sterling in Wilkes-Barre. Prior to the communion breakfast Sunday, the college will celebrate a special Mass for the students and their parents.

Mr. McFadden will share the chairmanship for the communion breakfast with his wife, Mary, and with Mrs. Andrew A. Fabian of Larksville. Both Mrs.

Tom McFadden

Fabian and Mr. McFadden are directors of the Parents' Association at the college.

Other Dallas residents serving on the committee for the communion breakfast are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rubino of Shrine Acres. Mr. and Mrs. Rubino are co-chairmen of the reception committee for the breakfast.

police auxiliary plans spaghetti supper

The Back Mountain Police Auxiliary will hold a spaghetti supper in the Lehman Fire Hall Saturday, April 24, from 5 to 7:30 p.m.

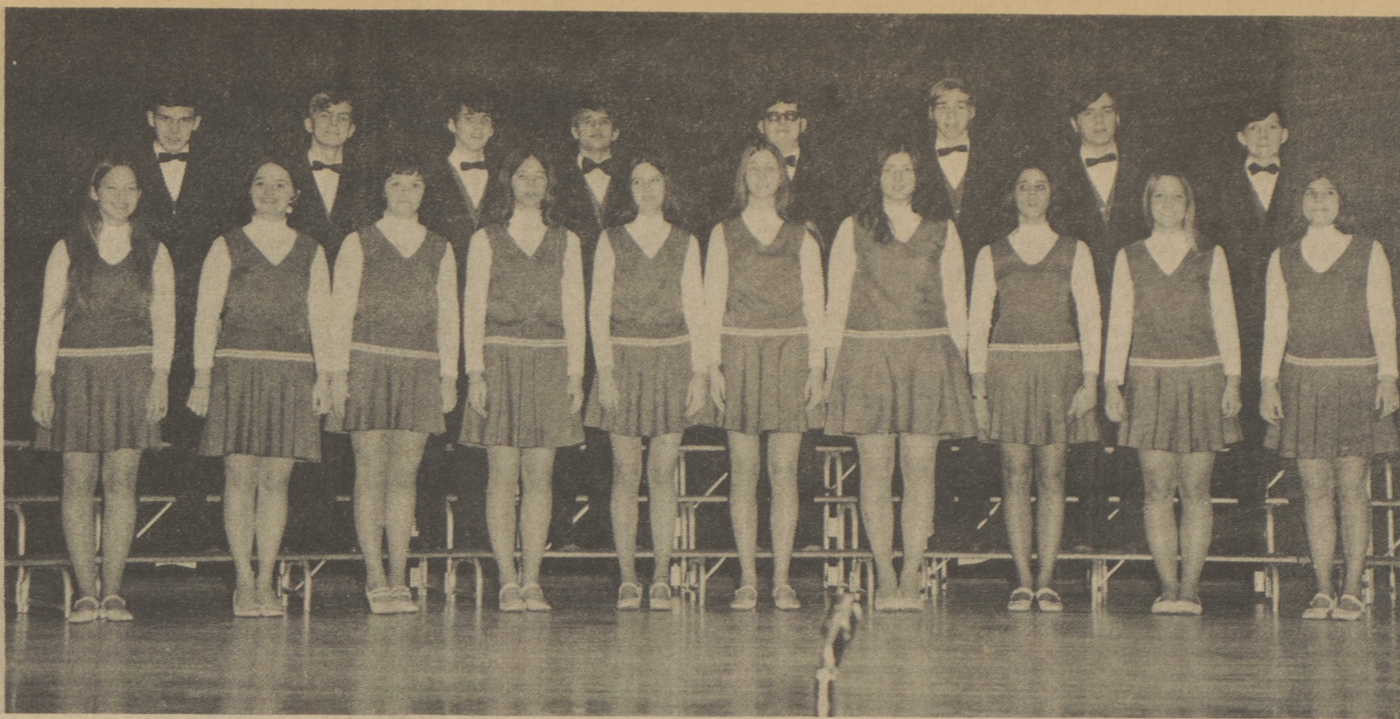

Dinner chairman Joan Roginski has announced that tickets will be $1.25 for adults, $1 for children aged 7 to 12, and no admission charge for children 7 and younger.

Tickets may be purchased from members of the auxiliary or at the door. Take-outs will be available to persons supplying their own containers.

The menu will include spaghetti with meat sauce, tossed salad, rolls and butter, coffee and cake.

WASHINGTON—Most radios, televisions, stereos, and records found in American department and specialty stores get there by truck. In 1969, trucks carried more than 75 percent of all such goods.

WASHINGTON—Versatility has become a by-word of the trucking industry. Special equipment enables the motor truck to handle every type of freight—from frozen foods and chickens to missiles and tanks!

Dal Hi Choristers plan special public concert

Dallas Senior High Choristers will present a concert for the public, April 26 at 7:30 p.m., at the Dallas Senior High School.

This is the first time the concert is being presented for the public. In the past, it has been a private presentation for parents and non-professional employees of the school. It will be the only opportunity for the general public to enjoy the musical talents of the students as it will not be part of the spring chorus to be presented May 6 and 7.

The senior high group, comprised of 50 students, has performed throughout Wyoming Valley for benefits as well as private organizations such as Rotary, Kiwanis, and Order of Eastern Star. They recently presented a portion of their repertoire during intermission at the Camelot Ball.

The program will include Spinning; Traces with soloists Nancy Fleming and Travis Adams; Both Sides Now; Up With People with soloist John Engler; Sunshine In My Soul; No Man Is An Island; Did I Ever Live; All Of My Laughter; A Thing Called Love with quartet Phillip Scott, Harry Swepton, Thomas Yarnal, and Brock Phillips; Feeling Good with Ed Bessmer and Jay Miller; and I'll Never Fall In Love Again, by the boys' chorus.

Barbara Reese will sing the obligato in several numbers. Accompanists include Nancy Pichert, Holly Phillips, Leslie Evans, Marilyn Miller, Debbie Philo, Brenda Richards, Cathy Wilson and Harold Hoover. Mike Davis Jr. will play the drums and Bob Carle Jr. the bass viol.

Costume changes and choreography will add to the color of the concert.

Members of the chorus will entertain their parents at a private party following the program.

Florence H. Sherwood, chorus director, has announced that there will be no admission fee and urges the general public to attend this first open concert of the choristers.

Tom McFadden is chairman, assisted by William Kalinowski, president. Father Stephen McGough is moderator.

All parishioners and their friends are invited.

A baseball bus tour to Philadelphia, to see the Phillies play the St. Louis Cardinals, is being planned for Aug. 1.

summer story lady needed at library

The Back Mountain Memorial Library is looking for a responsible high school or college student to work as an assistant story lady at the Wednesday morning story hours during the summer. According to Mrs. William Umphred, story lady, the assistant's responsibilities will begin in May and continue through August.

Although the position carries no remuneration, Mrs. Umphred suggests, it is an ideal opportunity for any young girl eager for teaching experience.

Grouse Hill

Location of one's home is important for investment reasons as well as convenience. Not only the immediate surroundings, but the proximity to other activities should be considered.

Grouse Hill is a planned community that offers the ideal location. This 300 acre estate is in the Abingtons, only one mile from the Waverly exchange of Interstate 81. Shopping centers are nearby with recreational areas practically on your doorstep.

Grouse Hill has a view of Elk Mountain and the new 1000 acre Tunkhannock Creek State Park. This location affords ease of access to the cities with an exclusive country atmosphere.

Architectural and building services are available. Call Grouse Hill, 587-4387, for an appointment.

completes training

Army Pvt. Robert Disque Jr., whose parents live at RD 2, Dallas, recently completed an eight-weeks Chaparral-Vulcan crewman course at Ft. Bliss, Tex.

During his training, he learned all phases of the firing and tracking systems of these two air defense weapons.

The Chaparral consists of heat-seeking guided missiles mounted on a tracked vehicle and the Vulcan is a 20 MM automatic six-barrel gun mounted on a self-propelled armored personnel carrier.

woman signs peace bond

An assault and battery charge preferred against Marion Nemetz, Jackson Township, by Edward Zielen on behalf of his 12-year old son, Joseph, was dropped during an informal hearing before District Magistrate Leonard Harvey last Thursday night.

According to the complaint filed March 30 by Mr. Zielen, also a Jackson Township resident, Mrs. Nemetz struck his son "about the face and head causing him great pain and injury" following an altercation March 28.

Mrs. Nemetz denied hitting the youth, stating that she had merely attempted to separate children fighting in her yard, one of whom was the Zielen boy.

Mr. Zielen agreed to drop the charge when Mrs. Nemetz, on advice of Public Defender James Reinert, stated that she would sign a $500 peace bond.

county candidates forum is cancelled

The Luzerne County Candidates Night scheduled for April 25 in the Kingston Township Building has been cancelled, Pat Gregory, president of the Back Mountain Republican Women's Club, has announced.

Mrs. Gregory suggested that an exceptionally large slate of candidates made the question and answer format customarily sponsored by the women's organization impractical this year.
