Dallas senior receives West Point appointment

Edmund Labatch Jr., senior at Dallas Senior High School, has received an appointment to the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y. His nomination was sponsored by the Hon. Daniel J. Flood.

Ed, an outstanding athlete at Dallas, played defensive back and split end for football coach, Jack Jones, and won his varsity letter in football.

He also won his letter on the school's varsity basketball team which won the Class B division championship this year. He was a member of the second team B. Division All Scholastic squad and played in the W.V.A.A. Senior All-Star Tournament.

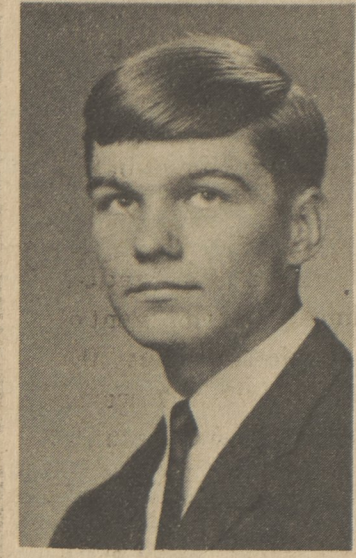

Ed is a two-time varsity letter winner on the school's baseball team and is expected to be one of the team's top pitchers this spring.

The 6-1, 185 pound senior is a member of the National Honor Society and the Gridiron Club.

He will enter West Point in July and expects to play on the plebe football team in the fall and the baseball in the spring.

Ed Labatch was also accepted at Cornell, Lehigh and Penn State University. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Labatch Sr. 21 Park St. Dallas. He has a brother, Joseph, who is a ninth grade student at Dallas Junior High School.

His father is with the United States Post Office at Dallas. Mrs. Labatch is the former Helen Tencza of Edwardsville.

Memorial Day parade in Sweet Valley

Spring is on its way, and with it come the thoughts of the Sweet Valley Memorial Day Parade. No spring would be complete without the festivities that the Sweet Valley Volunteer Fire Co. brings to the area. Memorial Day. This holiday, because national governmental scheduling will be held Monday this year, residents will have a long spring weekend.

The gala holiday will begin Friday evening, May 28, and will hold entertainment and games of skill for those many area residents who are present. Saturday will show more entertainment, but then on Sunday, the firemen, in respect for God, church, and country, will not open up the fair grounds for any type of business. Memorial Day will then get off to a big start Monday morning with a horse show featuring many classes of competition. In the early afternoon, the biggest and best parade ever held in the area will get underway along the Main Road, Sweet Valley. Many more facets of entertainment will prevail the rest of the day with everything from sky divers and amusement rides to a gigantic display of fireworks.

Most of all, who can forget all of that fine food that is offered by the firemen, not to mention the repeat performance of the "Flora Dora Girls?" Yes, it's going to be a big, fantastic weekend!

So the Sweet Valley Fire Co. extends an invitation to set aside this holiday weekend to spend at Sweet Valley. Any person who wishes, may enter a float in the parade by contacting general chairman, William George, or parade chairman, Terry Davenport at Sweet Valley.

assault and battery filed against husband

James Walters of Briarcrest Road, RD 1, Dallas, was bound over for grand jury action on charges of assault and battery and surety of the peace following a hearing before District Magistrate Leonard Harvey Monday morning at 10:30. Walters was released on $2,000 bond posted by Joseph Park.

According to charges filed by Lois Walters, wife of the accused, the defendant allegedly accosted her as she was returning home at 3:30 a.m. April 12 and, after demanding to know where she had been, grabbed her by the arm, hit her on the head, threw her on the floor, and choked her until she was dizzy. Mrs. Walters claimed that her husband "threatened to fix me so I'd never go out again," and "threatened to kill me."

Mr. Walters flatly denied hitting his wife. Magistrate Harvey directed the defendant to observe the peace mandates placed upon him by the court and urged him to take up residence at his mother's home until the case is considered by the grand jury or until the couple's differences are settled.

Kathryn Wilkie addresses book club

The Book Club of the Back Mountain Memorial Library met Monday in the library annex. Guest speaker was Kathryn Wilkie of Glen Lyon, whose book The Three Virgins will soon be on the library shelves.

Mrs. Wilkie had many interesting anecdotes to share with book club members about how she happened to write the book, the problems of getting the book published, and the joys of reading favorable reviews of ones life work.

Mrs. Wilkie will attend her 50th class reunion at Bloomsburg State College soon.

Mrs. Clarence Ankner presided. The hospitality committee, headed by Mrs. William H. Pierce, with Mrs. John Coon and Mrs. Thomas Graham, served refreshments.

The club will meet again May 17 at 1:30 p.m. at the library annex.
