

Chorale Prepares For Full Schedule

The Dallas Woman's Club Chorale recently presented their first concert of the spring season for the members of the Durbin Class of the Dallas Methodist Church. Chorale members wore new gowns of apricot nylon-chiffon featuring Empire waistlines and long fluted sleeves. Applied velvet trimmed the bodice and wrists.

The Chorale observed National Music Week, May 2-9, by entertaining members of the Dallas Junior Woman's Club at their May tea at St. Therese's Church, Shavertown, May 4.

The program this season includes semi-classical and classical numbers from Broadway shows, movie themes, and hit musicals, with an original Burt Bacharach medley to keep in tune with the times.

The Chorale group will present concerts during months of April, May and June, throughout Wyoming Valley at civic and social gatherings, teas, dinners, and private parties. They will also sing for guests at Valley Crest and at Retreat State Hospital.

The Chorale director is Mrs. David Wojciechowski, well known throughout the Valley for her musical talent. Mrs. Walter Steltz, former pianist for the First Presbyterian Church of Wilkes-Barre, is accompanist.
