

4-H Club Horse Show Highlights List of Winners

The Back Mountain Horse-shoe 4-H Club held its fourth annual Open Horse Show April 18 at Highland Acres Equestrian Center.

The show drew exhibitors from New Jersey and New York, as well as local riders and other Pennsylvanians.

In the show's 40 classes, there were full divisions for Arabian, hunters, pony hunters, western, youth classes, hunt seat and stock seat equitation, gymkaha races and pony roadsters.

Points were awarded to the winners of each class, and a champion and a reserve champion were awarded each division.

Junior working hunter champion was Ellen Vivian; reserve was Chris Lacek.

Regular working hunter champion horse was "Judge Saunders", owned by Mrs. P. J. Schalm 3rd, and ridden by Conni Bogdon. Reserve was "Miss Bizerte," owned and ridden by Ellen Vivian.

In the Arabian division, champion was Dom Mastri on "Sarneh;" reserve was Julie Everts on "Highland's Tammy."

Equitation champion was Ellen Vivian and the reserve was John Weeks.

Among other winners and their classes were pony working hunter, Chris Williams on "Brownie Scout"; reserve, Amy Pearsall on "Highland's Bantry"; western champion, G. B. Sordoni on "Tabano Heiress"; reserve, Joe Boyle on "Dub's Scarlet"; youth champion, Jimmy Spencer on "Copper Penny"; reserve, Janet Sue Everts on "Blonde Pom Pom"; gymkaha champion, Jimmy Heller on "Silver King"; and reserve, Kim Hood on "Nemesis."

George Major was winner of the pony roadster class with "Mr. G" owned and driven by Mr. Major; reserve was "Merrie Mills Dixie", owned by Mr. and Mrs. Major and driven by Conni Bogdon.

The show this year was a member of the Penn-Jersey Horse Show Association.

Judge was A. Thom Brede, Orefield. Ringmaster was Mary Hoesy and the announcer was Fred Dewees.

Parade to Precede Little League Opening

Back Mountain Little League season will open May 22. Opening ceremonies will be conducted at the Little League Field, Church Street, Dallas, preceded by a parade of the players from the Dallas Intermediate School to the field.

Judge was A. Thom Brede, Orefield. Ringmaster was Mary Hoesy and the announcer was Fred Dewees.

Atty. Charles Lemmond will be the guest speaker at the opening ceremonies. Four games will be played opening day beginning at 11 a.m.

League officials are Ben Pieczynski, president; Gus Shuleski, vice president; Leo Corbett, secretary, and Thomas Reese, treasurer.

The Little League in the Back Mountain has been in operation for more than 20 years and has been made possible through the generous support of residents who contribute on "doorbell night", sponsors, and candy sales, as well as field advertising.

Area Karate School Competes in Reading

At the recent Northeastern United States Karate Championships, held in Reading, May 1, Wilkes-Barre's Sombach Karate School placed high in the competition.

Richard Wade, Wilkes-Barre, brown belt, won fourth place; Roy Grimes, Wilkes-Barre, white belt, took fifth place. In the youth division, Gary Michak, Plymouth, took fifth place; and George Michak, Plymouth, took sixth place. Also entered in the competition were Paul Fox, Tony Carbone, Vincent Carbone, and Donna Michak.

The Sombach school is located at 17 E. Market St., and is directed by John Casterline, holder of the second degree black belt in Go Shin Jutsu style karate.

Dallas Drops Decision To Top Meyers' Team

by Jon Jay LaBerge

Dallas dropped a 95½ to 54½ decision last Tuesday to the league-leading Meyers' Mohawks at Dallas' track. The loss put Dallas in a tie with Nanticoke for fourth place in the Wyoming Valley Track League with a 3 and 3 record.

Meyers dominated the meet, collecting 13 of 18 first places, but Dallas managed to place in every event except the mile.

Meyers was led by Gilbert, Holvey, and Rupert with each collecting two firsts.

Dallas' Gary Arcuri led the Mountaineers with wins in the 100 yard dash and 180 yard low hurdles, while placing second in the 220 yard dash.

Griffin, Wallace and Mark Arcuri controlled the high jump for Dallas by taking first, second and a tie for third.

Results of the meet are as follows: two mile relay, Meyers

(Sugarman, F. Kepner, Evans, Roughsedge) 9:01.1; 120 yard high hurdles, Rupert M.; 16.4; 100 yard dash, G. New Dallas Team In Central League

Frank Hemenway, who will manage the new Dallas team in the Central League, has announced that he has signed Tex Wilson, RD 1, Dallas, as coach. Mr. Wilson managed the former Dallas team in the Wyoming League and led them to a pennant several years ago.

J.R. Sperl, general manager, said he has obtained permission to use the Dallas Senior High School field for home games, but that no local exhibition games have been scheduled. The league starts next Sunday with the Dallas team traveling to Ashley. Home games will start at 2 p.m.

In league play, each team can carry 21 players and three coaches. During the last practice of the local team, 20 players participated, making it possible to play an inter-squad game.

Wayne Brandt, Evan Bonawitz, and Tom Gauntlett are among the starting pitchers. The first two are right handers and Gauntlett is a south paw. Bert Gosart and Cy Evans will handle catching chores.

A large quantity of new equipment has been purchased, including complete catching equipment, new bats, and a supply of baseballs.

Seminary Goes Down To Dallas Track Team

by Jon Jay LaBerge

Dallas turned back Wyoming Seminary yesterday by a score of 102-48 as they moved their season record to four wins and three losses.

Dallas took 13 of the 18 events and swept the 100 and 220 yard dashes, the long and triple jumps, and the three relays to dominate the meet.

Frank Summa collected individual firsts in the long and triple jumps while competing on the winning 880 yard relay team. Monday, Dallas faces G.A.R. and Wednesday, they meet Abington Heights. Both meets are at Dallas' track, starting at 4 p.m.

Fires Continue Threat to Forests

Fires continue to destroy valuable wildlife habitat on state game lands, according to the Pennsylvania Game Commission.

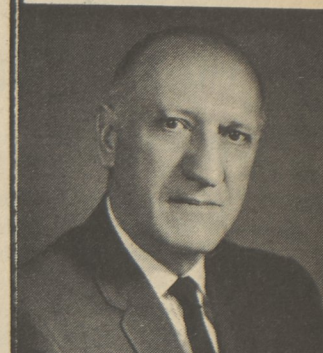

Despite a statewide ban on smoking and building fires in or near forests, blazes are continuing.

Sportsmen are warned of the tinder-dry conditions on woodlands throughout the state, and are urged to take every precaution possible so fires do not get started.

Nanticoke Hands Dallas Its Second Track Defeat

Nanticoke handed Dallas its second defeat of the 1971 track season last Friday as they outscored the Mountaineers, 80-70 at the Dallas track.

Motel paced the winners with three of his team's 12 firsts. Nanticoke dominated the running events by allowing only one Mountaineer to obtain a first.

Dallas swept the jumping events with a sweep high jump and two places in the long and triple jumps and the pole vault. Extremely high winds prevented performances from reaching a normal mark.

Results were: two mile relay, Nanticoke (Kresucki, Lubecki Joe Rentko, Jack Rentko) 9:56; 120 yard high hurdles, Motel N. Wallace D. M. Arcuri D. 16.7; 100 yard dash, Wilson D. Engler D.
