The Buffalo Bills Barbershop Quartet will return by popular request to the Orpheus Choral Society's 19th annual spring concert set for 8:30 p.m., May 15 at the Kingston Building of Wyoming Valley West School District.

The Buffalo Bills Quartet is well known for its appearance in the hit Broadway musical "The Music Man". They currently are touring the nation

Aboard USS Wasp

Navy CPO Paul A. Yasenchak, son of Eleanor C. Yasenchak, 95 W. Hoyt St., Kingston, has returned to his hometown of Quonset Point, R.I. aboard the anti-submarine aircraft carrier USS Wasp after a seven-week deployment to the U.S. Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

with appearances scheduled at a number of benefit concerts as well as the night club circuit. William E. Acornley, Wilkes-Barre, is director of Orpheus and Norma Smith, Dallas, is accompanist.

The program will include among other groups, the Now Sound of Orpheus, the New sound of Orpheus and the Patriot Sound of Orpheus. Some new numbers are "Traces," "Spinning Wheel," "Ring Bell," as well as religious compositions ranging from contemporary to classical.

The Orpheus is currently in its 52nd year and is comprised of some 50 singers from both Luzerne and Lackawanna counties.

Tickets for the Orpheus Choral Society-Buffalo Bills joint performance are available from any member or at the door the evening of performance.

Dance Band to Play For Parents Assoc

The Lake-Lehman High School dance band will entertain at the regular meeting of the Band Parents' Association next Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the high school. The musicians are chosen from among the membership of the concert band and they provide entertainment for various school events.

On the agenda for the meeting is election of officers and completion of plans for the Sherburne, N.Y., trip June 5 and election of officers.

Bus reservations for parents and friends must be in to Nellie Scouton or Mrs. Cletus Holcomb at the high school by May 15. Dinner reservations for the Country Club are to be given to Mrs. Gilbert Tough by the same date.

The week of May 16 to May 22 has been designated as Band Booster Week. Band members will distribute commemorative decals from door to door to help raise money for new uniforms. Band members and band parents are working in conjunction with the school board to accomplish this project by next fall.

Hoagie sale will be held May 25 instead of May 18 because of election day. Orders may be called in to Mrs. William Teske or Mrs. Dale Wright by May 23.
