

Theatre 3 Benefactors To be Feted

Benefactors in the College Misericordia Theatre 3 organization will be feted at a special dinner at the college June 2, it was announced by Robert J. Gower, college coordinator of the organization. The dinner, known as the President's Dinner, is an annual tribute to the contributions the Theatre 3 benefactors have made to the growth and development of College Misericordia. Over 200 benefactors are expected to attend.

An individual becomes a benefactor in the Theatre 3 organization through a contribution of $100. The contribution is used to extend the physical facilities of the college and also entitles the benefactor to two reserved seats for each presentation in the Theatre 3 series.

The President's Dinner also serves as the beginning of the annual Theatre 3 campaign for additional benefactors.

The program for the 1971 dinner will include remarks by Sally O'Malley Thomas, dinner chairman; Sister Miriam Teresa, RSM, College Misericordia president; Robert W. Laux, Theatre 3 chairman of the President's Council; and Louis F. Goeringer, general chairman of Theatre 3 for 1971-72. The toastmaster for the dinner will be William Umphred, general chairman of Theatre 3 for 1970-71.

The 1971 President's Dinner will be held in Merrick Hall at College Misericordia.

Renee Reese Fund Goes Over the Top

The Renee Reese Fund has received contributions of over $4,000, according to Cathy Fluck, publicity chairman for the campaign.

The fund was started to assist Renee Reese, an 11th grader at Lake-Lehman High School. Miss Reese, who broke her leg in a fall on ice just before Christmas, is unable to walk until she undergoes orthopedic surgery.

Started originally by Lake-Lehman High School students, and Country Impressions, a Sweet Valley newspaper, the campaign by the students raised $1,852.61. Of this amount, $100 was contributed by the Junior Class from their treasury; $400 was donated by individual students throughout the high school.

Collection canisters placed in various Back Mountain establishments and donations from other sources, such as ladies' church organizations, raised the amount of $3,372.37. A total of $4,224.98 was realized.

According to Miss Fluck, also an 11th grader, a local rehabilitation agency has agreed to pay bills for any amount over $4,000. The campaign is considered over, Miss Fluck said.

Mailbox Improvement

The U.S. Postal Services has designated the week of May 17 to May 22, "Mailbox Improvement Week." The purpose of the project is to call attention to the need for providing mail receptacles which are designed to protect the mail from the weather, and which are neat in appearance, conveniently located, and safe to use.

The name of the owner and the box number must be shown on the side of the box visible to the carrier as he approaches, or on the door where boxes are grouped, postal officials said.

Boxes should be installed with the bottom of the box between three and a half and four feet from the roadway. Where boxes are not located directly in front of the owner's residence, the customer's name and house number must be shown on the box.

Americans Are on the Move

According to John J. Passan, president of City Delivery Service, the annual rush is about to begin for America's movers. Mr. Passan, an agent for United Van Lines Inc., said that more than 40,000,000 Americans will move before 1971 comes to an end, about 60 percent of them changing addresses between the end of May and Sept. 15. Americans tend to prefer to move during the summer, when they do not have to transfer children from one school to another during the regular term.

Tremendous strain is put on movers to provide needed men and equipment to get the job done, Mr. Passan explained. Most major worldwide van lines have conducted studies to determine how best to have moving vans available in given areas to serve the moving public during the peak season. In the case of United Van Lines, he continued, vans are shuttled across the nation to be sure that an adequate number of units are available as each geographic area reaches the "peak season".

There is a great demand for moving vans in the northeast part of the country several weeks before the midwest feels the rush. "Surveys conducted by movers have also revealed that a family that moves once will likely move again within three years," Mr. Passan said.

"many moves the result of large companies shifting their personnel from city to city. Some are routine military transfers. And, of course, there are those Americans who have itchy feet and are looking for the greenest pasture in which to settle."

Regardless of the reason for moving, America's movers transfer the belongings of about 400,000 persons each day. More than 10,000 vans ply the nation's highways.
