

Competition Keen in Auction Poster Contest

Winners in the Library Auction's poster contest were announced recently by Mrs. Stephen Kiefer, chairman of the auction publicity committee. Mrs. George Thomas, Mrs.

Harry Goeringer Jr., and Howard Purcell served as contest judges and noted that many of the posters submitted by students in the Lake-Lehman and Dallas Junior and Senior High Schools were of exceptional quality.

Each of the top winners in the four schools received $25 savings bonds courtesy of The First National Bank of Eastern Pennsylvania.

In the Dallas Senior High School, Kitty Vernon took top honors; honorable mention notices were awarded Steve Willis and Barbara Reese. Dorothy Withey is art instructor at the senior high school.

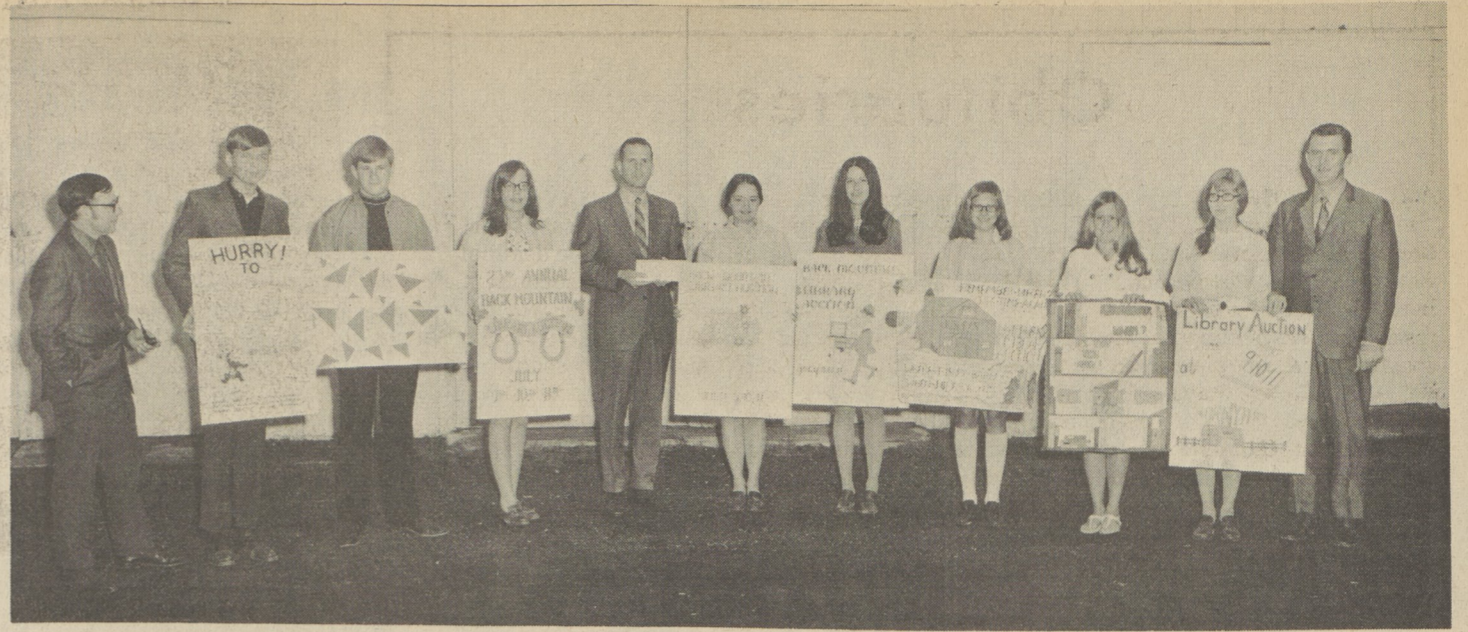

First prize in the Lake-Lehman High School went to Cheryl Wendt with Dale Sutton and Theresa Derwin winning honorable mention.

At Lake-Lehman Junior High School, Karen Kasenchak captured the top spot, while the posters of Kim Davis and Calvin Gensel both won honorable mention. Mrs. Gary Stickler is the art instructor in both Lake-Lehman secondary schools.

Competition in the Dallas Junior High School contest was so keen, the judges reported, that it was extremely difficult to decide which poster to select for the top prize. The judges finally selected Ralph Frost's poster for the first place and awarded a special honorable mention to Chris Paulsen. An honorable mention was also given to a poster by Susan LaBerge. Art instructor at Dallas Junior High School is Mrs. Arthur Hontz.

Winning posters from Lake-Lehman were displayed last week at The United Penn Bank in Dallas while Dallas' winning posters were on exhibit at The First National Bank of Eastern Pennsylvania in the Dallas Village Shopping Center.

Not present when the photograph was taken were Steve Willis, Dale Sutton, Theresa Derwin, and Calvin Gensel.

Retiring Teachers Honored by FTA

The Lake-Lehman Chapter of Future Teachers of America paid tribute to the retiring teachers of the district at the closing of school, June 18. Recipients of gifts were Basil Steel, Agnes Butler, Dorothy Landis, and Joseph Ellsworth, teachers of the Ross Township, Noxen Township and Lehman schools.

The FTA is a pre-professional organization designed to provide students interested in a teaching career with information and experience to foster this ambition. The organization has been active in the Lake-Lehman District for 15 years and several former members are now teachers in the area. Same district. Jessica Thomas is sponsor.

Boro. Code To Contain Ordinances

Dallas Borough Council agreed following its regular monthly meeting June 15 to review certain of its ordinances and to have several new ones included in the borough's new code, soon to be published by General Code Publishers' Inc. Herman Stoll, editor-in-chief of the publishing company, was present at the meeting to advise council on codification procedures. He agreed to hold up publication of the new code until all ordinances—including new regulations pertaining to parking and towing, stop signs, open burning and certain changes in nomenclature—are adopted by council.

Complaints about sewer construction were aired by Councilman William Berti, who asked that the borough Secretary Ralph Garris write Area Municipal Authority seeking a "More careful clean-up after blasting by the sewer contractors." Mr. Berti noted that empty cartons have frequently been strewn near the roadside by construction crews and that in at least one instance, a manhole was left uncovered over night.

A letter from Dallas Borough's representative on the Dallas Area Municipal Authority, John Dickinson, was read to council. The letter was in answer to a request made by council following last month's meeting that either Mr. Dickinson or John Casner, the borough's other representative on DAMA, attend council meetings to answer questions from residents which arise about sewer construction.

Mr. Dickinson strongly advised council to direct any such citizens to attend the monthly authority meetings where all members of the three-community municipal authority "are prepared to answer questions more fully" and where all pertinent data is available.

Additionally, Mr. Dickinson wrote, "I personally feel that authority members are spending enough time already" on matters related to sewer construction. He noted that DAMA members frequently meet more than once a week and that to ask them to sacrifice yet another night each month is unnecessary.

The letter was read without comment by council. Use of the basketball court in the borough's new park at Luzerne Avenue and Burndale Road was granted to a group of patients from Retreat State Hospital. According to Park and Recreation Chairman George Thomas, the group will use the court one half day each week, a 10 p.m. curfew was established by council for night use of the park, and a stipulation that no bicycles be permitted on the new tennis courts was also approved. It was noted that tire marks on the courts can ruin the playing surfaces.

George Thomas presided in the absence of Chairman Edwin Delaney; Solicitor Charles D. Lemmond Jr. was also absent.
