

Shivaree Turns Into Nightmare

A shivaree that got out of hand resulted in extensive damage to the mobile trailer home of Mr. and Mrs. David Crossmon shortly after midnight Saturday, the Dallas Post learned earlier this week. The Crossmons, who were married June 12, live in Noxen.

According to Mr. Crossmon, he and his wife, the former Deborah Jurista, were awakened by gun shots outside their home late Saturday night. Several persons then pounded on the trailer, Mr. Crossmon said, and when the couple dressed and went outside, they found approximately 15 men and women standing about.

"They told me to put my wife in a wheelbarrow and push her uptown," reports the young bridegroom. "I just thought they were going to have a little fun so I did what they said—I sure didn't know they were going to make such a mess."

When he and his bride returned to the trailer a short time later, they were heartsick at the sight that greeted them. Their bed had been turned upside down, a lighting fixture had been pulled from the ceiling, shaving cream smeared over a new rug, curtains torn, their clothes and furniture strewn about, and the entire trailer littered with marshmallows, salt and pepper, and popcorn.

Many of the persons who perpetrated the vandalism were identified by Crossmon's sister, Mrs. John Grady, who lives next door. She and her husband managed to persuade the revellers to leave the premises—but only after the young couple were warned that they were next in line for a shivaree.

Stolen Coins Worth $6,000

Coins worth $6,000 were stolen July 21 from the home of a Shavertown man.

Kingson Township police reported thieves took two boxes filled with coins from the residence of Stanley Evans, 170 Hillcrest Ave. Mr. Evans told police he had gone out late in the afternoon and discovered the theft when he returned at 9:30 p.m.

Unknown person(s) entered the home by forcing a window on a rear porch. From the porch they gained entry into the kitchen through an unlocked door. A cash box from Evan's desk and an Army surplus box, which was on the floor, were taken from the dining room area. The two boxes were said to contain collector's items worth approximately $6,000.

Patrolman Cliff Culver investigated and asked State Police to assist in the case. The investigation is continuing.

Golf Tourney Chairman Outlines Game Rules

John Troup, chairman of Irem Temple Country Club's annual Potentate's Tournament, has announced that the applications are far in excess of the manageable number of golfers for the competition to be held Aug. 5, 6, 7, and 8.

Format of the tournament will follow that of the two most recent mid-summer classics. Better ball of partners play in both stroke and match play will be featured Saturday and Sunday. Friday's play will have each team desiring to enter match play competing for the 16 openings in that part of the tourney.

Pairs failing to qualify for match play automatically enter the two day stroke shoot-out for awards in lowest gross and net scores. There will also be awards for low combined two-day scores, as well as for low each day. Entries losing match play Saturday will be eligible for stroke play Sunday.

Returning to defend the match play laurels they won in 1970 will be Billy Yurkon and Cy Monka, playing out of Emmanon. Hoping to get another shot at them will be Tom Gauntlett and Ron Pieczynski, last year's medalists.

Entering teams include golfers from Georgia, North Carolina, Iowa, Massachusetts as well as most clubs in the northeastern area of Pennsylvania.

The Giants Despair Hillclimb, one of the oldest in the nation, was sponsored by Greater Wilkes-Barre Jaycees in cooperation with the Northeastern Pennsylvania Region of Sports Car Club of America. There were 195 drivers competing in this year's race.
