

It took over five hours of dedicated work by approximately 15 members of the Dr. Henry M. Laing Fire Company to restore equipment used in battling the Basil Frantz barn fire to tip-top condition. Pictured above are several of the volunteers along with a few of the 20-plus firemen's coats which were spread out to dry in front of the borough building.

Plenty of Sparkle At Dallas Fall Fair

The Dallas Fall Fair promises to be bigger and better than ever before, with popular recording stars, a troupe of acrobats, and a crafts auction adding sparkle to the three-day event.

Scheduled for Sept. 3, 4 and 5 at the Lehman Horse Show Grounds, the fair will feature the New Christy Minstrels, a young singing group well known for their up-beat folk singing. The group will appear at several large affairs this fall, including the Allentown Fair. Their appearance in this area is set for Sept. 3.

On Sept. 4 and 5, the Bentons will perform for fair-goers. A family group which includes three daughters, one son and the mother, the Bentons are an acrobatic team whose feats have been seen on nationwide TV.

For the first time in the history of the Dallas Fall Fair, a crafts auction will be held in conjunction with the event. Exhibitors may enter crafts or hobbies in the customary crafts show with a minimal bid attached to them; persons may then bid on the articles at a special auction to be held Sept. 5. Experienced auctioneers Myron Baker, Dick Demmy, John Casner, Pete Arnaud and Merrill Faegenburg will conduct the bidding, with crafts to be returned to the exhibitor if the minimal price is not bid.

Oak Hill

by Bridgette Correale 639-5759

I dedicate this column to friends and neighbors who have wondered where my writings went. To them I say "I would rather switch than fight!"

The Batka family, Charles, Eileen, Karen and Chuck, have recently returned from an 11-day vacation frolicking in the surf at Point Pleasant, N.J. Charlie also managed to get his golf game down to a very respectable 38.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gesmundo this past week were their son, Joe and Barbara Gesmundo, and grandchildren from Long Island, N.Y.

Belated birthday greetings to Peter Tomaselli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tomselli. Pete celebrated his 11th birthday, July 27, with a luncheon hosted by Yolanda Tomaselli.

Happy to hear that Mrs. Ralph Godleski is home from the hospital and recuperating nicely, but sorry to learn that Mrs. Theron Osborne is a medical patient at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital. Get well soon, Shirley!

Sincere sympathy to Helen and John Kishkill upon the death of their nephew, Michael Kishkill.

Have you seen the sign which hangs across the Correale threshold, "Grossingers of the Ponocors?" It's really invisible to us, but it lights up to most of their out-of-town relatives. This week they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Valenti of South Hampton, N.Y. Mrs. Valenti is the mother of Vince Correale. If the deluge of company doesn't let-up, Mrs. Correale has vowed to join the Cloisters for some peace and quiet.

Enjoying a stay at the Tomaselli home were Mr. and Mrs. Dom Zadera of Brooklyn, N.Y. Grace Zadera is the sister of Yolanda Tomaselli.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Vince Angelicola slipped and fell at Harveys Lake and injured her back and leg. Recover quickly, Marge, the dance season will soon be upon Oak Hill.

Have you ever been caught in a rainstorm in Wyoming Valley? Well I did July 29, and it will be listed in my diary as one of the worst events in the five years I've lived here. I was shopping at Mark Plaza Shopping Center when the downpour began. I had to wade through the parking lot to my car, whose wheels were submerged in water to their hub caps. A good number of side streets were closed and traffic was snarled for blocks. To convey an idea of the magnitude of this problem, it took one hour and forty-five minutes to get from Edwardsville to Dallas.

The inadequacy of these roads to handle the water runoff was a very enlightening and discouraging discovery. If nothing is done to improve this situation, it will be necessary for people traveling through this area, during a rainstorm, to have unsinkable cars equipped with life jackets and water skis!

Barbecue

(continued from PAGE ONE) chicken, baked potato, corn on the cob, cole slaw, vegetable, cake, and beverage. All chickens purchased are three pounds or more each to insure a sufficient amount for all diners.

The men of the church are responsible for cleaning and barbecuing the chickens, and the corn is husked and cleaned by young members of the congregation under the watchful eye of the chairman; it is steamed in giant boilers over a huge oven made of concrete blocks.

The barbecue is always served under a large tent and goes on no matter what the weather is.

The baked goods booth is also a favorite with those who attend the auction. Women of the church bake and contribute dozens of cakes, pies, cookies, and hundreds of loaves of bread and rolls. For the past two years, more than 400 loaves of bread have been sold each year. This booth will be headed by Ruth W. Schoonover.

As the Centermoreland Methodist Church auction grows in popularity, so, too, do the net profits and in 1969 and 1970, the event netted more than $5,000 annually. This money goes into the church building fund and is used to make the necessary repairs and renovations to the church. Some is being held to eventually build an educational building.

Co-chairmen of this year's barbecue are Sheryl Phillips and Cindy Weaver. Members of the general auction committee are Clarence Schoonover, Robert Phillips, Ralph Weaver, Ted Dymond, who has served every year since the first auction in 1955, and Richard Brunges, who has been chairman of the auctioneers each year since the first auction began. Alta Kubic is ticket chairman, Bea Beatty is in charge of bargain items and Judy Schoonover, refreshments.

The Rev. Larry Saxe is pastor of the Centermoreland, Dymond Hollow, and East Dallas Methodist Churches.
