Police Report

Dallas Township

While driving home from work a Trucksville man fell asleep and damaged his car extensively, although he escaped injury.

Dallas Township police reported Lawrence Lee Richards, 24, of 26 Meadowcrest, was traveling east on Hildebrandt Road at about 8 p.m., Aug. 19. He told police he fell asleep, went off the roadway, sideswiped a telephone pole, and went back on the road.

His late-model Plymouth Duster had estimated damages of $1,000.

Police Chief Frank Lange investigated. Three cars were involved in an accident on Route 309 Aug. 20. There were no injuries reported.

According to Patrolman Carl Miers, the two moving cars were owned by Stephen Barosky of Kingston, and Claudine Brandon, RD 1, Harveys Lake, and a parked car belonged to Elizabeth E. Daily, 199 Lawn St., Shavertown.

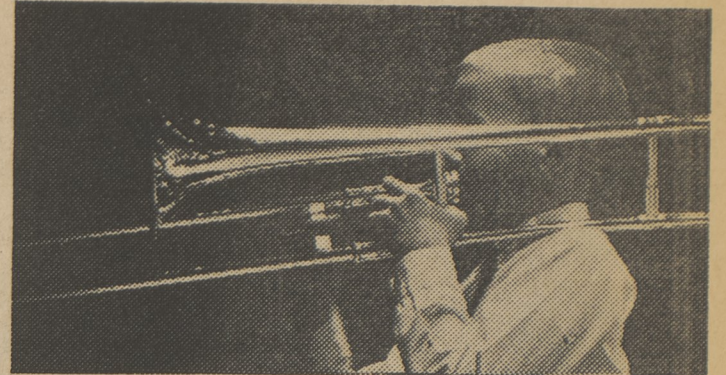

The report showed the Brandon car was pulling out of an ice-cream store parking lot to go north on Route 309 when the Barosky car, traveling north on Route 309 ran into the left side of Mrs. Brandon's 1965 Ford sedan, pushing it off the right side of the roadway and into the Daily vehicle. The parked car was in the lot of Dallas Tool Company.

Patrolman Miers reported Mr. Barosky had visibility of the Brandon car for 210 feet. The Barosky machine left 110 feet of skid marks before the impact and continued for 55 feet before stopping. The skid marks showed there was no attempt to swerve to avoid the Brandon automobile.

A reckless charge was cited against Rennard Lee Carkhuff, 22, of Huntsville St., Dallas, after a mishap Aug. 21 on Sutton Creek Road.

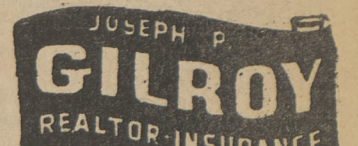

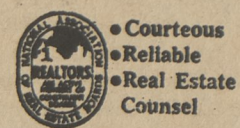

Patrolman Carl Miers investigated the 11:05 incident. His report showed Mr. Carkhuff was traveling west on Sutton Creek Road and the right front wheel went off the right side of the roadway. From that point the 1970 Plymouth coupe left 153 feet of skid marks, criss-crossing the driving lanes. The vehicle hit a ditch and rolled over, coming to rest on its roof.

The driver complained of a sore back but told police he would see a private physician. "Damages" to the car were listed at $1,200.
