

Area 4-H Horsemen Cop 12 of 24 Trophies

Back Mountain 4-H club members certainly "did themselves proud" at the 4-H District Horse Show held this past weekend at the Lehman show grounds. Of the 28 Back Mountain youngsters who participated, reports Ralph Beard, director of the county's 4-H program, 17 won first or second place honors in various competitions. These youngsters will now travel to Harrisburg for the Pennsylvania 4-H Horse Show Nov. 12 and 13.

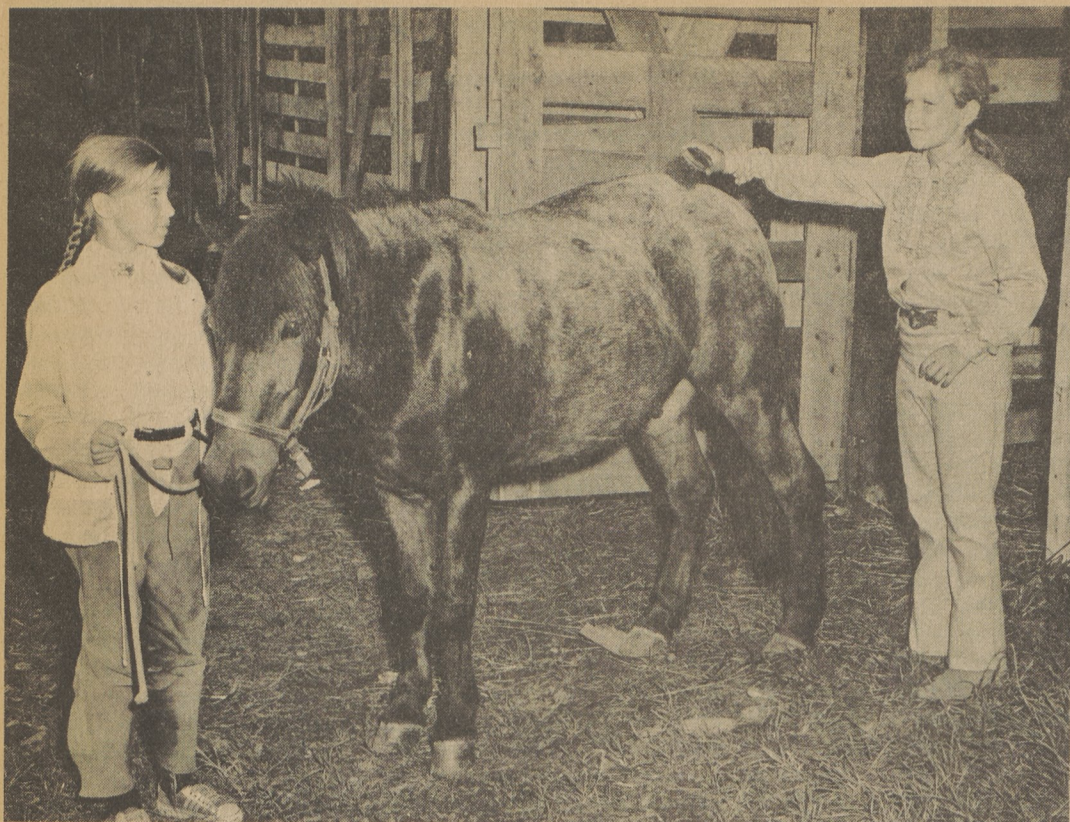

Horsemen from seven Northeastern Pennsylvania counties participated in the show, with 4-H members from Lackawanna, Wyoming, Bradford, Susquehanna, Pike and Wayne Counties joining the Luzerne County youngsters.

Back Mountain 4-H clubs represented were Joe Boyle's Bronco Busters, the Back Mountain Horseshow 4-H which is led by Mr. and Mrs. Tony Bogdon, Mrs. Robert Smith and Mrs. David Spencer; Mr. and Mrs. Don Lewis' Rough Riders and the Riding Ho 4-H, sponsored by Mrs. James Finn, Jane Morris and Linda Mekeel.

Figuring prominently on the winners' list were members of the Lewis Family: Billy Lewis won honors in grooming and showmanship, fox seat equitation and western pleasure classes; Donald took honors in two western riding classes, and Lynn Lewis took a first place trophy in western pleasure.

PENN STATE NEWS Wilkes-Barre Campus

Charles Boughton, athletic director at Wilkes-Barre Campus, PSU, is busily engaged in completing his new home at Lehman. During the summer he has been hard at work getting his new home ready for occupancy by Oct. 1, so he can devote his full time to the stepped-up sports and athletic program at the school. His wife, Leslie, who was a student last winter at the local campus, received her degree in June from Connecticut College for Women. During the spring term she served as proctor for the audio-visual aids department on campus. The Boughtons have three sons, Michael, a first grade student at Lake-Lehman, and James and Gregg at home.

George Nicholls, president of the Vets-on-Campus Club, is a busy man. He and his fellow club members are assuming responsibility for welcoming and conducting orientation sessions for the incoming veterans next week. George, a second year student in the education college on campus, and a 1964 graduate from Plymouth High School, served four years in the Navy, 18 months of that time in Vietnam. He will be married in December to Marion Duddy, Wilkes-Barre, a student in the special education curriculum at the local campus. They both plan to continue their work for a baccalaureate degree in their respective fields.

Class of 1971 reunion committee reports that plans are well underway for the WB Campus alumni reunion the weekend of Oct. 9. Stan Charnick, Marty Kristula, Jim Hertzler and Ed Zdancewicz have planned a really "big" time. Bulletins and invitations have gone out to all graduates from 1955 to the present for the affair. An outing at Konefal's Grove, Chase, will be held Saturday, followed by a dance and Las Vegas Night on campus that evening. Breakfast on campus will be served Sunday morning.

The steering Committee of FISH has asked area churches to observe Sept. 18 as "Fish Sunday." Information and volunteer sheets will be available in all churches on that day as volunteers are needed in all areas. Of special need are transportation volunteers, people who are willing to drive to doctors' offices, hospitals and other necessary trips. Volunteers may agree to drive one day each month, or to be "on call" throughout the month, answering calls when ever able to do so.

Another special need is for men and women who are willing to stay with a sick person overnight, on a short term emergency basis only.

FISH Organization Needs Volunteers

The FISH organization has been active in the Back Mountain area for almost two years. Through an answering service, any area resident can receive emergency help from FISH volunteers 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The number of calls continues to grow and the FISH organization needs more volunteers to serve in the Back Mountain area.

Christian Education Board To Meet at Gate of Heaven

A special meeting of the Gate of Heaven Board of Christian Education and the members of the standing committees will be held Sept. 22 at 8 p.m. in the church auditorium.

Members of the newly formed church board and standing committee were officially appointed last week after two preliminary meetings were held to discuss the future aims of the

2 Teenagers Fined

Charles Cummings of 115 Sutton Road, Trucksville, and Dennis Lahr of 151 E. Overbrook Road, Shavertown, were fined $25 and $50 respectively for violating the State's alcohol consumption laws Aug. 13.

Cummings, 19, was an occupant in a car operated by Lahr, also 19, when it was stopped on Route 309 at the intersection of Pioneer Avenue by Kingston Township Police Officers William Pugh and Paul Sabol.

Seven empty or partially empty cans of beer and one unopened can of beer were discovered by the police in the vehicle.

District WSCS To Sponsor Workshops

There will be a meeting Sept. 20 for the Oak Hill Civic Association at the Idetown Firehall at 8 p.m. Topic of discussion will be "sewers", when, where, how and why! Members are urged to attend. Congratulations to Gene Mohen, son of Rose and Leo Mohen of Hemlock Drive, upon being crowned King of the Dallas Fair. Gene, who is president of the senior class, represented Lake-Lehman High School along with Sharon Kleebar, who was crowned Queen. Hurrah for Lehman!

Pattie and Robin Kahn have recently returned from a three-week vacation in good old Brooklyn, N.Y. Staying with their maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Givner, the girls visited friends and relatives, shopped at New York's finer department stores, and enjoyed swimming at a local beach. After three weeks of city life, the girls were unhappy as they returned to our country way of living.

Birthday greetings to Ed Belasco who will celebrate his birthday Sept. 17.

Sorry to learn that Brian Bednar had to have several stitches on his forehead last week and that his sister, Lynda, hurt her hand while swimming at a neighbor's pool. The Hessons, Paul, Carol, Mary, Mark, Martha, Michael, and Thomas (they ran out of names that start with M, so they started a new line of "T's") enjoyed the Labor Day weekend in Syracuse, N.Y.

A family get-together was hosted by Larry and Mildred Kahn at their home on Hilltop Drive, Sept. 11. Enjoying the evening were, Sarah Edelstein 88, grandmother of Mrs. Kahn; Mr. and Mrs. Max Givner, parents of the hostess; from Brooklyn, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Morganstein and children, Haworth, N.J.; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Parker and children, East Hampton, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stiegler and children, Bronx, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Murray Edelstein and children, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Herb Schwartz, and children, Jerico, N.Y.; and Mr. and Mrs. Jule Brass and children, Brooklyn, N.Y.

I am reminded that Sept. 20 starts the feast of Rosh Hashanah, culminated with the celebration of Yom Kippur, the Jewish New Year, Sept. 29. I would like to take this opportunity to wish all our Jewish neighbors and friends a happy, healthy, and prosperous New Year.
