

Fourth Starlight Ball To be Elegant Affair

The fourth annual Starlight Ball, scheduled to be held at West Side Armory Nov. 6, will be sponsored again this year by the Wilkes-Barre General Hospital Auxiliary for the benefit of the hospital's patient care program. According to Mrs. Richard J. Levy, ball general chairman, the 1971 event is expected to be quite elegant with plans for two of America's leading society dance orchestras, a gourmet seated dinner, a light breakfast, a specially constructed dance floor, valet parking, and a decorating motif based on "Moonlight and Stars." Mrs. Charles E. Meyers is co-chairman.

Mrs. Adrian M. Pearsall, patron committee chairman, has already announced full membership of the patrons' committee for the event. She stated all members of the community are invited to become patrons, and may do so by contacting any committee member. The committee includes:

Mesdames Pearsall, chairman; Lewis T. Buckman, Stuart E. Graham, Edwin Lyons, Louis Maslow, Harold Snowdon Jr., Nelson Woehrlé Jr., cochairmen; Ben R. Jones 3rd, patrons' coordinator; F. Jorge Abrantes, F. Thornburn Armstrong, George B. Backer,

Welcome Wagon Club Plans Sponsor Night

The Welcome Wagon Club of Wyoming Valley held its September board meeting at the UGI building, Kingston, with Mrs. Frank English presiding. Plans were discussed for the first regular meeting of the season, Sept. 27, which will feature "Sponsor Night". It was decided to hold games at Valley Crest Hospital the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month. All members and guests are invited to tour Valley Crest.

12 Student Instructors Begin Teaching in Area

Twelve College Misericordia seniors will be student teaching in Lake-Lehman and Dallas area schools this semester beginning Sept. 20, according to Arnold Garinger, director of student teaching at the college. Six students will be placed in the Lake-Lehman schools and six in Dallas.

Susan Baron, South Plainfield, N.J.; Mary Ann Becker, Sinking Spring; Mary Ann Ehlers, Paramus, N.J.; Laura Lamberta, Bayside, N.Y.; Angie Vitale, Hancock, N.Y.; and Agnes Whitaker, Mahanoy City.

For the Lake-Lehman school district, the six student teachers are Diane Crivello, Middlesex, N.J.; Maurine Diskin, Scranton; Mary Ellen Lapansky, Catsauga; Janet Neiderer, McSherrystown; Jane Pannone, Bound Brook, N.J.; and Sheila Reager, Seaside Park, N.J.

The 12 student teachers are part of 40 College Misericordia senior education majors assigned to school districts in Luzerne County. Student teaching is part of the baccalaureate requirements for all education majors.

Students are assigned to school districts at the request of the college. While student teaching, the seniors are under the guidance of a cooperating teacher from the participating school district and an advisor assigned by the college.

Additional students will be assigned to area schools in the spring semester.

CHRISTMAS IN SEPT?
No, not really. We are just trying to shock you into realizing that the Christmas season will soon be upon us, and when you arrange something as important as your annual Christmas party, it requires quite a bit of advance planning. We at the Gus Genetti Hotel are now ready to take your Christmas holiday reservation, so DON'T WAIT, until it's TOO LATE to book one of our beautifully decorated party rooms. Same great package plans available as last year, and at the same great prices. If you didn't have your Christmas party at Gus Genetti's last year you missed a memorable event in your lifetime. Don't be left out this year.

GUS GENETTI'S IS READY FOR CHRISTMAS, WILL YOU BE?
