

The Rev. Paul C. Duncan Will Observe 40th Year in Ministry

by Millie Hogboom

The members of the Huntsville Christian Church will have a special celebration Oct. 31 in honor of their minister, the Rev. Paul C. Duncan, who is celebrating his 40th year in the ministry. Elma Major, chairman of the planning committee, has announced that the Rev. Dwight French, general minister of the Christian Churches of Pennsylvania, will be the guest speaker at the regular morning worship service at 9:30. In the afternoon a reception will be held in Mr. Duncan's honor in the church parlor from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. to which all of his friends are cordially invited.

Rev. P. C. Duncan

Rev. Duncan attended Harding College in Searcy, Ark., and the University of Louisville, Louisville, Ky. Following his theological training at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, he served his first pastorate in Louisville. He has also served pastorates in Jacksonville, Fla., Charlotte, N.C., Glasgow, Ken., and Madison, Tenn.

In November of 1968 Rev. Duncan accepted the call to the Huntsville Christian Church. With his guidance, the local congregation has accomplished a major renovation of the sanctuary including installing an exceptionally fine baptistry. Mr. Duncan also has taken an active role in community affairs. He now serves as president of the Back Mountain Clergy and treasurer of the Wyoming Valley United Ministers Association. He is also a member of the Wyoming Valley Council of Churches Committee on Ecumenism.

Rev. Duncan and his wife, the former Altha Wallace Taylor of Louisville, Ky., recently celebrated their 39th wedding anniversary. They are the parents of one son, Dr. Clarence W. Duncan, who has just been appointed chief clinical psychologist in a new minimal security prison to be built in Gainesville, Fla. They also have four grandchildren.

Dr. Clarence Duncan and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ramey of Louisville, brother-in-law and sister of Rev. Duncan, expect to attend the celebration Sunday.

So many houses in our community have changed ownership recently that it has almost become a game of musical houses. Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Rosenberg of Sutton Road will soon be moving to the Green Acres Apartments in Kingston. Dr. Rosenberg is head of the department of economics, commerce and finance at Wilkes College. His wife, Lillian, is an artist of some note in her own right. They will surely be missed.

Their home has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kiley of Kingston. Mr. Kiley, president of The First National Bank of Eastern Pennsylvania, is an avid hiker and will certainly find plenty of room to roam along Sutton Road.

Gary and Johanna Miller will be moving into the new home they built on Chase Road near her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Laskowski. One of the most unusual features of this house will be the antique Franklin Stove reproduction in their family room. It will serve as a cozy fireplace on chilly winter evenings, but it can also be pressed into service as a stove. It comes equipped with a griddle and an old-fashioned bean pot. Into the Miller's former home, will move Joe and Jan Krupa and their young son. The Krupas have temporarily been staying with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Krupa in Chase Manor, until they could complete some remodeling.

In the meantime Bill and Claire Evans of Kingston have purchased Mrs. Donald Innes' home on Overbrook Ave. The Evans five children, Cathy, Timmy, Billy, Chris, and John are already looking forward to living in the country and having plenty of "leg-room".

Don and Sue Bennett of Chase Corners have purchased a lovely town house condominium at the Newberry Estate. This modernistic new home will give Don a perfect opportunity to display his vast knowledge of the modern furniture and design field. Incidentally, Sue has just been named choir director of St. Michael's School for Boys at Hoban Heights. As such she will teach music and be director of the Boys Glee Club. It will be a fascinating experience for her and we wish her well in this new endeavor.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Ide have decided to pass on their handsome white colonial home on the Idetown Road to their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Shane, and children, Julie and Harter. Clint and Jule are in the process of building a lovely ranchstyle home actually in their own backyard but facing on the Lehman Road. Hopefully it will be ready for occupancy in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Burnside II, Oak Hill, have purchased the Shane home on Sutton Road. The Burnside's, better known as Scot and Daylene, have two children, Malcolm III, age 3½ and Kathryn or Katie as her friends call her, age 16 months. Scot is associated with Fowler, Dick and Walker, The Boston Store.

In spite of all the moving around, let us remember to vote in the election Nov. 2. If you are lucky enough to be voting at the Jackson Fire Hall, refreshments will be for sale, beginning with breakfast and continuing right through lunch and supper. Our ambulance association will be serving light refreshments in an effort to raise funds for the ambulance. So you can have a doughnut and a cup of coffee or a hot dog and coke while you mull over your choices.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chickson, Metropolitan Avenue, Lake Silkworth, recently spent three days in Wash., D.C., and Vienna, Va., where they were guests of cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Daczka.

Bill Hughes, the Jackson Township tax collector, has returned to his home at Chase Manor from Nesbitt Hospital where he was a patient recently.

Mr. and Mrs. William Umphred have returned from a vacation in Eleuthera in the Bahamas. Also while they were away they visited in New Orleans where Bill attended a telephone convention on behalf of Commonwealth Telephone Co. and Betty enjoyed a tour of a number of old homes and antique shops.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Lamoreaux of Chase Road and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Keyes of Falls recently spent a weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cochran in Lincoln, Va. While there, they especially enjoyed the "Dirt Road Tour", a tour of a Quaker community dating from the 1730's including a number of Quaker homes and a Quaker Meeting House.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Cochran has been selected as one of the homes to be toured next year. It is being remodeled and furnished in typical early Quaker style. While the Lamoreauxs were in Virginia, their children, Wayne and Curtis, and foster child, Wayne Persheau, visited with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Lamoreaux.
