Shavertown Branch of Nesbitt Memorial Hospital met recently to plan its part in the ninth annual holiday fair to be held Nov. 17 and 18 from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. each day. All branches of the auxiliary will participate.

Members of the Shavertown Branch who are chairmen for the bazaar are Mrs. Charles Perkins, chairman; Mrs. William Austin, president and decorations chairman; Mrs. W.H. Dierolf, knitwear; Mrs. Byron Shortz, Christmas tree ornaments; Mrs. William Thomas, novelties; Mrs. Martin Porter, candy; Elsa Boehme, aprons; Mrs. Harold Shappelle, special features; Mrs. Charles Maxwell, publicity; Mrs. Vincent McGuire, co-chairman and Christmas cookie tray covers; Mrs. William Clewell, candy; Mrs. Edward Gilroy, surprise packages; Mrs. David Emmanuel, pillows; Mrs. William Brown, Christmas tree skirts; Mrs. Abram Nesbitt II, "Holiday Boutique" booth; Mrs. Albert Armitage, pot holders; Mrs. Harvey Kitchen, nylon sponges; Mrs. Leon Beisel, Christmas door knob covers, clothespin bags and utility bags; Mrs. Alan Wilkinson, French lingerie bags; Mrs. Richard Crompton, painted antique shingles; Mrs. Leslie Carter, stuffed monkeys and other toys; Mrs. David Joseph, nursery and scenic plaques; Mrs. Elmer Daley, Mrs. Fred Eck, baked goods; Mrs. Lyman Lull, Christmas tree money socks; Mrs. John Kistler, lint brushes; Mrs. Ruth Shaver, Mrs. Robert Kleiner, aprons; and Mrs. Edward Baker, paper bag holders.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barney, former Plymouth residents, have moved into their new home on Sutton Road.

Wayne Long, N. Pioneer Ave., Shavertown, has returned home from Nesbitt Memorial Hospital, where he was a patient. Wayne recently suffered a compound fracture of the arm and although in body and arm cast, he is glad to be back in circulation.

Sixteen new members were welcomed by the congregation of St. Paul's Lutheran Church last Sunday morning following the 11 a.m. service.

Members of St. Paul's Lutheran League will join with other area Lutheran Leagues in attending EPSY Day at Muhlenburg College this Saturday. The members will depart by bus which will leave the church at 9 a.m.

Congregation leaders and interested members of St. Paul's Lutheran Church are invited to attend the Scranton-Wilkes-Barre Lutheran District meeting at the Hazleton Home, Nov. 7 from 3 to 5 p.m.

A Thanksgiving Eve service will be held for the first time at St. Paul's Lutheran Church Nov. 24 at 7:30 p.m. Thanksgiving dinner will be held at the church Nov. 25 for all families who wish to participate.

October meeting of the Dorcas Society was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wil Anderson, Harveys Lake. A wienie roast and sing-a-long were enjoyed by the women and their husbands, special guests for the evening.

Marguerite Gallagher has been appointed chairman of the rummage sale which will be held Nov. 11 and 12 at the church.

A recent survey of the youth members of St. Paul's Lutheran Church brought to light many interesting items. Bill Dierolf has been painting lines in the parking lot; Brad Hochhalter is still recuperating from an injury to his foot; Karen Kaufman is a Dallas Senior High cheerleader; Andrea Coyle is a Luther League representative; Gary Beisel is a Shavertown fireman; Grace Sheldon and Jan Biegelow are on the Dallas High hockey team; Pattie Lewis, Judy MacAvoy, Dan MacAvoy, Chrisan Pyle, Cindy Duncan and Brad Hochhalter are members of Dallas Senior High School Band; Amy Rowett and Rose Scott teach first grade in Sunday School; Earl Monk is on the Dallas High track team; David Rowett works at the ARCO station on the Shavertown Highway; Wayne Evans and Walter Karl are on the Dallas football team; Peter Swain is active in youth activities in the church.

A variety of activities, but all represent the initiative of our young citizens.

Dorcas Society will meet in St. Paul's Lutheran Church Nov. 9 at 8 p.m.

Couples Club of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will meet Nov. 20.

Local women will meet at St. Paul's Lutheran Church Nov. 9 from 9 p.m. to 12 noon to make cancer dressings.

Church Women United World Community Day Celebration will be held tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. at Kingston Presbyterian Church.

Our sincere congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Hammond who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, Nov. 3.

Couple Are United At St. Therese's

Theresa M. Hudak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony W. Hudak, West Overbrook Avenue, Dallas, became the bride of R. Daniel Parsons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Parsons, Main Street, Dallas, at a recent double ring ceremony in St. Therese's Church, Shavertown.

The Rev. Joseph Sammons officiated at the Nuptial Mass. The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a formal gown of silk organza and hand clipped Chantilly lace with high fitted neckline and back yoke of lace. It featured a bow at the back waistline, bishop sleeves, empire A-line silhouette and an attached chapel train edged in lace. Her bouffant veil of silk illusion was arranged on a lace Camelot cap accented with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and carnations with long white streamers. The bride placed a bouquet of red roses before the statue of St. Therese, her patron saint.

in apricot and white and interwoven with velvet ribbon. They wore matching camelot caps with shoulder length veils and matching trim. The junior bridesmaid wore a matching headband with rhinestone and velvet trim. They carried colonial bouquets of apricot and white carnations with apricot and white streamers.

John Carey was the bridegroom's best man. Ushers were Ronald Grant, Andrew R. Denmon Jr., and Robert Eipper, nephew of the groom. Mother of the bride selected a pink A-line dress with long lace sleeves. She wore silver accessories and a corsage of pink carnations with silver ribbon. The bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece blue dress with long sleeves trimmed in white. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations with yellow ribbon.

Following a cocktail hour and dinner at the VFW, Kingston, the couple left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada. The bride is a graduate of Dallas Senior High School and is employed by her father at Grounds Service Pools, Dallas. Mr. Parsons attended Dallas High School and served with the armed forces in Vietnam. He is employed at Valley Paperback Co., Dallas.

The couple will reside at 501 Main St., Dallas.

The bride was honored by her sisters at a pre-nuptial shower at her home.
