

Dallas Senior High School

by Nancy Popielarz and Patti Van Etten

Congratulations Juniors!

A big congratulations goes to the Junior class for their presentation of School Spirit Nov. 24. The juniors won the Wall Contest. A special thanks goes to Jeff Guyette and Mary Beth Donachie for their work as chairmen. A fine display was also given by the senior and sophomore classes. Keep up that SPIRIT!

Christmas Dance

The Student Council will sponsor a semi-formal Christmas Dance Dec. 22, from 8 to 11. The dance will be held in the school gym with music by Shenandoah. Priscilla Kloeber has been named as chairman with Roger Brown as co-chairman. The following people have been chosen as committee chairmen: Kathy Futch, decorations; Mike Kasper, tickets; Karen Purvin, programs; Dave Lieberman, refreshments; Diane Masoner, publicity; Pam Taddei, invitations. We hope to see all of you Dec. 22.

Thursday Night At The Movies
We hope no one has forgotten about movie night, sponsored by the Junior class. Keep Dec. 9 open for Edgar Allan Poe's The Fall of the House of Usher, starring Vincent Price. It's sure to be a night of fun and excitement.

Football

The annual Thanksgiving football game between Dallas and Lake-Lehman was held Dec. 1, at the Wyoming Area stadium. In spite of freezing temperatures hundreds of Dallas fans came to cheer their team to a 45-0 victory over Lehman. As a result of their victory the Mountaineers will keep the shoe for another year and win the B division championship. Student Teachers to Leave Dallas

Dallas will be losing two student teachers Dec. 12. Mr. Daney and Miss Dorish, both from Wilkes, have been teaching World Cultures and Spanish, respectively, for the past eight weeks. Everyone has enjoyed having them and would like to wish them good luck.
