

BOWLING NEWS

Most leagues will call it a holiday during the next week as their members take time out to observe the Yuletide Season, but come the first of the year, they will all be back at Crown Imperial Lanes finishing up the first half or starting the second half of the season.

In the George Shupp League, Monk Plumbing and Heating boys held their lead as they swept 4 points from Wilkes-Barre Truck. C. Molley blasted lanes 1 and 2 for a 238 (610) with teammate J. Lerch finding the range for 201-204 (586). D. Purvin gave the plumbers support with 201. E. Scandio was high for the truckers with 223. Harris Associates blanked Bill's Cafe to take sole possession of the second spot. K. Orkwis led the victors with 201-221 (601) with help from J. Guido's 222 and S. Bonomo's 208.

T. Appel blistered the maples for a dandy 201-209 (574) series as Stanton's TV shut out Mahaffey Oil. W. Stanton gave him a boost with 205. The oilers big gun remained silent. The Ranch Wagon fell to a third place tie with the TV men as they dropped 4 points to Boston Texaco. The service station men were led by G. Boston's 203. The ranchers' S. Fielding slammed a 224 series. Daring's Market had T. Henss pounding the wood for 215 as they split even with Woodland Inn.

A. Matte continued to roll her 500 series as she posted 182-189 (526) pacing G. H. Harris girls to a clean sweep over Ertley's in the Ladies Country League. Brothers Four's A. Corbett topped the pins for 174-178 (519) as the first half champs took 4 points from Joe's Pizza. F. Allabaugh's (495) series paced Daring's Market to a 4 point win over Fashion Vending.

Other highs registered in the Tuesday night league were L. Cyphers 182, A. Hospodar 170, R. Gula 180-178, R. Coury 190.

In the Industrial League Daring's put forth a solid team effort and shut out Electrolux despite R. Bonomo's wallowing 217. Jack Winters and Hurst Supplies battled it out to a 2-2 draw. Larksville 66 trounced Hoppy's Cafe for 3 points and Boston Texaco split 2-2. Jack Winters men are out in front by two games ahead of Hurst Supplies.

The Maverick's trampled the Bucks for 4 points in the Valley Paperback Mixed League. Barb Bonning led the attack with 184-185-184 (553) with Jane Bicking helping out with 173 (476). The Cougars outsmarted the high spirited Pintos 3-1, with Ray Mocium hitting 202. Geo. Groff led his Bears in taking three points from the Panthers. He knocked out 200-215 (595). Joe Yanalavitch paced the Cubs to a clean sweep over the Wolves. His 232 followed by J. Martin's 214 were deciding factors. The

Christmas Party Held in Huntsville

Elma and Mildred Major entertained the Christmas party of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the Huntsville Christian Church at their home. Carols were sung and a devotional service with several members participating was held. Members brought gifts for the White Haven State School. Several members brought in finished layettes for Church World Service. It was announced that Woman's Day will be observed Jan. 23, with June Christensen speaking. Those present were: Stella Roberts, Laura Watking, Mrs. James Wertman, Mrs. Thomas Tempelin, Mrs. Royal Culp, Mrs. Carl Warmouth, Elva Warmouth, Mrs. J. Milton Culp, Mrs. Gordon Wolverson, Mrs. Wm. Ash-ton, Irene Major, Mrs. Wm. Eckert, Hannah Culp, and the hostesses.

Christmas

Christmas is putting up lights, giving gifts, and snow. Christmas is fun because a little fat man comes down your chimney. I put hot chocolate and cookies out for him and then we decorate the tree. After that we hang up our stockings and then I go to bed and dream about Christmas morning. In the middle of the night something woke me up and I knew who it was. Do you?

In the Back Mountain Neighborhood League A. Fox slammed out 202-206 (591) as Henry's Jewelry grabbed 3 points from Roth Novelty. J. Swingle came up with 228, K. Orkwis' 211 (571) led the losers. Payne's Printers took 4 points from Brothers 4 to keep first place 3 games in front of the caterers. J. Kriel banged out 216 and F. Krouse came up with 204. Kazokas was high for the Brothers with 203.

Dallas Finance put solid team effort behind J. Gesmund 207 to shut out last place Valley Paperback. Konefals took everything from Disque Funeral Home.

The lead continues to pass back and forth in the Bowlerettes League with Boyd White's girls going out in front last Thursday when they took 3 points from Duke Isaacs' maids. The car dealer five are in second 1 1/2 games behind. Tom Reese girls placed third by shutting out Trucksville Pharmacy. Toots Langdon slammed out 194 (481); L. Cyphers rolled (480); R. Nygren topped the pins for 171.

Dallas Sunoco behind the fine bowling of J. Merc shut out Gebhardt's to widen their lead in the Crown Majors. Merc had 212-247 (649) to lead all bowlers for the night. R. Bonomo Jr. had 201 (583) to help. A. Fox gave 212. The losers had J. Lerch's 214. Shavertown Lumber made it 4-0 against Wesley Gulf. Bo Gosart had 205-209 (580) to lead the lumber men. Automatic Cigarette on the strength of E. Havrilla's 224 and F. Henness 203 took 3 points from Dallas Post. B. Varner's 203 was high for the news men. Dallas Shopping Center picked up 3 points from Hasay Motors led by Stevens 204 and D. Zimmerman's 203. Willis gave the losers 210.

Lutheran Brotherhood League ended the first half last Friday with the Tigers catching the Eagles for 4 points. The Hawks swooped down on the Mustangs to take 3 points and the Falcons outsmarted the Owls for 3 points. They will resume bowling Jan. 7.

Dallas Dairy, current leaders in Crown Imperialette League widened the gap in their league as they handed Fairview Shoe Store a 4-0 setback. C. Downs splintered the woods for 176. Goodman Florist ended in second position by taking 3 points from Don's Citgo. Apex took third by copping 3 points from O'Malia Laundry.

High scores for the night were S. Riegel 177 (487), J. Agnew 171 (477), J. Bicking 182 (465), F. Rittenhouse 171, J. Cornell 173.

Junior High bowlers continue to improve as the team members begin to get the feel of the lanes. K. Bonawitz smashed out 191 for his Health team; Sally Porter hit 170 (418) for Art. Debbie Foss hit two identical games of 139 for the History five and Don Carter had 166 for the German keglers. Science had Bob Hislop 138, and Dave Thomas scored 142 for Math. D. Roberts slammed out 135-152-161 (448) for the Spanish team with help from Doreen Grieves 137. Steve Burke had 135 for the French quintet.

Sunday's teams had Charles Eckman hitting 144 for Math and Mary Guyette rolling 140-145 (411) for her German group Kathy Goeringer had 135-159 for French and Ron Heffner spilled the pins for 182. Ned Corcoran gave his History five 165 (429) and Leslie Supulski had 146-137 (400). Anchorman Jim Myak came up with 156-134-174 (464).

Merry Christmas to all bowlers and to Tony Bonomo, proprietor. We thank all secretaries for their cooperation and urge you to continue turning in your reports for the rest of the season.
