

"How Our Savior Came To Earth"

It happened one night in the town of Bethlehem. A family of two came seeking an inn. They tried every inn but they didn't have any room. They looked and found a stable where animals were kept. There that night the virgin mother brought forth a newborn baby. The angels came and said to name him Jesus. A star shone bright over the place where Jesus lay. Wise men came from the east seeking him. Sheperds came with their flocks to see the newborn King. That is why man shall never die, but keep living eternal life.

Pamela Marr Grade 5 Lehman Elementary

Christmas Spirit

Christmas is the time for joy; For all the gifts that you receive Are something you always wanted. But don't forget on this Wonderful day Christ our Savior was born.

Vanessa Amos Grade 6-B Lehman Elem.

The Night I Saw Santa Claus

One Christmas Eve I was lying in bed While all kinds of goodies came into my head Then all of a sudden I heard a loud sound I said to myself, "From the chimney he must of fell down"

So I got out of my bed and onto the floor Then I tip toed very quietly out of the door I crept down stairs and into the room As soon as I got there I heard another great boom.

I sneaked into the room and hid behind the chair I came out a little and said in a small voice, Santa, are you there?

Then he said in a whisperly voice, "Yes, of course!" I came out from behind the chair, And went to him and said "Santa, what happened to you, While I was lying in bed?"

As I was stepping over the train I tripped on my shoelaces And there was so much pain

"Santa," I said, "you'll be alright By the time you get home tonight." Then he said, "Please promise to never tell Not even to your little baby sister, Nell."

"Santa," I promised, "I'll never in my whole life Because this was the greatest night in my whole life."

Jill McCarroll Grade 6-B Lehman Elem.

Christmas

Christmas is the best holiday, It's the one when people are happy and gay.

It's a time to laugh and a time to sing, And it's a time to think of a new born king.

So when the snow falls on the ground, You know that Christmas is around.

Kim Dinger Grade 6-B Lehman Elem.

Christmas

Christmas makes me happy. Christmas makes me gay. Christmas is always lots of fun But only for a day.

I want a game I want a sled, I'll never want To go to bed.

Sharon Partridge Grade 6-B Lehman Elem.

Christmas

Christmas is the time of the year When Santa comes with his reindeer And drops off all the wonderful toys. To all the good little girls and boys.

And what a joy to hear Christmas bells For all the sick people who need the 'Get Wells' And what a beautiful glistening sight Each time you go out on a Christmas night.

Kathy Williams Grade 5 Dallas Intermediate

Back Mountain Youngsters Enjoy the Holiday Season

Photo by J. Kozemchak Sr.

Santa Claus

Santa Claus is merry. His nose is as red as a cherry. He brings you presents and lots of candy And things that are so dandy He doesn't take much time He doesn't ring the chimes And doesn't stop till he gives you presents of all kinds. And when he says goodbye, He'll come next year and say Hi!

Cathy Sayre Grade 6 Lehman Elem.

Christmas Day

Christmas, Christmas time is here, a time for joy, a time for cheer. For Santa will come tonight in his sleigh, and tomorrow will be Christmas day!

Daine Hoyt Grade 5 Dallas Intermediate

Santa

Who is a jolly old man? He has a beard as white as a ghost. And you might leave him a snack or two. This all happens on Christmas night. If you stayed up it would be quite a sight. He brings toys just for the good little girls and boys. So be good all year, For next year is to come!

Terri Morgan Grade 6-B Lehman Elem.

Christmas Eve Suprise

Once upon a Christmas Eve I lay in bed. Everything was peaceful and calm. But that was what was the matter. My sister started to cry because Santa Claus hadn't come yet. Soon my brother got worried about what he was going to do if he didn't get what he wanted for Christmas. Then I got worried about what I was going to do if they didn't be quiet. In exactly ten more minutes I went down stairs with my pillow and a blanket. As I entered the living room I was startled to find a huge Christmas tree decorated with tinsel, Christmas bulbs, candy canes, and other things of splendor. I ran upstairs again. I looked at my sister. She smiled at me and said "Did you hear him? Did you hear Santa Claus? He just left!"

Deborah Allis Grade 6-B Lehman Elem.

Santa's Toys

Santa's shop is full of elves Putting the toys on the shelves They make diffent kinds of toys For all the little girls and boys. So if your ever very bad Santa seems never to get mad.

Doreen Osborn Grade 6-B Lehman Elem.

In The Manger

In the manger Christ was born, Laying in the hay. Almost every shepherd came, With something good to say. The star was bright in the sky, The little drummer boy was so shy. Everyone started to sing, They knew it was Christ our King.

Shari Sutton Grade 4-C Lehman Elem.

Christmas Is

Christmas is a time for shouting your joys that you get from your newly Unwrapped toys.

Christmas is a time for being near and loving dear your friends.

Christmas is all of these things and Many more But, remember what exactly Christmas is for.

Merry Christmas!

Marcia Janiczek Grade 6-B Lake-Lehman Elem.

Christmas

Christmas is a happy day. When Santa Claus is on his way, Bringing toys to each girl and boy, And bringing happiness and joy.

Or when Christ was born on Christmas Day, Bringing hope and joy. Bringing love to each girl and boy, And bringing happiness and joy.

Kathy Linston Grade 5-B Lehman Elem.

Events on Christmas Night

Santa and his elves get ready Then they pack the sleigh, After they hook up the deer He's usually on his way.

Santa flies right through the air With Rudolph in the lead, And when he lands on your roof. Down the chimney he'll succeed. He'll come in jolly with toys for you And put them under the tree, He'll wish you a Merry Christmas And a happy one for you and me.

Debbie Kocher Grade 6-B Lehman Elem.

The Meaning of Christmas

The meaning of Christmas is very simple. Christ was born one holy night In a manger where he lay. Wrapped in swaddly clothing, His mother by his side And Joseph on the other, By-By little baby, I love you the holy child.

Donna Headman Grade 4-A Lehman Elem.

A Christmas Poem

Through the blustery day I see, Footprints in silver filigree. Stranded out, oh so far, I don't know at all, where we are.

The storm is eager, And I am meager. I must get home, For I'm alone.

The sun is warm, the day is long, While I work, I sing a song. I work breathlessly to start a fire, Mainly of tree and cable wire.

The wind blows hard, and fast like lightning, The fire goes-out, just when it was brightening, When I decide to drink from my cup, The sun goes down and the moon comes up.

Kathy Huchinskas Dallas Inter.

Christmas

Christmas is a jolly time For everyone to spend a dime. Christmas is a time of year When people like to sing and cheer. As the snow begins to blow Children go in the snow To make snow balls in a row.

Donna Bogart Dallas Inter.

Christmas Memories

Memories are meant for Christmas, After Christmas they'll always be. And when you remember from year to year, Small ones will always lend an ear.

The only way to save these moments, Is to pay close attention to these moments.

Maybe if you're lucky, You will get to see, Santa Claus and Sally Claus, And that's a memory!

Linda Overman Grade 6 Dallas Intermediate

The Christmas Tree

We had a Christmas Tree so bright, and everytime the bulbs would light. The tree would seem to come alive. And even though the tree was dead The tree had seemed again to thrive. But until one sad Christmas Day. The little tree seemed on it's way. We thought the tree was going indeed. So we worked with very fast speed. To keep the little tree from grave. We worked and watered and warmed to save. So now again the tree is gay. To keep us all in our merry ways.

Kathy Campbell Grade Six Dallas Intermediate

Christmas Morning

It was Christmas morning And everything was bright The birds were singing I was humming And my teeth were white.

Ernie Smith Grade 6 Lake-Lehman

