Santa Arrives At Trucksville

Over 650 children attended the Christmas party held by the Trucksville Volunteer Fire Company Saturday afternoon. Santa Claus, through the courtesy of Sheldon Williams, arrived at the Trucksville Fire Hall on Trucksville's No. 1 fire engine and welcomed all the children to speak to him. Each child received a gift and was served cookies and orange drink.

Thomas Schmidle, chairman of the party, expressed his thanks to firemen, the women's auxiliary, and to those persons who donated items to help defray the costs of the party.

The Back Mountain Senior Citizens' Club met last Thursday night for a Christmas dinner at the American Legion Home in Wilkes-Barre. Club members, above, were entertained by the Dal-Hi Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Robert Sherwood. The next meeting of the senior citizens will be held at College Misericordia Jan. 10.

Christmas

Christmas is a time for cheer
It only comes once a year
With toys for every good girl and boy
Christmas is a time for joy!

Christmas is of great cheer
With cookies and candy galore
And lots of gifts
We bought from the store!

Communion Service at Chase Prison Scheduled

A special Christmas Eve candlelight Communion service will be held in the chapel at State Correctional Institution, Chase, under the supervision of the Rev. George B. Pickett, Protestant chaplain. The program begins at 3 p.m., and will consist of special Christmas music planned and presented by residents of the institution.

Communion service will be conducted by the Rev. Pickett, with the assistance of residents in the distribution of Communion elements.

Relatives and friends of inmates of the institution have been invited to participate in the Christmas Eve service. Arrangements have been made for the residents to participate with their families in the chapel during the worship service and also to participate with them during the Communion service.

Those persons interested in attending and participating in the Christmas Eve service are requested to be at the institution at 2:30 p.m. to allow ample time for the families and friends of the residents to be seated with the residents as a unit.

Carl C. Coates serves as organist for the Protestant worship services at the institution.
