Harveys Lake

by Mrs. John VanCampen

This "bug" that's going around is making its rounds among my neighbors. First one family is down in bed, and in a couple of days another is down. So far everyone has gotten over it, but the hardest hit was Stanley Wempa of Second Street, who was rushed to the General Hospital in the Lake ambulance. He was admitted the last of December and is still there, having a rough time of it. We, his friends and neighbors, want him to know we are wishing him a speedy recovery.

Francis Fisher presided at a short business meeting. Heartfelt sympathy goes out to the family of the late Joshua E. Bryant Sr., who died Dec. 24 at the Nesbitt Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Frank Schriber of Second Street Warden Place, is a medical patient in the Mercy Hospital. Her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Crockford of Garfield, N.J., visited her at the hospital over the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wempa, Second Street Warden Place, returned home after spending the holidays visiting their sons, Dr. and Mrs. James Wempa and family of Pittsburgh, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wempa and family, Dallas, Tex.

James Tattersall of Baltimore, Md., visited his mother, Harriet Tattersall, and his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. "Mickey" Tattersall and family, of Lake Side Hotel, Warden Place.

Mr. and Mrs. William Megargel of First Street Warden Place, spent the Christmas holidays visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Megargel Jr., and children, Mariellen and William III, of East Setauket, Long Island, N.Y. Meanwhile, their daughter, Suzanne, joined her husband S.P. 4 James Telesky, who is stationed at Fort Bragg, N.C.

Merle Taylor Jr. of High Street spent the Christmas holidays visiting his mother and family in New York.
