Jackson Twp.

by Millie Hogoboom
696-2603

Somehow I know Mom Hogoboom is having herself a good chuckle up there in her heavenly home. She used to tell me how wasteful I was. "Turn off those lights," she would say. "Use your head and not your heels". Now this energy crisis has made me realize how smart she was. After all, she survived the depression on the prairie of North Dakota, and experience is a great teacher.

Well Mom, if they were passing out merit badges for saving energy, I would have earned a few. Not only do we turn out lights, we are even exchanging high watt bulbs for lower watt bulbs. When I discovered cold air blowing in through my kitchen exhaust fan, I covered the filters with plastic bags when it's not being used. Latest on my list is cooking frozen vegetables in the oven with the meat. Marie Rimple gave me the time table for it, and they actually have a better flavor. A package of frozen vegetables can be wrapped in foil or placed in a baking dish and covered with foil. Add two tablespoons of water and two tablespoons of butter and salt and pepper to taste to each package. Then bake at 375 degrees. Peas for 35 minutes, French style green beans, wax beans or succotash for 45 minutes, asparagus, cut corn, green beans, and small lima beans for 50 minutes. At lower temperatures, cook a few minutes longer. It not only saves heat, but it also saves washing pots and pans.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barney, Sutton Road, invited a group of their friends to their home for dinner and a party to welcome in the New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Miller, Chase Manor, had as their guests over the New Year's weekend, Mr. and Mrs. C.

Baker Bernhart of Monroeville. Johanna and Gary Miller, Chase Road, entertained at a traditional New Year's Day dinner at their home. Twenty-four members of their families attended.

The oldest resident of Jackson Township, Mrs. Charles Behee, passed away on the first day of the New Year. Our sympathy is extended to her daughter, Helen Balliet, Chase Road, with whom she resided. The former Gertrude Ransom, she lived her entire 94 years within a stone's throw of her birthplace.

It may be a little late to mention it, but one of the most beautifully decorated homes at Christmastime is that of Fritz and Marian Sallada of Elmcrest Drive. Marian has made a hobby of collecting interesting and unusual Christmas decorations. So the many hours she spends arranging them is truly a labor of love for her. Last Friday evening when the Salladas entertained a small group of friends, much of the conversation concerned their unique Christmas displays.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Pregler, Overbrook Road, had as their guests during the holidays, Mr. and Mrs. William Pregler of Connecticut.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Elston, Overbrook Road, had as their guests recently, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stout of West Haven, Conn., and Mrs. Frank Wyrsech of Binghamton, N.Y.

We want to wish a special "Happy Birthday" to two neighbors, Ed Schechter and Douglas Maslow, who share the ninth day of January for their birthdate. Of course, we don't want to forget to send best wishes to Tom Weggel and Peter Sharp, who also had birthdays recently.

Our sympathy is extended to Louise Lamoreaux, whose sister Rose Levitt died recently in Dover, N.J.

Bronson's Funeral Home To Discontinue Services

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Bronson, funeral directors, announced their retirement recently after more than 44 years service as the Bronson Funeral Home in Sweet Valley.

Mrs. Bronson, a former school teacher, and Mr. Bronson received their degrees from Eckel's College of Embalming, Philadelphia.

Longtime residents of Sweet Valley, the couple has showed much interest in community service. Mr. Bronson introduced the first complete ambulance service in the Back Mountain, and operated it for over 28 years. He was one of a group of men who organized the Sweet Valley Volunteer Fire Company.

He and other area residents who saw a need for industry in Sweet Valley worked toward the erection of the building that presently houses the Karen Manufacturing Company. He was president of the Sweet Valley Improvement Company for over 20 years. He also served as school director on the Lake-Lehman area board for 12 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Bronson conceived the idea of a Sweet Valley parade to aid the newly-formed fire company. With the help of the late Sherman Kunkle they planned the first Sweet Valley Memorial Day parade, which became an annual event and attracts many people to the community.

Mr. Bronson was named a "Man of the Year" by the local Lions' Club.

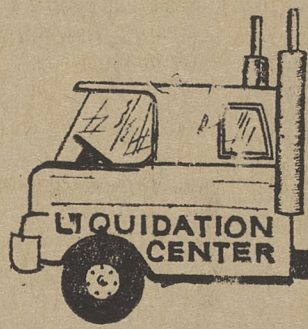

He is a director on the board of the Shavertown Branch of the Wyoming National Bank of Wilkes-Barre, a member of the National and Luzerne County Funeral Directors Association, a member of the Irem Temple Country Club, Bloomsburg Consistory, and Sylvania Lodge F&AM.

The Bronsons will maintain their residence at their present address.

There is a backlog of mail in some of the local post offices. Don't take a chance on your news being left out of the paper. Send it in early or drop it off at the office.
