

Lake-Lehman Students Take Engineering Test

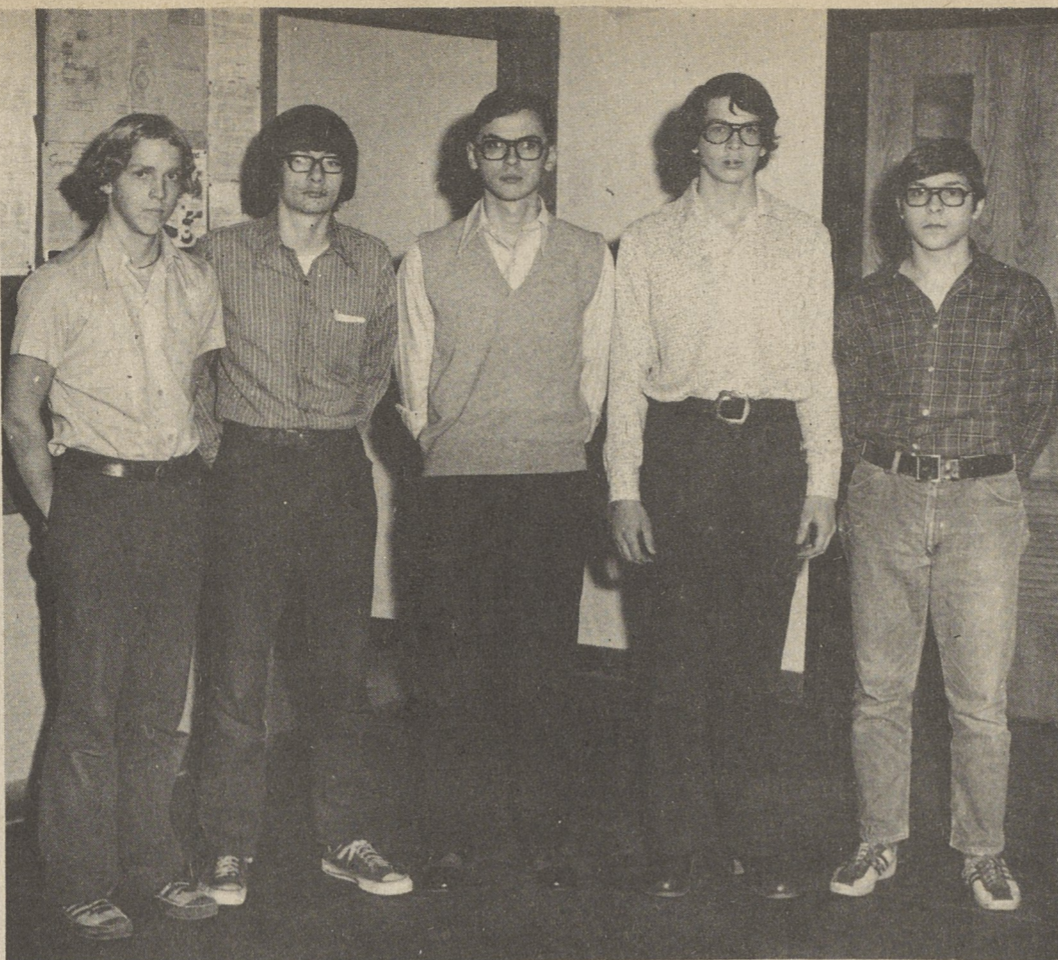

Lake-Lehman High School students were among the 75 area high school students who participated in the junior engineering tests conducted by the Junior Engineering Technical Society, through the co-operation of the Luzerne County Chapter, Pennsylvania Society of Professional Engineers, and the Penn State Wilkes-Barre Campus.

The tests were held recently on the campus located in Lehman, and were for the purpose of determining the aptitude and qualifications of students interested in pursuing engineering at the college level.

Participating were Scott Sherwood, RD 5, Shavertown; Kirk Dinger, RD 4, Dallas; Phillip Smith, RD 4, Dallas; Richard Perrego, Harveys Lake; and Edward Ungvarsky, Harveys Lake.

Prof. Lee A. Sweinberg and Prof. Robert Balla, members of the university's engineering department, were in charge of the testing.

Back Mountain Singers Practice Concert Skills

Barbershop harmony will fill the air, March 2, when the Wilkes-Barre chapter, Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America (SPEBSQSA) holds its 22nd annual concert.

Several committee members from the Back Mountain area met recently with the general chairman, Anthony R. D'Angelo of West Pittston, concerning the concert. They are Robert Carey, 175 Sterling Ave., Dallas; Joseph Fry, 113 Davis St., Trucksville; Phillip Brown, 156 E. Center St., Shavertown; Arthur Miller, 162 Huntville Rd., Dallas; and Harry Howell, RD 1, Dallas.

The annual "Parade of Quartets" concert features the Wyoming Valley SPEBSQSA Chorus, about 50 in number; "The Tag Masters", a local quartet, in which Mr. Brown sings tenor and Mr. Fry sings lead; plus three visiting quartets, "The Fifth Edition", Willow Grove; "The Reign Beaus' End", Dundalk, Md.; and for comedy, "The Allenaies", of Allentown.

Tickets are available from members of the chapter and by writing to the group's meeting and rehearsal site, Scott Street Hose Company, Swoyersville. The concert site will be Meyers High School, Wilkes-Barre; curtain at 8 p.m.

Trucksville Man to Head New Leader Nursing Home

Former Governor of Pennsylvania George M. Leader, president of Commonwealth Industries Inc., recently announced the appointment of George W.

Nichols as administrator of the new Leader Nursing Center-East, presently under construction on Second Avenue at Davis Street, Kingston. Mr. Nichols joined the Leader Organization in June 1973, and has been serving as assistant administrator of the Leader Nursing Center-West, Wyoming Avenue at Dorance Street, Kingston.

Mr. Nichols is a native of Trucksville and has had extensive working experience in the health care field.

Prior to joining, the Leader Organization, he served as assistant administrator of the Barnes-Kasson County Hospital, Susquehanna. He has also been employed as a senior financial manager for Consulting Financial Management Services of Kingston, specializing in the areas of financial and administrative concern with various hospitals in Northeastern Pennsylvania. Mr. Nichols worked for the Mercy Hospital of Wilkes-Barre and the Blue Cross of Northeastern Pennsylvania, serving in executive capacities with both organizations.

Mr. Nichols has been accepted by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as a nursing home administrator.

Mr. Nichols is the son of G. Wilbur Nichols and the late Mrs. Ruth Nichols of Trucksville. He is a graduate of Kingston Township High School. He has completed extensive busi-
