Jan Hope Daily

Jan Hope Daily Engaged To David L. Elston, Dallas

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic K. Miller, RD 2, Hunlock Creek, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Jan

Hope Daily, to David L. Elston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Elston, RD 1, Dallas.

The bride-elect, also the daughter of the late Ralph K. Daily, Kingston, is a senior at Lake-Lehman High School.

Mr. Elston, a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School, is employed at the First National Bank of Eastern Pennsylvania.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Scholarship Established By F. Millnamow Estate

A Francis X. Millnamow Scholarship has been established at College Misericordia, according to president Sister

Williams, Pauline Yenason, Diane Zapoticky.

Wilkes Theater Department Offers Pulitzer Prize Play

The Wilkes College Theater Department will bring to life Thomas Wolfe's Pulitzer Prize play, "Look Homeward, Angel," Feb. 21, 22 and 23, with a high school preview Feb. 20, in the Center for the Performing Arts.

James McAndrew, Scranton, will portray the role of Eugene, who is burning with the yearning of divided loyalties and cries out piteously to his tyrannical mother, Agnes Cummings, Scranton.

John Sauerhoff, New Canaan, Conn., has the role of the bibulous father, the tombstone cutter filled with wrath over his wife's greedy obsessions.

Others in the large cast include Shawn Murphy, Lehman Avenue, Dallas as the town madame; Paul Sanger, Livingston, N.J., as Ben, Eugene's doomed teen-age brother;

Ruthanne Jones, Forty-Fort, as

Helen, the devoted sister; Robert Klein, Pocono Lake, as Will, the deprecating uncle; Albert Gluc, Wilkes-Barre, as Dr. Maguire, a homespun physician; Paula Lori, Pittston, has the role of Laura, Eugene's first love; and Robert Leach, Kingston, and Robert Yanku, Cranston, R.I., play other members of the family.

Some of the frowsy boarders who help to destroy any possibility of domestic happiness in the Gant family will be played by Debbie Yakus, Forty-Fort; Tom Burns, Harrison, N.J.; Elaine Harrington, Hazleton; Dianne LaCava, Danbury, Conn.; Charmaine Broad, Hammondsport, N.Y.; Scott Leads, Wilkes-Barre; and Robert Fabbri, Hudson.

The other members of the production who are rarely mentioned, but perhaps play the most important part in the running of the show, are: Drew Landmesser, Bear Creek, stage manager; Nancy Schultz, Salem, N.J., assistant stage manager; Estella Parker, Pocono Manor, assistant to the director; Gary Schachter; Linden, N.J., master electrician; Fred Paocolitch, Taylor, assistant electrician and sound technician; John Howell, Scranton, master carpenter;

Mike Heller, Reading, property master; Melissa King, West Africa, costume mistress; Dianne LaCava, Danbury, Conn., make-up head; Kit McCarty, Ambler, house manager; Debbie Morano, Hasbrouck Height, N.J., box office manager; Marianne Stefanowicz, Harvey's Lake, head usher, and Ann Rapoch, Taylor, publicity chairman.
