Highlanders Defeat Wilkes But Lose to LCCC, 50-37

The College Misericordia Highlanders retained their even record last week, dropping a game to Luzerne County Community College, 50-37, and edging out Wilkes College, 45-43, Saturday afternoon. The win and a loss give the Highlanders a season record of 2-2 to date.

Meeting Luzerne County Community College at home Tuesday night, the Highlanders found themselves outgunned in three of the four periods. In the first period, the Minutewomen of LCCC built up a commanding 16-6 lead and added to it up to the half. As the buzzer ended the first half, LCCC led 28-16.

12 points and holding the Minutewomen to 10. The final period saw the scoring edge turn back to LCCC, as they sunk 12 against Misericordia's 9 to wrap it up at 50-37.

Dawn Wolfe, high scorer for the Minutewomen last year, led the scoring Tuesday night with 15 points. High scorer for Misericordia was junior Debbie Smith with 11.
