Newberry Estates

Beginning this week, a special column devoted to the activities of the residents of The Newberry Estate Country Club will appear in the Post. News of the club's sports and social events will be reported and newcomers will be introduced.

The atmosphere at The Newberry Estate recently has been one of wedding bells and daisies. The upcoming double wedding of Linda Troup to Don Brown and Jane Troup to Mike Molnar is the main topic of conversation these days. The bride-elects were honored at a buffet dinner and variety shower at The Newberry Estate Lodge last Monday night. The hostesses were Mrs. Alex Duncan, Mrs. Robert Crawford and Mrs. Cliff Troup.

On May 19, Linda and Jane will be guests of honor at a buffet luncheon in the Recreation Center given for them by their grandmother, Mrs. Oliver J. R. Troup Sr. of Jenkintown.

Incidentally we understand that Paulette Cliff is excited about the paintings which Mike Molnar commissioned her to sell at the Antiques and Art Barn, Dallas. One was purchased as soon as it was hung on the wall. Jane and Mike are both talented artists and will have an exciting career in this field in Florida after their wedding. Jane, Mike and Jerry Gallagher will have a special exhibit of their paintings for two weeks beginning June 2 at the Art Barn.

The tennis courts at Newberry were the first ones open for play locally and they have really had a hard workout. Ed Schellenberg, chairman of the recreation committee, has announced that Toby Nagle will be the director of recreation again this year. The pool is scheduled to open weekends starting May 18 thru May 27 when it goes on the summer schedule of seven days a week. Bill Umphred has returned from a wonderful golf vacation in LaCosta, Calif.

When purchasing vacation land, make sure you're fully informed about mortgage arrangements and about the cost and availability of water, streets, and sewage disposal. Visit several sites at different developments before making a final choice. Never make a decision to buy land on the spot without taking time to consider the purchase carefully. Review the contract with an attorney.—Pa. Bu. Consumer Protection.
