

Dallas Kiwanis Women Hear Of Scouts Switzerland Trip

At the Dallas Kiwanis Women's Club meeting last week, leaders of Senior Girl Scout Troop 660 presented a review of the troop's trip to Switzerland last summer.

Florence Sherwood, Mrs. Marvin Carkhuff, and Denise Sherwood presented films and articles which were made by the Swiss people.

The troop stayed at the Girl Scout Chalet, high in the Alps, and travelled much of the terrain in that area. They met many Scouts from other lands. Meat, sweets and soft drinks were in very short supply, they said.

On their return trip, the scouts spent several days in England visiting historic London landmarks.

Mrs. Walter Roberts, program chairman, introduced the speakers. Nancy Grabenstetter was selected as corresponding secretary, replacing Jean Purcell who resigned.

Mrs. Robert Maturi announced plans for the annual Charity Ball to be held June 29 at the Irem Temple Country Club outdoor pavilion. Music will be furnished by Hal Cragle and his "Summer Sounds".

A request was made by Mrs. Bernard Banks for jewelry for the Library Auction table. Other donations may be given to Mrs. George McCutcheon.

Mabel Harter volunteered to serve on the salad luncheon committee.

Mrs. Maturi made the table arrangements, assisted by Mrs. James Parry and Mrs. Carl Goeringer.

Clara Troxell, Jane Thomas and Helen Rice are in charge of next month's committee.
