Shalom Singers Record, 'This is The Day Shalom'

The Shalom Singers, a group of youngsters from Gate of Heaven Church, Dallas, have appeared locally and throughout the state at many religious services, benefits, dinners and conventions. They now have to their credit a record, "This is The Day, Shalom," which they released recently.

The songs on the record, with the exception of "This is The Day," have previously been sung by talented artists. "This 'is The Day' was written by Bill Cutter, a Shalom singer. The record includes popular as well as liturgical selections. Some of them are "He Ain't Heavy, He's My Brother", "Follow Me", "To Be Alive", "Sabbath Prayer", and "Day by Day". The group began singing three years ago at Sunday morning Mass at the Dallas church. Their enthusiasm and joy of singing spread quickly and they were asked to appear at many functions. They have also appeared on local television.

Weber Family Will Hold Annual Reunion

The Weber Reunion will be held Sept. 1 at the home of Lloyd Weber, Meeker Road.

Directions to the Lloyd Weber residence are as follows: Take the Harveys Lake Road, 115, approximately 1 1/4 miles to Route 118. Turn left. Take Route 118 to the center of Lehman. Turn right on Meeker Road. The house is the sixth on the left about two miles from Lehman Center.

Call 477-5576 if there is any difficulty in locating Mr. Weber's residence. Come and bring the family. Meet the relatives!

The Rev. Stephen McGough, assistant pastor at Gate of Heaven Church, is leader of the group. Father McGough has spent many hours with the young singers, a friend as well as an instructor.

Bill Cutter, a soloist, composed his song just for the record. He graduated from Dallas Senior High School in June and will major in music at Mansfield State College in the fall. Song commentator Barb Lynch, also a Dallas graduate, will attend Lycoming College in September.

The record is available through Gate of Heaven Church. It was recorded at Roxan Sound Studio in Nanticoke. Shirlee Jones was music consultant.

122 Celebrities Signed for 1974 Jerry Lewis Telethon

One hundred twenty-two celebrities of stage, screen, television, and radio have already signed up to appear on the 1974 "New Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon" to benefit Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America.

"That's the largest number of stars we've ever lined up for the show this far ahead," Jerry Lewis said in his announcement. Lewis, national chairman of MDA, predicted that "at least 150 stars" will appear during the telethon's 2 1/2 hours on the air.

The show, originating from the Space Center at the Hotel Sahara in Las Vegas, with live pickups from New York and Nashville, will be broadcast from 10:30 p.m. (EDT) Sept. 1 through Sept. 2, at 6:30 p.m. over the 172 station coast-to-coast telethon network. In this area, the Jerry Lewis Telethon will be broadcast for the first time over WDAU-TV, Channel 22.

Among those now slated to join Jerry Lewis and anchorman Ed McMahon in Las Vegas are Anna Maria Alberghetti, Jack Benny, John Davidson, Fats Domino, Chad Everett, Totie Fields, the Mickey Finn Show, David Hartman, Joey Heatherton, Arte Johnson, Steve Lawrence and Eydie Gorme, Michel LeGrand, Jack Lemmon, Liberace, Ida Lupino, Johnny Mathis, Jan Murray, Jim Nabors, Lois Nettleton, Wayne Newton, George Segal, Susan Strasberg, Mel Torme, Jerry Vale and Dionne Warwick.

The Nashville segment of the telethon will be hosted by Johnny Cash. His guests will include June Carter, Danny Davis and the Nashville Brass, Bobby Goldsboro, Dolly Parton and Charlie Rich.

The New York show will be hosted by Dorothy Collins. Among those scheduled to appear with her are Muhammed Ali, Sammy Cahn, Godfrey Cambridge, Carol Channing, the Electric Company, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Gladys Knight and the Pips, Richie Havens, Helen Hayes, Aliza Kashi, B. B. King, La Lupre, Julius LaRosa, Kay Medford, Jerry Ohrbach, Soupy Sales and Enzo Stuart.

Behind the scenes at television stations throughout the country over 100,000 volunteers will run more than 1,000 individual pledge centers and help station personnel put on local cutaways slated for every hour of the telethon.

Last year's show broke all Telethon records, raising a grand total of $13,527,185 after all pledges were collected.

UGI Headquarters Relocated in Suburbs

UGI Corp. recently moved its corporate headquarters from Philadelphia to suburban Valley Forge. Executive offices of the diversified energy company are now located in the Irwin Building on Route 363, near the junction of the Schuylkill Expressway and Valley Forge Interchange of the Pennsylvania Turnpike. The move involved 35 management and supporting personnel.

In addition, approximately 20 corporate accounting personnel will relocate to Reading, Aug. 19, completing the phase-out of UGI facilities in Philadelphia.

Founded in Philadelphia in 1882, UGI maintained executive offices in the 1400 Arch St. Building, a property sold by the company last year in connection with plans "to consolidate and locate management groups closer to business operations."

UGI's Gas Utility Division is based in Reading and serves 200,000 customers in 13 eastern Pennsylvania counties. The Electric Utility Division in Kingston, near Wilkes-Barre, has 52,000 customers.

Ugite Gas Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary, is based in Malvern and supplies LP-gas (propane) and other industrial gases to 68,000 customer installations in eight states. Capital Industries, Inc., producer of single-family housing, is headquartered in Avis, Pa., near Williamsport. Realty and land development operations also will be directed from Valley Forge.
