Dallas Area Fall Fair: 3 Big Days of Work and Fun

Children

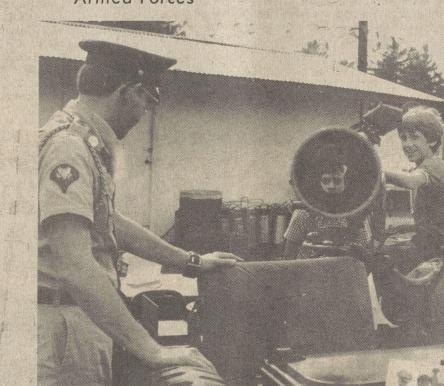

Cotton Candy

Rides

Armed Forces

Clowns

Games

Animals

Art and Crafts

Flowers

Produce

Game Commission

Plants

Balloons

photos by Mike Hendricks and Doris R. Mallin better than ever."

than last year.

previous years.

all three days. "People seemed cantly," he said. to like it," he said. "I think they may have gone home a little every person a slip of paper earlier this year than other with all the classes of exhibits years, maybe because of the listed on it when the people buy tight money situation." their tickets at the gate," he He said the exhibitors liked continued.

the new tent space. Nobody had fied with the fair. One exhibit Jordan explained. veys Lake. It has a plastic body, a stick.

From all reports this year's a small engine that gets 30 Fall Fair was "bigger and miles per gallon of gas, and can be driven on the highway. The It is still about a month too vehicle is made by the Rupp early to determine exactly how Company of Germany, much money was earned for a Dr. Jordan said he thought new medical facility but the the home economics exhibits total gross on the grounds, were good but there should have (including refreshment stands, been more entries. They have gate admissions, and sales of already figured a way to inspace to commercial exhibi- crease entries in this category tors), will run slightly higher for next year and they will also add a new wrinkle which should According to Daniel Chap-draw more spectators to the man, who keeps the books for exhibits.

the fair, it will be impossible to Next year they plan to hold tell the financial success of the the judging for the home fair until all the bills are in and economics exhibits at 1 p.m.

all the money still due the fair Saturday instead of Frightshas been received. Then the "I think a lot of these omen sum should be adjusted for who would like to exhibit things inflation before an accurate are working now and they can't comparison could be made to get off to bring their things over. By having the judging Dr. Lester Jordan reported Saturday it should increase the the fair drew a good crowd for number of exhibits signifi-

"Then we are going to give

"The people can then go and any of their exhibits damaged look at the exhibits and write and nothing was reported down which ones they think will get first prize. The one who Dr. Jordan said the commer-picks the most winners will get cial exhibitors were well satis- a $25 U.S. Savings Bond," Dr.

that drew quite a bit of attention So there you are folks, next was a new three-wheeled vehi- year's Fall Fair will be even cle, the first one in the state, bigger and better than this exhibited by Al Wendell, Har- year's. You can't beat that with

Food